Bach Frederick Neumann,2020-05-05 Ornaments play an enormous role in the music of the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries and ambiguities in their notation as well as their frequent omission in the score have left doubt as to how composers intended them to be interpreted Frederick Neumann himself a violinist and conductor questions the validity of the rigid principles applied to their performance In this controversial work available for the first time in paperback he argues that strict constraints are inconsistent with the freedom enjoyed by musicians of the period The author takes an entirely new look at ornamentation and particularly that of J S Bach He draws on extensive research in England France Germany Italy and the United States to show that prevailing interpretations are based on inadequate evidence These restrictive interpretations have been far reaching in their effect on style By questioning them this work continues to stimulate a reorientation in our understanding of Baroque and post Baroque music The New Yorker ,1996 The Gramophone ,1998 Dutch and Flemish Flower Pieces (2 vols in case) Sam Segal,Klara Alen,2020-09-25 This richly illustrated book provides an overview of all known Dutch and Flemish artists up to the nineteenth century who painted or drew flower pieces or else made prints of them Unlike many mainstream art historical studies the book takes a truly comprehensive approach including cases where only a single example is known or even if nothing of the artist's other work appears to have survived Containing highly instructive lists identifying the names of flowers as well as insects and other animals the book also discusses the earliest depictions of flower still life and the distinctive characteristics behind the development of floral arrangements in different periods including the variation of the flowers the variety of techniques used by artists as well as an exploration of the symbolism behind the numerous plant and animal species this form of art portrays Composed in Dutch the text was translated into English by Judith Deitch and edited by Philip Kelleway Publication of this book was made possible thanks to generous support of Dr med Bettina Leysen Rose Marie and Eijk van Otterloo and the Center for Netherlandish Art at the Museum of Fine Arts Boston With additional support of the M A O C Gravin van Bylandt Stichting See inside the book Polykleitos, the Doryphoros, and Tradition Warren G.
