Monster Adventures In American Machismo:

Monster Brian Bouldrey, 2001 Straight gay macho man or great big sissy it's tough to be a guy Brian Bouldrey is a bona fide sissy but he was also an Eagle Scout and a member of the Order of the Arrow with a secret Indian name that translates as Active One In Monster Bouldrey goes undercover and over the top to stalk machismo in action At the same time Bouldrey bares his own soul and imperfections with disarming and often hilarious honesty Monster Brian Bouldrey, 2004 The Sorrow of the Elves Brian Bouldrey, 2011 Struggling with drug addiction and a stagnating career a once famous fantasy novelist challenges himself to finish his first novel in more than a decade while coming to terms with events in his life that he has been trying to forget The Brokeback Book William R. Handley, 2011-05-01 An American Western made by a Taiwanese director and filmed in Canada Brokeback Mountain was a global cultural phenomenon even before it became the highest grossing gay themed drama in film history Few films have inspired as much passion and debate or produced as many contradictory responses from online homage to late night parody In this wide ranging and incisive collection writers journalists scholars and ordinary viewers explore the film and Annie Proulx's original story as well as their ongoing cultural and political significance The contributors situate Brokeback Mountain in relation to gay civil rights the cinematic and literary Western the Chinese value of forbearance male melodrama and urban and rural working lives across generations and genders The Brokeback Book builds on earlier debates by novelist David Leavitt critic Daniel Mendelsohn producer James Schamus and film reviewer Kenneth Turan with new and noteworthy interpretations of the Brokeback phenomenon the film and its legacy Also appearing in print for the first time is Michael Silverblatt's interview with Annie Proulx about the story she wrote and the film it became An Emotional Gauntlet Stuart J. Wright, 2008-03-21 Stuart J Wright tells the gripping story of a World War II American aircrew of the 453rd Bomb Group serving under Operations Officer Major James Stewart the Hollywood movie star and flying missions from England in a B 24 Liberator bomber nicknamed Corky In recounting the harrowing conditions and horrors of bombing missions over Europe An Emotional Gauntlet emphasizes the relationships among the crew and the spirit these men shared In this true account based on years of research and correspondence with crewmembers and their families Wright adds a dimension rarely explored in other World War II narratives beginning the chronicle during peacetime and introducing the crewmen as civilians kids during the 1920s An Emotional Gauntlet follows the men as they mature through the years of the Great Depression to face a world at war and begin to raise questions about just and unjust wars imperialism and patriotism Wonderlands Raphael Kadushin, 2004 Kadushin humanities editor U of Wisconsin Press blending a patchwork of styles presents 19 examples of fiction creative non fiction autobiography and other writings by gay writers that all pivot around some sort of journey Annotation 2004 Book News Inc Portland OR booknews.com Big Trips Raphael Kadushin, 2008 In this border hopping anthology of travel memoir and fiction every trip is a big one as an advance guard of adventurous writers both seasoned names and fresh voices scatter across the globe face the pure euphoria and sheer anxiety of travel and survive a lot of very fast living Zyzyva ,2001 Monster Brian Bouldrey,2004

Self proclaimed sissy Brian Bouldrey goes undercover to investigate American machismo infiltrating everything from a bachelor party to the World Wrestling Federation's RAW Whether he's hosting a red meat BBQ where the menu reads like the supporting cast of Crocodile Dundee or deer hunting with his ex marine brother who works as a prison guard Bouldrey's sharp wit and wry autobiographical reflections prove that manly stereotypes yield surprising subtleties and contradictions when viewed close up The Advocate ,2001-09-25 The Advocate is a lesbian gay bisexual transgender LGBT monthly newsmagazine Established in 1967 it is the oldest continuing LGBT publication in the United States Beautiful Bodies Uroš Matić,2022-02-24 This book explores the role of material culture in the formation of corporeal aesthetics and beauty ideals in different past societies and thus contributes to the cultural relativization of bodily aesthetics and related gender norms The volume does not explore beauty for the sake of beauty but extensively explores how it serves to form and keep gender norms in place The concept of beauty has been a topic of interest for some time yet it is only in recent times that archaeologists have begun to approach beauty as a culturally contingent and socially constructed phenomenon Although archaeologists and ancient historians extensively dealt with gender they dealt less with it in relation to beauty The contributions in this volume deal with different intersections of gender and corporeal aesthetics by turning to rich archaeological textual and iconographic data from ancient Sumer Aegean Bronze Age ancient Egypt ancient Athens Roman provinces the Viking world and the Qajar Iran Beauty thus moves away from a curiosity and surface of the body to an analytic concept for a better understanding of past and present societies American Book Publishing Record ,2004 The Boom Economy Brian Bouldrey,2003-08-25 Dennis Bacchus is a man who has outlived himself HIV positive and prepared to die at any minute he finds himself in the late 1990s blessed with life giving drugs supportive friends a boom economy and an era of never ending celebration and he doesn't know what to do with himself For ten years he has traveled and celebrated a curtailed life with the similarly infected Jimmy and though Dennis was never that close to Jimmy he decided to let the friendship run its course to the end Now there's no end in sight Stuck with leftover friendships careers and commitments what can a man do but become a priest The Boom Economy covers what was supposed to be the last decade of Dennis Bacchus' life but turns out to be the first decade of the rest of it The Boom Economy is a novel about conversion not just seroconversion or religious conversion but all of the social spiritual and emotional problems of changing from one life to another At once raucous and serious pagan and saintly it's a look at the way we live now Again Graduate Programs in the Humanities, Arts and Social Sciences 2008 Peterson's Guides Staff,Peterson's,2007-11 The six volumes of Peterson's Annual Guides to Graduate Study the only annually updated reference work of its kind provide wide ranging information on the graduate and professional programs offered by accredited colleges and universities in the United States and U S territories and those in Canada Mexico Europe and Africa that are accredited by U S accrediting bodies Books 2 through 6 are divided into sections that contain one or more directories devoted to individual programs in a particular field Book 2 contains more than 12 500 programs of study in 152 disciplines of the humanities arts and social sciences Out ,2001-11 Out is a fashion style celebrity and opinion magazine for the modern gay man Forthcoming Books Rose Army,2003 The Advocate ,2001 Book Review Index Cumulation Dana Ferguson,2005-09 Book Review Index provides quick access to reviews of books periodicals books on tape and electronic media representing a wide range of popular academic and professional interests The up to date coverage wide scope and inclusion of citations for both newly published and older materials make Book Review Index an exceptionally useful reference tool More than 600 publications are indexed including journals and national general interest publications and newspapers Book Review Index is available in a three issue subscription covering the current year or as an annual cumulation covering the past year American Folklore Jan Harold Brunvand,2006-05-24 Contains over 500 articles Ranging over foodways and folksongs quiltmaking and computer lore Pecos Bill Butch Cassidy and Elvis sightings more than 500 articles spotlight folk literature music and crafts sports and holidays tall tales and legendary figures genres and forms scholarly approaches and theories regions and ethnic groups performers and collectors writers and scholars religious beliefs and practices The alphabetically arranged entries vary from concise definitions to detailed surveys each accompanied by a brief up to date bibliography Special features More than 2000 contributors Over 500 articles spotlight folk literature music crafts and more Alphabetically arranged Entries accompanied by up to date bibliographies Edited by America s best known folklore authority Feeding the Monster Rick Tobin,2005 The book is divided into three parts Using Mary Shelley s classic tale of horror Frankenstein or the Modern Prometheus as a metaphor I explain why too many Americans are turning into monsters Too many Americans are becoming self alienated and their children are not succeeding in our schools I also explain what educators have mistakenly emphasized and tried in order to solve the problem Part I Making the Monster builds a definition of personal addiction I argue that addicts teach addiction to others and that a vast population of Americans is deeply involved in an education in addiction Part I deals with human needs desires and current cultural trends that give birth to addictive personality traits the monster habits that I talk about when I show the Pet Monster to my pupils These traits breed self doubt and low self esteem They undermine our relationships and hinder our ability to love and care for ourselves and others When we can t love ourselves our children learn not to love themselves They have difficulty adjusting to the demands and responsibilities they face in school Addiction has become an entrenched cultural phenomenon I argue that certain cultural trends are creating personal isolation family dysfunction and personal self doubt We are witnessing a withering of character and moral value We are seeing a failure of commitment to personal growth Part II Feeding the Monster shows why more and more American families are becoming codependent to addictive cultural values and how this trend leads to the birth of the monster habits that keep our children from succeeding in school I also discuss the ways our schools themselves support and nourish addictive tendencies in families and students I look at the debate surrounding school reform and show how although it is well intentioned it is also misplaced In Part II we learn why we don't see our mistakes and why both parents and educators have developed blind spots in their vision of education We're so accustomed to the supermonster of addiction that we just don't see it anymore This is the true failure of education We're not admitting that cultural codependency to addiction to the monster even exists Part III Taming the Monster explains what we can do to save ourselves from slipping farther into monsterhood I suggest what schools families and communities must do to foster academic success and breathe value and character back into the lives of children and society I also provide an outline for educational recovery Only when we take steps to kill the supermonster and free ourselves from monstrous habits will we be able to stop the destruction that the monsters bring the destruction that can end our world
