

The background of the cover is a painting of a large crowd of people, likely of indigenous descent, gathered in an open field. They are looking towards a bright, hazy horizon where a large, white, angelic figure is visible. The scene is bathed in a warm, golden light, suggesting a sunrise or sunset. The title is written in a mix of blue and black serif fonts, with 'The' in a smaller, italicized script. The entire title is framed by ornate, brown, swirling scrollwork at the top and sides.

Creating Chaos Online Asta Zelenkauskaitė,2022-10-10 With the prevalence of disinformation geared to instill doubt rather than clarity Creating Chaos Online unmask disinformation when it attempts to pass as deliberation in the public sphere and distorts the democratic processes Asta Zelenkauskaitė finds that repeated tropes justifying Russian trolling were found to circulate across not only all analyzed media platforms comments but also across two analyzed sociopolitical contexts suggesting the orchestrated efforts behind messaging Through a dystopian vision of publics that are expected to navigate in the sea of uncertain both authentic and orchestrated content pushed by human and nonhuman actors Creating Chaos Online offers a concept of post publics The idea of post publics is reflected within the continuum of treatment of public counter public and anti public This book argues that affect instilled arguments used in public deliberation in times of uncertainty along with whataboutism constitute a playbook for chaos online The Environment in the Age of the Internet Heike Graf,2016-07-18 How do we talk about the environment Does this communication reveal and construct meaning Is the environment expressed and foregrounded in the new landscape of digital media The Environment in the Age of the Internet is an interdisciplinary collection that draws together research and answers from media and communication studies social sciences modern history and folklore studies Edited by Heike Graf its focus is on the communicative approaches taken by different groups to ecological issues shedding light on how these groups tell their distinctive stories of the environment This book draws on case studies from around the world and focuses on activists of radically different kinds protestors against pulp mills in South America resistance to mining in the S mi region of Sweden the struggles of indigenous peoples from the Arctic to the Amazon gardening bloggers in northern Europe and neo Nazi environmentalists in Germany Each case is examined in relation to its multifaceted media coverage mainstream and digital professional and amateur Stories are told within a context examining the what and how of these environmental stories demonstrates how contexts determine communication and how communication raises and shapes awareness These issues have never been more urgent this work never more timely The Environment in the Age of the Internet is essential reading for everyone interested in how humans relate to their environment in the digital age

Transformative Worship Laurene Beth Bowers, 2017-02-20 When people felt obligated to attend worship as in 1955 it didn't matter whether or not their religious needs were being met But since our culture has shifted to giving people a choice they are seeking something meaningful during worship something which helps them to change their lives In the church we talk a lot about changing people's lives but we do not articulate what it is that the church has to offer to those seeking to do so The author explores what happens during worship to provide a transformative experience and identifies which forms of worship are most conducive to this process The focus here is on small groups bible study and forms of interaction between and among leaders and worshippers For pastors and leaders discerning what forms of worship to experiment with in order to connect with seekers in their community and bring visitors back a second Sunday this book offers easy to implement practical ideas for church growth

Lost Anarchy: the pig, the sheep, and the dog Mojo El Diablo, The Pastor Bonus Theo Clemens, Wim Janse, 2003-07-30 From earliest times the Western Church has fiercely debated questions about the place of the ministry within the Church and Church government What requirements should be met by candidates for holy orders and what do we expect of priests and ministers personal holiness training for their calling social skills or merely the possession of official ordination The Church has at different times produced very different answers and the 30 scholars from Britain the Netherlands and Belgium whose papers in this volume follow the course of the debate concerning the good shepherd from the early church through to modern times show on the one hand what happens to Christian communities that have lost a clear view of the functions of the ministry and on the other just how much trust people have always placed in their priests and pastors With contributions by Anton Weiler Charles Caspers Robert Swanson Petty Bange Mathilde van Dijk Claire Cross Fred van Lieburg Ingrid Dobbe Frank van de Pol Eamon Duffy Joke Spaans Trevor Johnson Gian Ackermans David Wykes Jeremy Gregory W M Jacob Joris van Eijnatten Nigel Yates David Bos Leo Kenis F G M Broeyer Frances Knight John Tomlinson Stuart Mews Lieve Gevers and Ian Jones

The Bears Ears: A Human History of America's Most Endangered Wilderness David Roberts, 2021-02-23 A personal and historical exploration of the Bears Ears country and the fight to save a national monument The Bears Ears National Monument in southeastern Utah created by President Obama in 2016 and eviscerated by the Trump administration in 2017 contains more archaeological sites than any other region in the United States It is also a spectacularly beautiful landscape a mosaic of sandstone canyons and bold mesas and buttes This wilderness now threatened by oil and gas drilling unrestricted grazing and invasion by Jeep and ATV is at the center of the greatest environmental battle in America since the damming of the Colorado River to create Lake Powell in the 1950s In The Bears Ears acclaimed adventure writer David Roberts takes readers on a tour of his favorite place on earth as he unfolds the rich and contradictory human history of the 1.35 million acres of the Bears Ears domain Weaving personal memoir with archival research Roberts sings the praises of the outback he has explored for the last twenty five years

Global Dictionary of Theology William A. Dyrness, Veli-Matti Kärkkäinen, 2009-10-25 Theological dictionaries are foundational to any theological library But until now there has been no Global Dictionary of Theology a theological dictionary that presumes the contribution of the Western tradition but moves beyond it to embrace and explore a full range of global expressions of theology The Global Dictionary of Theology is inspired by the shift of the center of Christianity from the West to the Global South But it also reflects the increase in two way traffic between these two sectors as well as the global awareness that has permeated popular culture to an unprecedented degree The editorial perspective of the Global Dictionary of Theology is an ecumenical evangelicalism that is receptive to discovering new facets of truth through listening and conversation on a global scale Thus a distinctive feature of the Global Dictionary of Theology is its conversational approach Contributors have been called on to write in the spirit of engaging in a larger theological conversation in which alternative views are expected and invited William A Dyrness Veli Matti Kärkkäinen Juan F Martinez and Simon Chan edit approximately 250 articles written by over 100 contributors representing the global spectrum of theological perspectives Pastors theological teachers theological students and lay Christian leaders will all find the Global Dictionary of Theology to be a resource that unfolds new
