One Room Country Schools History Recollections:

One-Room Country Schools Jerry Apps,2015-09-23 A popular collection of memories and recollections from people who learned at and taught in one room schools in Wisconsin including former pupil Jerry Apps the book's author One Room Schools Susan Apps-Bodilly,2013-12-06 Have you ever wondered what it was like to attend a one room school to be in the same classroom as your older brother or younger sister or to have your teacher live with your family for part of the school year In One Room Schools Susan Apps Bodilly chronicles life in Wisconsin's early country schools detailing the experiences of the students the role of the teacher and examples of the curriculum including the importance of Wisconsin School of the Air radio programs She describes the duties children had at school besides their schoolwork from cleaning the erasers and sweeping cobwebs out of the outhouse to carrying in wood for the stove She also tells what led to the closing of the one room schools which were more than just centers of learning they also served as the gathering place for the community Susan Apps Bodilly drew from the research compiled by her father Jerry Apps for his book One Room Country Schools History and Recollections Apps Bodilly has geared her book toward young readers who will learn what students and their teacher did on cold mornings before the wood stove warmed them up They also will find out how to play recess games like Fox and Geese and Anti I Over and will learn the locations of 10 former one room schools that can be toured Apps Bodilly also encourages readers to ask themselves what lessons can be learned from these early schools that have application for today's schools One Room Schools will transport young readers back in time and make their grandparents and others of that generation nostalgic perhaps even prompting them to share memories of their school days Dad's Best Memories and Recollections Charles J. Humber,2016-01-19 DAD'S BEST MEMORIES AND RECOLLECTIONS is Chazz Humber's epitaph casting a very long and sentimental shadow across North America and beyond This 230 page volume is his granite monument well polished It lavishly records 125 of his best memories over a life span of nearly eighty years The vignettes are serenaded with more than 400 illustrations Those discovering this volume likely will find themselves wanting to record in their own sunset years their personal memories and recollections And when they do they are apt to recall what it was like to live in their fluctuating world dominated by a variety of personalities and cascading events Mr Humber vividly describes what it was like in 1945 to travel in a 1930 Model A Ford from Toronto to Boston With lively enthusiasm he reports what it was like to live in post World War II Boston to cook a lobster for a former President of the United States or to sell a pair of elevator shoes to one of Hollywood's shortest celebrities or to shine the shoes of a Derby hatted father of a future President of the United States It is not a remarkable achievement to reflect to recall or to have memories that are treasured But to tell them with literary aplomb to recall the events that happened nearly seventy five years ago with utmost clarity is definitely an admirable achievement and should be cherished not only by the kin who follow Mr Humber but by those who might like to imitate what he has monumentally achieved in Dad's Best Memories and Recollections Calling This Place Home Joan M. Jensen,Professor Joan

M Jensen, 2009-08 Swedish domestic worker Emina Johnson witnessed the great Peshtigo fire in 1871 Cherokee nurse Isabella Wolfe served the Lac du Flambeau reservation for decades the author's own grandmother Matilda Schopp was one of numerous immigrants who eked out a living on the Wisconsin cutover Calling This Place Home tells the stories of these and many other Native and settler women during Wisconsin's frontier era Noted historian Joan M Jensen spent more than a decade delving into the lives of a remarkable range of women who lived during the mid nineteenth through the early twentieth century's These individuals shared many struggles as economies evolved from logging to dairying to tourism Facing many challenges they cared for their sick educated their children maintained their cultural identity and preserved their own means of worship Entwining the experiences of Native and settler communities Jensen uses photographs and documents to examine and illustrate the recovered stories of representative but often overlooked women This comprehensive volume brings a deeper understanding of the state's history through the stories of individual women and the broader developments that shaped their lives The Birth of Education in One-room Country Schools Ian G. Mackenzie, 2006

Leight,Alice Duffy Rinehart,1999 Small isolated country schools were the major educational institution in rural America for more than two hundred fifty years until they were replaced by consolidated schools by the second half of the twentieth century Country School Memories uses the techniques of oral history to capture the insights of forty seven individuals who had participated in the one room school experience as teachers or students during the period from 1900 1955 Beginning with an overview of rural education during the twentieth century the authors analyze the distinctive pedagogy of rural schoolteachers the character of the teachers and the culture of the schools They discuss the school consolidation movement that ended the reign of one room schoolhouses and draw conclusions about lessons that can be learned by contemporary educators from old time schools

Censorship & Cultural Regulation in the Modern Age, 2016-08-29 Censorship has become a fashionable topic not only because of newly available archival material from Eastern Europe and the former Soviet Union but also because the new censorship inspired by the works of Foucault and Bourdieu has widened the very concept of censorship beyond its conventional boundaries This volume uses these new materials and perspectives to address the relationship of censorship to cultural selection processes such as canon formation economic forces social exclusion professional marginalization silencing through specialized discourses communicative norms and other forms of control and regulation Two articles in this collection investigate these issues theoretically The remaining eight contributions address the issues by investigating censorial practice across time and space by looking at the closure of Paul's playhouse in 1606 the legacy of 19th century American regulations and representation of women teachers the relationship between official and samizdat publishing in Communist Poland the ban on Gegenwartsfilme films about contemporary society in East Germany in 1965/66 the censorship of modernist music in Weimar and Nazi Germany the GDR's censorship of jazz and avantgarde music in the early 1950s Aesopian strategies of textual resistance in the pop music of apartheid South Africa and in the stories of Mario Benedetti

School Memories Cristina Yanes-Cabrera, Juri Meda, Antonio Viñao, 2016-09-15 This book reveals how school memories offer not only a tool for accessing the school of the past but also a key to understanding what people today know or think they know about the school of the past It describes in fact how historians work does not purely and simply consist in exploring school as it really was but also in the complex process of defining the memory of school as one developed and revisited over time at both the individual and collective level Further it investigates the extent to which what people know reflects the reality or is in fact a product of stereotypes that are deeply rooted in common perceptions and thus exceedingly difficult to do away with The book includes fifteen peer reviewed contributions that were presented and discussed during the International Symposium School Memories New Trends in Historical Research into Education Heuristic Perspectives and Methodological Issues Seville 22-23 September 2015
