Burrowes, 2015-04-07 Noah Winters, Duke of Anselm, exercises the pragmatism for which he's infamous when his preferred choice of bride cries off and her companion Lady Thea Collins becomes his next choice for his duchess. Lady Thea's mature, sensible, and even rather attractive, what could possibly go wrong? As a lady fallen on hard times, Thea doesn't expect tender sentiments from His Grace, but she does wish Noah had courted her, trust, lest her past turn their hastily arranged marriage into a life of shared regrets. Is His Grace courting a convenient wife or a beautiful disaster? Praise for Grace Burrowes: Burrowes has a knack for giving fresh twists to genre tropes and developing them in unexpected and delightful directions with consistently excellent writing, deep and layered stories, and intelligent and compassionate characters. This series of books attempts to identify all the Confederate soldiers who enlisted in organizations from the Blount County area along with those who moved to Blount County after the Civil War. Whole company rosters, entire service records, pension applications, birth dates, spouses, and marriage dates, newspaper clippings, and obituaries and dozens of pictures are contained in these volumes. This is the first time ever all this information has been available in a single reference book. Volume 3 contains information on soldiers who enlisted in other Alabama organizations and those who moved to Blount County after the Civil War.
