Breaking Intergenerational Cycles of Repetition Pumla Gobodo-Madikizela, 2016-01-18 The authors in this volume explore the interconnected issues of intergenerational trauma and traumatic memory in societies with a history of collective violence across the globe Each chapter's discussion offers a critical reflection on historical trauma and its repercussions and how memory can be used as a basis for dialogue and transformation The perspectives include among others the healing journey of three generations of a family of Holocaust survivors and their dialogue with third generation German students over time traumatic memories of the British concentration camps in South Africa reparations and reconciliation in the context of the historical trauma of Aboriginal Australians and the use of the arts as a strategy of dialogue and transformation

Trauma-sensitivity and Peacebuilding Lydia Wanja Gitau, 2017-08-18 This book identifies a gap in peacebuilding theory and practice in terms of sensitivity to trauma and its impact on the survivors of war and other mass violence The research focuses on the traumatic experiences and perceptions of peace of South Sudanese refugees in Kakuma Refugee Camp in Northwestern Kenya It further explores the possibilities for peacebuilding identified in these perceptions A lack of sensitivity to the trauma experienced by the survivors of conflict and mass violence leads to interventions that are at best removed from and at worst detrimental to the welfare of the survivors Interventions that take into consideration the complex and multifaceted ways in which the survivors experience and respond to the traumatic events encourage capacities for resilience in the survivors engage the creative arts in peacebuilding and emphasise the centrality of community and relationships are seen to assist the survivors in recovery from trauma and to facilitate peacebuilding Diverse anecdotes and real life stories from the research participants The journey as a recurring motif throughout the book weaved in a clear easy to read style of writing

Violence, Trauma, and Memory Nicholas Ealy, Alexandra Onuf, 2022-10-03 Violence Trauma and Memory Responses to War in the Late Medieval and Early Modern World brings together eight essays that examine medieval and early modern violence and warfare in France the Hispanic World and the Dutch Republic through the lens of trauma studies and memory studies By focusing on warfare these essays by historians literary specialists and historians of visual culture demonstrate how individuals and groups living with the ungraspable outcomes of wartime violence grappled with processing and remembering both culturally and politically the trauma of war

The Oxford Handbook of Law and Anthropology Marie-Claire Foblets, Mark Goodale, Maria Sapignoli, Olaf Zenker, 2022 Represents a comprehensive and interdisciplinary treatment to the field of law and anthropology Decenters the standard Anglo Euro centric bias that prevails in both law and anthropology Gives unique perspectives on issues of contemporary relevance Provides the historical background but focuses on the future of the field Book jacket

Troubling Archives Julia Rensing, 2025-05-23 Namibia's colonial history casts a long shadow over the country's present Contemporary authors and artists confront the legacies of German and South African colonial rule and engage creatively with the persistent remnants of the past In their works the archive remains both an invaluable and fraught resource for accessing obscured histories Julia Rensing examines how writers and artists from Namibia and South Africa navigate archival silences omissions and power structures to renegotiate historical narratives and address intergenerational trauma Their creative practices challenge conventional understandings of archives and forms of commemoration highlighting the diverse experiences that shape Namibian society and memory cultures A Web of Words Richard J. Gray, 2007 Helps readers understand how any literary tradition involves an open conversation between its texts a web of words that stretches from the local to the transnational This book charts 3 different intertextual practices involving writings both within and outside the South The Compulsive Reassurance Seeking Workbook Amanda Petrik-Gardner, 2024-06-01 Repetitive reassurance seeking is one of the most common and difficult to treat compulsions for individuals with obsessive compulsive disorder OCD This workbook gives readers powerful skills grounded in cognitive behavior therapy CBT for overcoming the need to know for sure so they can learn to trust their own senses live with confidence and break the cycle of OCD once and for all Intermediality and Storytelling Marina Grishakova, Marie-Laure Ryan, 2010 The narrative turn in the humanities which expanded the study of narrative to various disciplines has found a correlate in the medial turn in narratology Long restricted to language based literary fiction narratology has found new life in the recognition that storytelling can take place in a variety of media and often combines signs belonging to different semiotic categories visual auditory linguistic and perhaps even tactile The essays gathered in this volume apply the newly gained awareness of the expressive power of media to particular texts demonstrating the productivity of a medium aware analysis Through the examination of a wide variety of different media ranging from widely studied such as literature and film to new neglected or non standard ones such as graphic novels photography television musicals computer games and advertising they address some of the most fundamental questions raised by the medial turn in narratology how can narrative meaning be created in media other than language how do different types of signs collaborate with each other in so called multi modal works and what new forms of narrativity are made possible by the emergence of digital media German Cinema - Terror and Trauma Thomas Elsaesser, 2013-10-30 In German Cinema Terror and Trauma Since 1945 Thomas Elsaesser reevaluates the meaning of the Holocaust for postwar German films and culture while offering a reconsideration of trauma theory today Elsaesser argues that Germany's attempts at mastering the past can be seen as both a failure and an achievement making it appropriate to speak of an ongoing guilt management that includes not only Germany but Europe as a whole In a series of case studies which consider the work of Konrad Wolf Alexander Kluge Rainer Werner Fassbinder Herbert Achterbusch and Harun Farocki as well as films made in the new century Elsaesser tracks the different ways the Holocaust is present in German cinema from the 1950s onwards even when it is absent or referenced in oblique and hyperbolic ways Its most emphatically absent presence might turn out to be the compulsive afterlife of the Red Army Faction whose acts of terror in the 1970s were a response to as well as a reminder of Nazism's hold on the national imaginary Since the end of the Cold War and 9 11 the terms of the debate around terror and trauma have shifted also in Germany where generational memory now distributes the roles of historical agency and accountability differently Against the background of universalized victimhood a cinema of commemoration has if anything confirmed the violence that the past continues to exert on the present in the form of missed encounters retroactive incidents unintended slippages and uncanny parallels which Elsaesser reviving the full meaning of Freud's Fehlleistung calls the parapractic performativity of cultural memory

Dark Souls : Beyond the Grave - Volume 1 Damien Mecheri, Sylvain Romieu, 2019-02-19 Story of a saga video games If the Dark Souls series managed to seduce players and journalists it was mainly by word of mouth It was such a great success that Dark Souls 2 was named Game of the Year 2014 by the vast majority of gaming magazines and websites To date this saga is one of the most important in the gaming industry The odd thing is that these games are well known for their difficulty and their cryptic universe This publication narrates the epic success story but also describes its gameplay mechanics and its specific lore across more than 300 pages Characters plots and the scenario of the three Souls Demon's Souls Dark Souls and Dark Souls II are deciphered by Damien Mecheri and Sylvain Romieu who spent a long year studying these dense and enigmatic games down to the smallest detail The series Dark Souls and her spiritual father Demon's Souls will not have secrets for you anymore

EXTRACT In May 2014 Hidetaka Miyazaki succeeded Naotoshi Zin as president of FromSoftware after the studio was purchased by Kadokawa Shoten This was a highly significant promotion for the person who had led the company's most successful project Dark Souls And yet he did not lose from view what had attracted him to the field an insatiable creative drive In spite of his new status within the studio one of the conditions he requested and was granted was to remain creative director of his new project Bloodborne This allowed him to successfully design this spiritual successor to the first Souls game while also assuming his new responsibilities Given his drive to work and create it is not surprising how quickly Miyazaki moved up through the ranks

ABOUT THE AUTHORS Passionate about films and video games Damien Mecheri joined the writers team of Gameplay RPG in 2004 writing several articles for the second special edition on the Final Fantasy saga He continued his work with the team in another publication called Background before continuing the online adventure in 2008 with the site Gameweb.fr Since 2011 he has come aboard Third Editions with Mehdi El Kanafi and Nicolas Courcier the publisher's two founders Damien is also the author of the book Video Game Music a History of Gaming Music For Third Editions he is actively working on the Level Up and Ann e jeu vid o collections He has also written or co written several works from the same publisher The Legend of Final Fantasy X Welcome to Silent Hill a journey into Hell The Works of Fumito Ueda a Different Perspective on Video Games and of course the first volume of Dark Souls Beyond the Grave Curious by nature a dreamer against the grain and a chronic ranter Sylvain Romieu is also a passionate traveler of the real and the unreal the world and the virtual universes always in search of enriching discoveries and varied cultures A developer by trade he took up his modest pen several years ago to study the characteristics and richness of the marvelously creative world of video games He writes for a French video game site called Chroniques Ludiques particularly on the topic of RPGs his preferred genre Moral Education in sub-Saharan Africa Sharlene Swartz, Monica Taylor, 2013-10-31 The term moral has had a chequered history in sub Saharan Africa mainly due to the legacy of colonialism and Apartheid in South Africa In contrast to moral education as a vehicle of cultural imperialism and social control this volume shows moral education to be concerned with both private and public morality with communal and national relationships between human beings as well as between people and their environment Drawing on distinctive perspectives from philosophy economics sociology and education it offers the African ethic of Ubuntu Botho as a plausible alternative to Western approaches to morality and shows how African ethics speaks to political and economic life including ethnic conflict and HIV AIDS and may be an antidote to the current practice of timocracy that values money over people The volume provides sociological tools for understanding the lived morality of those marginalised by poverty and analyses the effects of culture religion and modern secularisation on moral education With contributions from fourteen African scholars this book challenges dominant frameworks and begins conversations for mutual benefit across the North South divide It has global implications not just but especially where moral education is undertaken in pluralist contexts and in the presence of economic disparity This book was published as a special issue of the Journal of Moral Education The Negative Thoughts Workbook David A.
