Rebecca Finkel, David McGillivray, Gayle McPherson, Peter Robinson, 2013-10-25 This book was conceived to fill a gap in the study of events and festivity with a research oriented events management text The book focuses on exposing underpinning theoretical frameworks and draws upon international case studies to help explain various event phenomena. It intentionally considers events from a research perspective generating insights into the principal methodological approaches employed to produce empirical data while drawing attention to the future research needs of the field of event management. The book begins with an exploration of the social issues, impacts and developments in events research; it then moves on to analysing economic and management aspects surrounding research into the events industry; addresses issues of technology and tools; and concludes with more political and policy oriented chapters to highlight research into the main debates in the public sector and sphere. The book has 15 chapters and a subject index. Sport, Media and Mega-Events Lawrence A.

Wenner, Andrew C. Billings, 2017-03-27 Bringing together many of the most influential scholars in sport and media studies, this book examines the diverse ways that media influences our understanding of the world's most important sport events dubbed sports mega events. It sheds new light on how these events have been changed by the media and have in turn adapted to media to further their brand's cultural influence. Focusing on the central concept of mediatization, the permeation of media into all spheres of contemporary life, the book presents original case studies of major events including the Olympics, FIFA rugby and cricket World Cups, Tour de France, Super Bowl, World Series, Monaco Grand Prix, Wimbledon and many more. Written from a truly international perspective, this is a seminal work in sport and media studies that reveals the growing political, economic and cultural influences of sport mega events in contemporary society. Sport, Media and Mega-Events is an essential text for any course on the sociology of sport, event management, sport marketing or featuring a cultural communication or media studies approach to sport. Tradition as Resource or Constraint for Strategic Action Gino Cattani, Simone Ferriani, Innan Sasaki, 2025-08-27 Spanning industries from fashion to sports and from gastronomy to design, the researchers present a meticulously curated anthology of research discussing the dual role of tradition as both a stabilizing anchor and a springboard for strategic change. Media, Masculinities, and the Machine Dan Fleming, Damion Sturm, 2011-04-28 Identifying a distinctive phenomenon in today's media culture, the authors propose a new theoretical framework for understanding mediated masculinities. Mastering Motorsports: The Ultimate Fan's Guide to Car
