Maria Montessori's Erdkinder Ela Eckert, 2022-10 Adolescents need a school that is not a school This claim by Maria Montessori dating from the 1930s is increasingly shared today Consistently based on the developmental needs in adolescence Maria Montessori designed the concept of a Center for Study and Work in the Countryside for students aged 12-18 years which gives young people the opportunity to learn about the basic structures of production trade and services in a manageable transparent and at the same time protected setting through Practice Theory linked experiences The book presents the basics of Maria Montessori's concept and gives through reports with practitioners and interviews with Montessori experts insights into authentic implementations of the Farm school concept and thus into a learning arrangement that allows young people a high degree of responsibility and participation and strengthens their commitment to a sustainable approach to natural resources and a peaceful way of living The book also addresses schools without a Farm school practice and shows ways of approaching crucial components of this authentic and highly topical concept

Teaching Children Ann El-Moslimany, 2018-01-01 The author explores education from the essential principles of Tawhid Oneness of God humanity knowledge fitrah concept of human nature and the role of humans as vicegerents of God on earth responsibility and stewardship The current education system dates back a hundred years or more and is in desperate need of a reboot In developing the industrialized society the education system itself became like a factory the end product being pupils who merely regurgitate facts and themselves end up as cogs in the machine that is the wider industrial complex The legacy of this is a soulless functional educational system that fails to develop pupils to meet the present and future needs of individuals and their expectations This failure inevitably impacts on society and humanity at large Society has long since moved beyond the industrial revolution and into an age of global connectedness where the sum of human knowledge is freely available via the internet It is an age where people are generally more well informed and on a variety of issues An effective holistic educational philosophy is required one that gives full spiritual meaning to all that a child learns It should equip children with spiritual awareness morals and values social responsibility and accountability self discipline and self determination self confidence and empowerment ambition and aspiration tempered with thoughtfulness and a sense of gratitude
