Monocultures Of The Mind Perspectives On Biodiversity:

Monocultures of the Mind Vandana Shiva, 1993-02 Vandana Shiva has established herself as a leading independent thinker and voice for the South in that critically important nexus where questions of development strategy the environment and the position of women in society coincide In this new volume she brings together her thinking on the protection of biodiversity the implications of biotechnology and the consequences for agriculture of the global pre eminence of Western style scientific knowledge In lucid and accessible fashion she examines the current threats to the planet s biodiversity and the environmental and human consequences of its erosion and replacement by monocultural production She shows how the new Biodiversity Convention has been gravely undermined by a mixture of diplomatic dilution during the process of negotiation and Northern hi tech interests making money out of the new biotechnologies She explains what these technologies involve and gives examples of their impact in practice She questions their claims to improving natural species for the good of all and highlights the ethical and environmental problems posed Underlying her arguments is the view that the North s particular approach to scientific understanding has led to a system of monoculture in agriculture a model that is not being foisted on the South displacing its societies ecologically sounder indigenous and age old experiences of truly sustainable food cultivation forest management and animal husbandry This rapidly accelerating process of technology and system transfer is impoverishing huge numbers of people disrupting the social systems that provide them with security and dignity and will ultimately result in a sterile planet in both North and South In a policy intervention of potentially great significance she calls instead for a halt at international as well as local level to the aid and market incentives to both large scale destruction of habitats where biodiversity thrives and the introduction of centralised homogenous systems of cultivation

Monocultures of the Mind Vandana Shiva, 1993 Monocultures of the mind Biodiversity a third perspective Biodiversity and the environment The seed and spinning wheel technology development and biodiversity conservation The biodiversity convention an evaluation from the third world perspective Monocultures of the Mind Vandana Shiva, 1993 Gary

Bryner, The Historical Dictionary of Environmentalism strategically skips across issues concepts time organizations and cultures not with any pretense of producing a definitive dictionary but rather with the aim of producing an inclusive wide ranging and global history of environmentalism This is done through a chronology a list of acronyms and abbreviations an introductory essay and over 300 cross referenced dictionary entries Women in History: 100 Impactful Women You

Trading the Genome Bronwyn Parry, 2004 In a work that draws on anthropology history philosophy business and law Bronwyn Parry links a firsthand investigation of the operation of the bioprospecting industry to an analysis of broader economic regulatory and technological transformations the rise of an information economy global intellectual property rights and benefit sharing regimes and the progressive molecularization of approaches to biological research Parry reveals how a failure to monitor this new global trade in bio information could have potentially disastrous consequences for the suppliers of genetic and biochemical resources transforming the complex dynamics of collecting as well as the politics and practice of biological resource exploitation BOOK JACKET People, Plants, and Justice Charles Zerner, 2000 In an era of market triumphalism this book probes the social and environmental consequences of market linked nature conservation schemes

Rather than supporting a new anti market orthodoxy Charles Zerner and colleagues assert that there is no universal entity the market Analysis and remedies must be based on broader considerations of history culture and geography in order to establish meaningful and lasting changes in policy and practice Original case studies from Asia Latin America Africa and the South Pacific focus on topics as diverse as ecotourism bioprospecting oil extraction cyanide fishing timber extraction and property rights The cases position concerns about biodiversity conservation and resource management within social justice and legal perspectives providing new insights for students scholars policy professionals and donor foundations engaged in international conservation and social justice

Nature, Tourism and Ethnicity as Drivers of (De)Marginalization Stanko Pelc, Miha Koderman, 2017-08-01 This book considers de marginalization attesting that marginal regions have the potential for de marginalization and are anchored in developmental terms on the following core themes nature tourism ethnicity and general factors including migration Adding to the discussion on marginality and sustainability this book contributes a number of case studies on a diverse selection of topics and regions in which these crucial issues connect It delivers a reflection of de marginalizing processes in today s globalized world where an increasing number of people groups societies and regions are marginalized and vulnerable not only from social and economic factors but also from natural causes such as natural hazards This book addresses the unsustainable practices in the past that have often generated difficult conditions for sustainable development in the future Marginal regions that have not been developed are given much needed consideration as they may now enjoy the benefits of having not been exploited in the past to their present day developmental advantage The overview offered by this book is significant in that marginal regions with relatively unspoiled and attractive natural and cultural landscapes have a great potential for sustainable tourism Contributions include the de marginalization of ethnic groups the role of education and migration in the process and different economic and political perspectives Considering the topics covered the book should be appreciated by all those involved in creation of social policies urban and regional planning coordinating economic with spatial and social development and by those studying in the fields where competencies for such activities are important part of the study program

Environmental Management for Sustainable Development Chris Barrow, 2006-09-27 Environmental management is a wide expanding and rapidly evolving field affecting everyone from individual citizens to businesses governments to international agencies Indisputably it plays a crucial role in the quest for sustainable development This comprehensively updated second edition explores the nature and role of environmental management covering key principles practices tools strategies and policies offers a thorough yet understandable introduction and points to further in depth coverage Among the key themes covered are sustainable development proactive approaches the precautionary principle the polluter pays principle the need for humans to be less vulnerable and more adaptable Reflecting the expansion and evolution of the field this revised edition focuses strongly on sustainable development There has been extensive restructuring to ensure the book is accessible to those unfamiliar with environmental management and it now includes greater coverage of topics including key resources under stress environmental management tools climate change and urban environmental management With rapid expansion and development of the subject it is easy for those embarking on a course of study to become disorientated but with its well structured coverage effective illustrations and foundation for further more focused interest this book is easily accessible to all The Essential Agrarian Reader Norman Wirzba, 2003-10-10 Eminently quotable and passionately argued essays on living in harmony with the earth and each other by Wes Jackson Wendell Berry and more Library Journal starred review Includes a Foreword by Barbara Kingsolver A compelling worldview with advocates from around the globe agrarianism challenges the shortcomings of our industrial and technological economy Not simply focused on farming the agrarian outlook encourages us to develop practices and policies that promote the health of land community and culture Agrarianism reminds us that no matter how urban we become our survival will always be inextricably linked to the precious resources of soil water and air Combining fresh insights from the disciplines of education law history urban and regional planning economics philosophy religion ecology politics and agriculture these original essays develop a sophisticated critique of our culture's current relationship to the land while offering practical alternatives Leading agrarians including Wendell Berry Vandana Shiva Wes Jackson Gene Logsdon Brian Donahue Eric Freyfogle and David Orr explain how our goals should be redirected toward genuinely sustainable communities These writers call us to an honest accounting and correction of our often destructive ways They suggest how our society can take practical steps toward integrating soils watersheds forests wildlife urban areas and human populations into one great system a responsible flourishing of our world and culture World Hunger Joseph Collins, 2014-02-04 The revised edition of this text includes substantial new material on hunger in the aftermath of the Cold War global food production versus population growth changing demographics and falling birth rates around the world the shifting focus of foreign assistance in the new world order structural adjustment and other budget slashing policies trade liberalization and free trade agreements famine and humanitarian interventions and the third worldization of developed nations The Politics of Culture in the Shadow of Capital Lisa Lowe, David Lloyd, 1997-11-17 Global in scope but refusing a familiar totalizing theoretical framework the essays in The Politics of Culture in the Shadow of Capital demonstrate how localized and resistant social practices including anticolonial and feminist struggles peasant revolts labor organizing and various cultural movements challenge contemporary capitalism as a highly differentiated mode of production Reworking Marxist critique these essays on Asia Latin America the Caribbean North America and Europe advance a new understanding of cultural politics within the context of transnational neocolonial capitalism This perspective contributes to an overall critique of traditional approaches to modernity development and linear liberal narratives of culture history and democratic institutions It also frames a set of alternative social practices that allows for connections to be made between feminist politics among immigrant women in Britain women of color in the United States and Muslim women in Iran Egypt Pakistan and Canada the work of subaltern studies in India the

From Polarisation to Multispecies Relationships Janet J. McIntyre-Mills, Yvonne Corcoran-Nantes, 2021-08-05 This book explores the concept of multi species relationships and suggests critical systemic pathways to protect shared habitats This book discusses how the eradication of species as a result of rapid urbanisation places humanity at risk This book demonstrates how narrow anthropocentrism has focused on the rights of human beings at the expense of other species and the environment This book explores a priori norms and a posteriori measures and indicators to include and protect multiple species This book aims to strengthen institutional capacity and powers to address and extend the UN 2030 Sustainable Development Agenda by drawing on local wisdom but also the need to implement laws to prevent ecocide This book highlights that our fragile interdependence requires a recognition of our hybridity and interconnectedness within the web of life and suggests ways to reframe policy within and beyond the nation state to support living systems of which we are a strand

The SAGE Handbook of Intellectual Property Matthew David, Debora Halbert, 2014-11-18 This Handbook brings together scholars from around the world in addressing the global significance of controversies over and alternatives to intellectual property IP today It brings together over fifty of the leading authors in this field across the spectrum of academic disciplines from law economics geography sociology politics and anthropology This volume addresses the full spectrum of IP issues including copyright patent trademarks and trade secrets as well as parallel rights and novel applications In addition to addressing the role of IP in an increasingly information based and globalized economy and culture it also challenges the utility and viability of IP today and addresses a range of alternative futures

Beyond Western Economics Trent Schroyer, 2009-05-08 This book combines intellectual history with contemporary events to offer a critique of mainstream economic thought and its neoliberal policy incarnation in global capitalism The critique operates both theoretically at the level of metaphysics and the philosophy of science and concretely in case studies of globalization and world events Trent Schroyer provides a moral and cultural interpretation of modernity and scientism highlighting their political and economic consequences but the book's main purpose is not to criticize The author moves beyond this to offer alternative economic cultures again combining abstract theoretical analysis with concrete case studies of alternative economic formations from local self sufficiency movements to cooperatives and other anti capitalist institutional experiments These case studies exhibit an impressive range of variation from first world to third world from reformist to utopian transformative Finally Schroyer links the project to the global justice movement that opposes corporate globalization and eventually links participatory economics and democratic politics to a new image of science as participatory social learning Environmental Resilience and Food Law Gabriela Steier,Alberto Giulio Cianci,2019-08-13 Agrobiodiversity and agroecology go hand in hand in promoting environmental resilience in international food systems as well as climate change resilient food policy This book contextualizes how various legal frameworks address agrobiodiversity and agroecology around the globe and makes it accessible for audiences of students practitioners educators and scholars Some chapters focus on the legal regulation of agroecology from a food law perspective Others are geared toward providing regulators lawmakers and attorneys with the scientific and policy background of those concepts so that they are equipped in the field of food law in everyday practice and policy Climate change dimensions of the issues are woven throughout the book Tangled Routes Deborah Barndt,2008 Now in a thoroughly revised and updated edition Tangled Routes offers a vivid interdisciplinary examination of the global food system through the journey of a corporate tomato Through case studies in the three NAFTA countries Mexico the United States and Canada Deborah Barndt examines the dynamic relationships between production and consumption work and technology biodiversity and cultural diversity and health and environment The compelling stories of women workers along the tomato trail humanize her analysis of globalization taking into account the intersections of gender race class family status and north south relations A History of the Literature of the U.S. South: Volume 1 Harilaos Stecopoulos,2021-05-20 A History of the Literature of the U S South provides scholars with a dynamic and heterogeneous examination of southern writing from John Smith to Natasha Trethewey Eschewing a master narrative limited to predictable authors and titles the anthology adopts a variegated approach that emphasizes the cultural and political tensions crucial to the making of this regional literature Certain chapters focus on major white writers e g Thomas Jefferson William Faulkner the Agrarians Cormac McCarthy but a substantial portion of the work foregrounds the achievements of African American writers like Frederick Douglass Zora Neale Hurston and Sarah Wright to address the multiracial and transnational dimensions of this literary formation Theoretically informed and historically aware the volume s contributors collectively demonstrate how southern literature constitutes an aesthetic cultural and political field that richly repays examination from a variety of critical perspectives The Use of Biodiversity in International Law Andreas Kotsakis,2021-05-05 This book presents a legal genealogy of biodiversity of its strategic use before and after the adoption of the Convention on Biological Diversity 1993 This history of genetic gold details how with the aid of international law the idea of biodiversity has been instrumentalized towards political and economic aims A study of the strategic utility of biodiversity rather than the utility of its protection under international law the book s focus is not therefore on the sustainable or non sustainable use of biodiversity as a natural resource but rather on its historical use as an intellectual resource Although biodiversity is still not being effectively conserved nor sustainably used the Convention on Biological Diversity and its parent regime persists now after several decades of operation This book provides the comprehensive answer to the question of the convention s continued existence

The Law of Complex Earth and Outer Space Systems Elena Cirkovic, 2025-03-17

This book offers a paradigm shifting exploration of lawmaking for the complex interactions between Earth systems and outer space Drawing on complex systems science posthuman approaches and plural ontologies the author proposes a reimagining of law and governance for the cosmic age Through the cosmolegal perspective this study embraces the inherent uncertainties and complexities of Earth space interactions From Arctic methane craters to orbital debris the book weaves together scientific insights landscape architecture legal theory and doctrine to address pressing environmental challenges that span Earth and beyond While legal scholarship has increasingly engaged with Earth System Science it typically treats outer space as distinct from Earth's environment However Earth's existence and complex systems are fundamentally intertwined with and emerge from outer space This book argues that a legal framework for Earth's systems needs to include outer space At its core the book advocates for a complexification of law calling for greater epistemic humility in legal thought and practice Thoughtful and provocative this work invites readers to reconsider fundamental assumptions about law nature and agency beyond the human in an era of planetary change The cosmolegal approach aims to shift legal imagination and understanding positioning human law as just one of many actors within the cosmos This original work will appeal to scholars of legal theory and environmental law as well as those interested in posthumanism ecology and materialism
