

PRAYER FOR FLAG RAISING CEREMONY

January 20, 2020

Legislative Department

Our Gracious Heavenly Father. We praise and thank You for calling us to be Your people. We thank You for the times of triumph despite the ongoing challenges, knowing You have been with us always.

Have mercy for our failures, Lord, and make us into a people who will not forget You. Give us the grace to grow in love, service and obedience to Your laws.

We pray for our province - strengthen and defend us in our daily battles. Help us to fight for our province by being good citizens and being part of the solution. Keep safe our families and the Godly values we hold dear.

We pray for our people - that we may grow united in love and appreciation.

May we extend a hand to each other in selfless giving even when we feel we are the ones in need.

We pray for our leaders - give them Your heart and wisdom to govern humbly and justly. Make them worthy examples of righteousness for the whole citizenry to emulate.

We pray that You bless and prosper the fruits of our land and the works of our hands, that all of these may benefit your people in the province.

We claim Your victory in Our land and declare You as God of our province for blessed is the one who calls upon Your name. All of these things we ask, In the mighty name of Your Son, Jesus Christ. Amen.

Morning Prayers During Flag Raising Ceremony:

Strangers in a Stranger Land John B. Simon, 2019-08-27 What did it feel like to be an openly Jewish soldier fighting alongside German troops in WWII Could a Jewish nurse work safely in a field hospital operating theater under the supervision of German army doctors Several hundred members of Finland's tiny Jewish community found themselves in absurd situations like this yet not a single one was harmed by the Germans or deported to concentration or extermination camps In fact Finland was the only European country fighting on either side in WWII that lost not a single Jewish citizen to the Nazis Final Solution Strangers in a Stranger Land explores the unique dilemma of Finland's Jews in the form of a meticulously researched novel Where did these immigrant Jews the last in Europe to achieve citizenship status come from What was life like from their arrival in Finland in the early nineteenth century to the time when their grandchildren perversely found themselves on the wrong side of WWII And how could young lovers plan for the future when not only their enemies but also their country's allies threatened their very existence Seven years researching Finland's National Archives plus numerous in depth interviews with surviving Finnish Jewish war veterans provide the background for a narrative exploration of love friendship and commitment but also uncertainty and terror under circumstances that were unique in the annals of The Good War The novel's protagonists Benjamin David and Rachel adopt varying survival strategies as they struggle with involvement in a brutal conflict and questions posed by their dual loyalty as Finnish citizens and Zionists committed to the creation of a Jewish homeland Tensions mount as the three young adults painfully work through a relationship love triangle and try to fulfill their commitments as both Jews and Finns while their country desperately seeks to extricate itself from an unwinnable war

Memory, Place and Identity Danielle Drozdowski, Sarah De Nardi, Emma Waterton, 2016-05-20 This book bridges theoretical gaps that exist between the meta concepts of memory place and identity by positioning its lens on the emplaced practices of commemoration and the remembrance of war and conflict This book examines how diverse publics relate to their wartime histories through engagements with everyday collective memories in differing places Specifically addressing questions of place making displacement and identity contributions shed new light on the processes of commemoration of war in everyday urban spaces and within generations of families and national communities Contributions seek to clarify how we connect with memories and places of war and conflict The spatial and narrative manifestations of attempts to contextualise wartime memories of loss trauma conflict victory and suffering are refracted through the roles played by emotion and identity construction in the shaping of post war remembrances This book offers a multidisciplinary perspective with insights from history memory studies social psychology cultural and urban geography to contextualise memories of war and their use by national governments perpetrators victims and in family histories

Voices in the Mind RM Jarman, 2010-10-29 Voices in the Mind is a miscellany of thirteen stories on a wide diversity of themes each representing a separate voice in the mind of the author The first half of the book comprises twelve pieces of typical short story length These lead into the second half which is taken up by the novella Then there was Harvey This is a saga about a rather wicked but ultimately lovable schoolboy who finds himself possessed of a unique kind of power that enables him to inflict a rare and potentially deadly form of torture upon the persons of the forces of authority at his alma mater Amongst the selection you will find humour drama suspense irony and moments of almost heart breaking pathos A Priest's Guide for the Great Festival Aghoraśivācārya,2010 The Mahotsavavidhi a twelfth century Sanskrit text provides detailed guidelines for a Saiva temple priest in performing a nine day great festival for the god Siva The author Aghorasiva is one of the most esteemed and influential authors in the Saiva Siddhanta school and his lengthy work on ritual procedures Kriyakramadyotika of which the Mahotsavavidhi is a part is by all accounts the Agama work most employed by modern temple priests and pious Saivas in their practice of worship Richard Davis s translation of this important text is the first translation into a European language of any medieval work on temple festivals Because the text was intended for an expert audience of working twelfth century priests Aghorasiva employs a highly technical idiom For that reason Davis annotates his translation extensively with explanations and expansions drawn from other Agama works There have been numerous studies of temple festivals and processions based on ethnographic observations and on recent historical data but the historical study of this dramatic religious practice during earlier periods has relied on speculation Davis s groundbreaking volume will provide a new foundation for the study of the history of South Indian temple festivals as a cultural practice To the Flag Richard J. Ellis,2005 Saluting the flag in public schools began as part of a national effort to Americanize immigrants Here Richard Ellis unfurls the history of the Pledge of Allegiance and of the debates and controversies that have sometimes surrounded it Scouting , Published by the Boy Scouts of America for all BSA registered adult volunteers and professionals Scouting magazine offers editorial content that is a mixture of information instruction and inspiration designed to strengthen readers abilities to better perform their leadership roles in Scouting and also to assist them as parents in strengthening families Protest and Punishment Human Rights Watch (Organization),2007 A ^APriest's Guide for the Great Festival Aghorasiva's Mahotsavavidhi Richard H Davis,2009-12-17 Richard Davis s translation of the Mahotsavavidhi a twelfth century Sanskrit text is the first translation into a European language of any medieval Sanskrit work on temple festivals There have been numerous studies of temple festivals and processions based on ethnographic observations and on recent historical data but the historical study of this dramatic religious practice during earlier periods has relied on speculation Davis s groundbreaking volume will provide a new foundation for the study of the history of South Indian temple festivals as a cultural practice Annual Report of the Provincial Industrial School for Boys ... British Columbia. Provincial Industrial School for Boys, Port Coquitlam,1924 State of New York Supreme Court , We Marines Edward (Ned) Black,2019-06-27 The Vietnam era was a time of turmoil and change in the United States one of anger and anguish for some especially among young men facing a call up for military service Writings about this time have focused mostly on the protest viewpoint But not everyone who went to Vietnam did so against their will Many were proud to fight for their country especially the early war cadre of troops mostly in the Marine Corps who were all volunteers It was what they had joined up and trained for and they were determined to do their duty wherever it took them The name of the place did not matter what mattered was that the Corps told them to go WE MARINES is the authors experience in the military from age seventeen to twenty three A young man who wanted to be a Marine and served in peace time the Cuban Crisis and Vietnam He didn't mind going into combat with his buddies and when his overseas rotation was up volunteered a second time to stay with them WE MARINES deals with our involvement in Vietnam in 1965-66 offering a personal view of the war and its aftermath too often ignored until now It is written especially for his family and those who were there The Aftermath of Partition in South Asia Gyanesh Kudaisya, Tan Tai Yong, 2004-03-01 This book draws upon new theoretical insights and fresh bodies of data to historically reappraise partition in the light of its long aftermath It uses a comparative approach by viewing South Asia in its totality rather than looking at it in narrow national terms As the first book to focus on the aftermath of partition it fills a distinctive niche in the study of contemporary South Asia National 4-H Club News, 1942 Baltimore and Ohio Employes Magazine, 1917 No Escape Nury Turkel, 2022-05-10 Winner of the Moore Prize on Human Rights Literature A powerful memoir by Nury Turkel that lays bare China's repression of the Uyghur people Turkel is cofounder and board chair of the Uyghur Human Rights Project and a commissioner for the United States Commission on International Religious Freedom In recent years the People's Republic of China has rounded up as many as three million Uyghurs placing them in what it calls reeducation camps facilities most of the world identifies as concentration camps There the genocide and enslavement of the Uyghur people are ongoing The tactics employed are reminiscent of the Cultural Revolution but the results are far more insidious because of the technology used most of it stolen from Silicon Valley In the words of Turkel Communist China has created an open prison like environment through the most intrusive surveillance state that the world has ever known while committing genocide and enslaving the Uyghurs on the world's watch As a human rights attorney and Uyghur activist who now serves on the US Commission on International Religious Freedom Turkel tells his personal story to help explain the urgency and scope of the Uyghur crisis Born in 1970 in a reeducation camp he was lucky enough to survive and eventually make his way to the US where he became the first Uyghur to receive an American law degree Since then he has worked as a prominent lawyer activist and spokesperson for his people and advocated strong policy responses from the liberal democracies to address atrocity crimes against his people The Uyghur crisis is turning into the greatest human rights crisis of the twenty-first century a systematic cleansing of an entire race of people in the millions Part Anne Frank and Hannah Arendt No Escape shares Turkel's personal story while drawing back the curtain on the historically unprecedented and increasing threat from China Village Life in America 1852-1872 Caroline Cowles Richards, 2018-05-15 Reproduction of the original Village Life in America 1852-1872 by Caroline Cowles Richards Congressional Record United States.
