Gupta,2001-06-30 Why did the Rwandan genocide take place How could parents feed their own children drinks laced with poison in Jonestown As we see many parts of the world being engulfed in fratricidal frenzy we wonder if it can happen in this country Gupta examines contemporary cases of genocide and mass murder and seeks to explain why certain societies are more prone to these actions and others are relatively immune Gupta sees a dialectical tension between our two identities the self and the collective The end of the medieval period was marked by the emergence of individualism in Europe With time the march of individualism engulfed the entire Western world and permeated every aspect of its culture tradition and academic paradigm Neoclassical economics is the embodiment of this single minded pursuit of the rationality of individualism However our psychobiological evolution has also imbued us with the irrepressible desire to form groups and to act upon its welfare The reason for this eternal conflict lies in our own struggle with our two identities When the pendulum swings to the extreme end of collectivism genocide and other forms of social abnormalities collective madness occur When we move too far into individualism people tend to seek something greater beyond selfish pursuits Through his panoramic view Gupta provides an explanation for both social order and political pathology that will be of interest to students scholars and other researchers involved with ethnic conflict collective behavior and conflict resolution The Silent Revolution in Cancer and AIDS Medicine Heinrich

Kremer,2012-09-10 Examining all the major research data since the 1940s this book challenges two orthodox medical models HIV as the cause of AIDS and random genetic mutations as the cause of cancer Based on the recent findings from Evolutionary Biology and Nitric Oxide research it presents a fundamentally new understanding of the human cell its double genome split between the cell nucleus and the mitochondria and the role of energy production and signal modulation for immune reactions and carcinogenesis Finally it explains the concept of a new Cell Symbiosis Therapy for the treatment of all chronic diseases including cancer Now available in English for the first time this book is a must read for doctors patients and anyone following the cutting edge of biology and immunology With the blasting open of such doors of knowledge the medical world will never again be the same Heinrich Kremer MD Medical Director Emeritus was from 1968 1975 head of social therapy for addicts sexual offenders and people with personality disorders at the Berlin Tegel prison which was the pilot project for the reform of the German penal system In 1988 he resigned as medical director of a model clinic specializing in youth drug addiction due to differences on medical ethics regarding the HIV test and AIDS therapy From 1993 1999 as collaborating member of the Study Group for Nutrition and Immunity Bern he investigated together with Prof Alfred H ssig the mechanisms occurring in AIDS defining illnesses and in cancer Since the publication of this book in German in 2001 he has been in demand as a lecturer on the treatment of chronic diseases working today as senior consultant in a growing medical network for Cell Symbiosis Therapy Scripting Suicide in Japan Kirsten Cather,2024-10-15 A free ebook version of this title is available through Luminos University of California Press s Open Access publishing program Visit www.luminosoa.org to learn more Japan is a nation saddled with centuries of accumulated stereotypes and loaded assumptions about suicide Many pronouncements have been made about those who have died by their own hand without careful attention to the words of the dead themselves Drawing upon far ranging creations by famous twentieth and twenty first century Japanese writers and little known amateurs alike such as death poems suicide notes memorials suicide maps and manuals works of literature photography film and manga Kirsten Cather interrogates how suicide is scripted and to what end Entering the orbit of suicidal writers and readers with care she shows that through close readings these works can reveal fundamental beliefs about suicide and just as crucially about acts of writing These are not scripts set in stone but graven images and words nonetheless that serve to mourn the dead straddling two impulses to put the dead to rest and to keep them alive forever These words reach out to us to initiate a dialogue with the dead one that can reveal why it matters to write into and from the void Routledge Handbook of Medicine and Poetry Alan Bleakley,Shane Neilson,2024-05-02 The Routledge Handbook of Medicine and Poetry draws on an international selection of authors to ask what the cultures of poetry and medicine may gain from reciprocal critical engagement The volume celebrates interdisciplinary inquiry critique and creative expansion with an emphasis upon amplifying provocative and marginalized voices This carefully curated collection offers both historical context and future thinking from clinicians poets artists humanities scholars social scientists and bio scientists who collectively inquire into the nature of relationships between medicine and poetry. Importantly, these can be both productive and unproductive. How, for example, do poet doctors reconcile the outwardly antithetical approaches of bio scientific medicine and poetry in their daily work where typically the former draws on technical language and associated thinking and the latter on metaphors? How does non narrative lyrical poetry engage with narrative based medicine? How do poets writing about medicine identify as patients? Central to the volume is the critical investigation of the consequences of varieties of medical pedagogy for clinical practice. Presenting a vision of how poetic thinking might form a medical ontology, this thought provoking book affords an essential resource for scholars and practitioners from across medicine, health and social care, medical education, the medical and health humanities and literary studies. The American Pressman, 1909
