Light, 2012 This book is a must read for serious Christians hoping to obey the Great Commission to make disciples in Africa Vernon strikes an admirable balance between academic depth and practical application helping us to appreciate the interface between the gospel of Jesus Christ and the traditional African worldview I heartily recommend this book to all thinking Christian leaders in Africa pastors teachers and missionaries Kevin G Smith DLitt PhD Vernon Light wrote this book with an apostolic passion in the way the apostles presented and proclaimed the Gospel to world religions and cultures It is an exciting study of African traditional religion and its relation to Christianity It shows that for Christianity to thrive and be relevant biblically and transformationally in Africa firstly Christian scholars and theologians are needed who understand and address Africa s traditional heritage and Western modern postmodern and pluralistic ideologies and secondly the Gospel must be contextually relevantly meaningfully and practically taught through an effective discipleship program The book based on extensive research and massive use of resources is a valuable tool for students pastors scholars and theologians interested in the state of Christianity and religious change in Africa Professor Yusufu Turaki PhD Much more than being a useful resource this is a book with a mission Like Jeremiah of old Jer 20 9 Vernon is a man with a passion and message from God to the society to which God has called him Like Jeremiah Vernon is totally convinced of the absolute truth of his message in the midst of a myriad of conflicting opinions and that his message will change society from disaster to hope Would that it is heard Professor David T Williams DTh The Rev Vernon E Light BSc BDHons MTh is a member of the academic staff at the South African Theological Seminary
