Mosaics In The Holy Land:

Mosaics in the Holy Land Yoel Rappel, Meir Ben-Dov, 1986-10 Mosaics of the Greek and Roman World Katherine M. D. Dunbabin, 1999 This book provides a comprehensive account of mosaics in the ancient world from the early pebble mosaics of Greece to the pavements of Christian churches in the East Separate chapters in Part I cover the principal regions of the Roman Empire in turn in order to bring out the distinctive characteristics of their mosaic workshops Questions of technique and production of the role of mosaics in architecture and of their social functions and implications are treated in Part II The book discusses both well known works and recent finds and balances consideration of exceptional masterpieces against standard workshop production Two main lines of approach are followed throughout first the role of mosaics as a significant art form which over an unbroken span illuminates the evolution of pictorial style better than any comparable surviving medium and secondly their character as works of artisan production closely linked to their architectural context

Mosaics of the Holy Land M. Ben-Dov, Yo'el Rafel, 1987 Mosaics in the Medieval World Liz James, 2017-10-05 In this book Liz James offers a comprehensive history of wall mosaics produced in the European and Islamic middle ages Taking into account a wide range of issues including style and iconography technique and material and function and patronage she examines mosaics within their historical context She asks why the mosaic was such a popular medium and considers how mosaics work as historical documents that tell us about attitudes and beliefs in the medieval world The book is divided into two part Part I explores the technical aspects of mosaics including glass production labour and materials and costs In Part II James provides a chronological history of mosaics charting the low and high points of mosaic art up until its abrupt end in the late middle ages Written in a clear and engaging style her book will serve as an essential resource for scholars and students of medieval mosaics

Mosaics, Empresses and Other Things in Byzantium Liz James, 2024-08-01 This volume consists of 15 articles published between 1991 and 2018 It falls into three sections reflecting different areas of Liz James's interests The first section deals with light and colour and mosaics four articles considering light and colour in mosaics and the making of mosaics as well as the question of what it means to define mosaics as Byzantine are reprinted The second brings together four pieces on empresses their relationships with female personifications and the Mother of God their roles in founding and refounding buildings and their employment as ciphers by some authors Finally seven papers cover a range of topics what monumental images of saints in churches might have been for what the differences between relics and icons might have been how captions to images can be misleading why touch was an important sense how words can sometimes just be decorative rather than for reading why the materiality of objects makes a difference There is also a brief section of additional notes and comments which add to update and reflect on each piece now in 2024 Mosaics Empresses and Other Things in Byzantium will be of interest to scholars and students alike interested in material culture the depiction of regal women and the use of relics and icons in the Byzantine Empire

beautifully illustrated study of mosaic art in Greco Roman Egypt The art of the mosaic was developed by the Greeks notably within the royal court of Macedonia and was initially unknown to the Egyptians Macedonian mosaicists then established busy workshops in the capital Alexandria and in the new towns of Greek Egypt Under the stimulus of commissions from the Ptolemaic court these workshops soon showed that they were capable of innovation Beginning with pebbles they then used tesserae of different sizes and adopted new materials glass faience paint in order to transpose onto the floor images from grand paintings which was the major art form of the time and was characterized by the vivid use of color Alexandrian mosaicists were at the forefront of creativity during the Hellenistic period and their influence spread around the Mediterranean After the Roman conquest of Egypt they adapted to the tastes of their new sponsors and to changes in architecture and were able to retain an important place within this art as it developed across the entire empire in Rome and from east to west The Mosaics of Alexandria provides the first overview of the mosaics and pavements of Egypt that were created between the end of the fourth century BC and the sixth century AD It presents a selection of some seventy mosaics and pavements from Alexandria and Greco Roman Egypt Generally little known and more often than not unpublished these works are illustrated here in full color some for the first time The aim is to better understand the artistic and artisanal production of a type of decoration that played an important role within the living environment of the ancients

Byzantine Art and Archaeology Ormonde Maddock Dalton,1911 The Sacred Architecture of Byzantium Nicholas N. Patricios,2014-04-24 The churches of the Byzantine era were built to represent heaven on earth Architecture art and liturgy were intertwined in them to a degree that has never been replicated elsewhere and the symbolism of this relationship had deep and profound meanings Sacred buildings and their spiritual art underpinned the Eastern liturgical rites which in turn influenced architectural design and the decoration which accompanied it Nicholas N Patricios here offers a comprehensive survey from the age of Constantine to the fall of Constantinople of the nexus between buildings worship and art His identification of seven distinct Byzantine church types based on a close analysis of 370 church building plans will have considerable appeal to Byzantinists lay and scholarly Beyond categorizing and describing the churches themselves which are richly illustrated with photographs plans and diagrams the author interprets the sacred liturgy that took place within these holy buildings tracing the development of the worship in conjunction with architectural advances made up to the 15th century Focusing on buildings located in twenty two different locations this sumptuous book is an essential guide to individual features such as the synthronon templon and ambo and also to the wider significance of Byzantine art and architecture Ancient Mosaic Pavements Rāḥēl Ḥaḳlīlī,2009 This publication is engaged in issues trends and themes depicted on mosaic pavements discovered in Israel the Gaza Strip and Petra the provinces of ancient Palaestina Prima Secunda and Tertia with comparable floors in Jordan Arabia The majority of the mosaic pavements discussed in this study are dated to the 4th 8th centuries CE Mosaic pavements were the normal medium for decorating the floors of synagogues churches monasteries and chapels as well as public and private buildings Inscriptions found on many of the pavements commemorate the donors refer to the artists and sometimes date the mosaics The ornamentation of the mosaics in this region is remarkable rich and varied in its themes and provides many insights into the contemporary artistic and social cultures

From the Magdala Stone to the Syriac Bema Rina Talgam, Dina Avshalom Gorni, Arfan Najar, 2024-11-04 This book sheds light on the reciprocal relations between liturgical performance and the physical spaces in which they took place in synagogues and churches in antiquity The kernel of the manuscript revolves around a decorated stone that was found during the excavations of a synagogue dated to the first century CE at Magdala on the shore of the Sea of Galilee The book displays how this important archaeological discovery radically transforms our understanding of the changes in the shape of the liturgical space and the liturgical furniture in the places of assembly of the two sister faiths Judaism and Christianity

The Art of Mosaics, 1975 An introduction to mosaics including the techniques of making mosaics and the history of wall and pavement mosaics in Greece Egypt Rome Africa the Holy Land and the Byzantine world

The Mosaics of St. Mary's of the Admiral in Palermo Ernst Kitzinger, 1990 The text explores the iconographic and stylistic sources of the Greek mosaicists as well as the departures from Byzantine norms and the relationship of the decoration to contemporary work in the royal foundations Also included is a chapter on the architecture of the church by Slobodan urci

Weaving in Stones: Garments and Their Accessories in the Mosaic Art of Eretz Israel in Late Antiquity Aliza Steinberg, 2020-02-07 This book copiously illustrated throughout studies the garments and their accessories worn by some 245 figures represented on approximately 41 mosaic floors some only partially preserved that once decorated both public and private structures within the historical geographical area of Eretz Israel in Late Antiquity

The Reception of Byzantium in European Culture since 1500 Przemyslaw Marciniak, Dion C. Smythe, 2017-05-15 Studies on the reception of the classical tradition are an indispensable part of classical studies Understanding the importance of ancient civilization means also studying how it was used subsequently This kind of approach is still relatively rare in the field of Byzantine Studies This volume which is the result of the range of interests in mostly non English speaking research communities takes an important step to filling this gap by investigating the place and dimensions of Byzantium after Byzantium This collection of essays uses the idea of reception theory and expands it to show how European societies after Byzantium have responded to both the reality and the idea of Byzantine Civilisation The authors discuss various forms of Byzantine influence in the post Byzantine world from architecture to literature to music to the place of Byzantium in modern political debates e g in Russia The intentional focus of the present volume is on those aspects of Byzantine reception less well known to English reading audiences which accounts for the inclusion of Bulgarian Czech Polish and Russian perspectives As a result this book shows that although so called Byzantinism is a pan European phenomenon it is made manifest in local national versions The volume brings together specialists from various countries mainly Byzantinists whose works focus not only on Byzantine Studies that is history literature and culture of the Byzantine Empire but also on the influence of Byzantine culture on the world after the Fall of Constantinople
