Robin J. Burns, Robert Aspeslagh

Montaillou Een Ketters Dorp In De Pyreneeën 1294 1324:

The Pyrenees in the Modern Era Martyn Lyons, 2018-02-22 This original study examines different incarnations of the Pyrenees beginning with the assumptions of 18th century geologists who treated the mountains like a laboratory and romantic 19th century tourists and habitués of the spa resorts who went in search of the picturesque and the sublime The book analyses the individual visions of the heroic Pyrenees which in turn fascinated 19th century mountaineers and the racing cyclists of the early Tour de France Martyn Lyons also investigates the role of the Pyrenees during the Second World War as an escape route from Nazi occupied France when for thousands of refugees these dangerous borderlands became the mountains of liberty and considers the place of the Pyrenees in recent times right up to the present day Drawing on travel writing press reports and scientific texts in several languages The Pyrenees in the Modern Era explores both the French and Spanish sides of the Pyrenees to provide a nuanced historical understanding of the cultural construction of one of Europe's most prominent border regions This book will be of great interest to scholars and students of Europe's cultural history in a transnational context

Three Decades of Peace Education around the World Robin J. Burns, Robert Aspeslagh, 2014-01-14 First Published in 1996 The current world order poses new challenges to the theory and practice of peace education Drawing on data gathered from around the world Burns and Aspeslagh focus on how peace is presented in formal and informal educational settings and what effects ideologies have in shaping that presentation The book views peace education in the context of education about other major social and political issues and in a variety of geopolitical settings exploring factors that affect the generation selection organization transmission and evaluation of knowledge for peace Following a review of major approaches to policy and praxis in peace education the editors draw on original research to offer interpretations based on pragmatic normative and conceptual approaches to the individual the state and the role of political literacy The use of a comparative educational framework that goes beyond curriculum studies and descriptive case studies presents a perspective that is innovative and timely The volume includes both bibliography and index
