The first complete guide for use by adults and children to creating fun and educational book clubs for kids As authors of The Book Club Cookbook the classic guide to integrating great food and food related discussion into book club gatherings Judy Gelman and Vicki Levy Krupp hear a common refrain from parents librarians teachers community leaders and kids themselves How about writing a book for kids book clubs Indeed in recent years youth organizations parents libraries schools and our local state and federal governments have launched thousands of book clubs for children as a way to counter falling literacy rates and foster a love of reading Based on surveys representing five hundred youth book clubs across the country and interviews with parents kids educators and librarians The Kids Book Club Book features _ the top fifty favorite book club reads for children ages eight to eighteen _ ideas and advice on forming great kids book clubs and tips for kids who want to start their own book clubs _ recipes activities and insights from such bestselling children s book authors as Christopher Paolini Lois Lowry Jerry Spinelli Nancy Farmer Christopher Paul Curtis Andrew Clements Laurie Halse Anderson Norton Juster and many others From recipes for the Dump Punch and egg salad sandwiches included in Kate DiCamillo s Because of Winn Dixie to instructions on how to make soap carvings like the ones left in the knot hole of a tree in Harper Lee s To Kill a Mockingbird this book provides a bounty of ideas for making every kids book club a success Sarah, Plain and Tall Patricia MacLachlan, 1985 When their father invites a mail order bride to come live with them in their prairie home Caleb and Anna are captivated by their new mother and hope that she will stay Sarah, Plain and Tall - Literature Kit Gr. 3-4 Nat Reed, 2008-04-01 A unique view on a survival story helps students to value the need for companionship The comprehension quiz works great as a study guide for a final exam Students begin by imagining the hardships with living as a pioneer on the American prairies Answer true or false questions about Sarah s letter to Anna and Caleb Complete sentences from the story with their missing vocabulary words Do some investigation to learn about mica something that Sarah says her dune sparkled with Use events from the story to inspire a tercet poem Students imagine interviewing Sarah about her experiences Aligned to your State Standards and written to Bloom s Taxonomy additional crossword word search comprehension quiz and answer key are also included About the Novel A story filled with wisdom gentle humor and the practical concerns necessary for a satisfying life This Newbery Medal winning story is based on the true adventures of a family living on the vast prairie in the early years of the 20th century The story begins when Anna and Caleb missing their mother who died wish for another woman to make their father laugh again Sarah responds to an ad stating she will come by train wearing a yellow bonnet and that she is plain and tall And into their lives comes Sarah with her own needful loneliness and searching to help them create a whole family But life on the endless prairie can be hard and unforgiving taking all a person s strength and courage just to survive Plain Tall Sarah , Connecting Children with Classics Meagan Lacy, Pauline Dewan, shady radical, 2018-03-14 This guide identifies hundreds of books that can help children develop into engaged readers Children s librarians collection development specialists in public libraries as well as K 8 school librarians and teachers will choose from the best in children's titles This unique readers advisory and collection development guide for librarians and others who work with children focuses on readers and their needs rather than simply categorizing books by their characteristics and features as traditional literature guides do Taking this unusual perspective brings forth powerful new tools and curricular ideas on how to promote the classics and how to best engage with young readers and meet their personal and emotional needs to boost interest and engagement The guide identifies seven reader-driven appeals or themes that are essential to successful readers advisory awakening new perspectives providing models for identity offering reassurance comfort strength and confirmation of self-worth connecting with others giving courage to make a change facilitating acceptance and building a disinterested understanding of the world By becoming aware of and tapping into these seven themes librarians and other educators can help children more deeply connect with books thereby increasing the odds of becoming lifelong readers The detailed descriptions of each book provide plot summaries as well as notes on themes subjects reading interest levels adaptations and alternative formats translations and read-alikes This informative guide will also aid librarians in collection development and bibliotherapy services

Sarah, Plain and Tall Complete Set (Sarah, Plain and Tall ~ Skylark ~ Caleb's Story ~ More Perfect Than the Moon ~ Grandfather's Dance ~) Patricia MacLachlan, 2015-03-03 Gateway to Reading

Nancy J. Polette, 2013-04-08 Get young readers hooked on some of the best titles in juvenile literature ranging from humor to mystery to fantasy with unusual and effective methods like games Getting students to want to read is one of the greatest challenges facing middle school teachers and librarians Determining which are the right books that can spark a child's mental awakening is also difficult This book from prolific author Nancy Polette furnishes interesting and fun games to pique students' interest in junior novels that are worth reading carefully selected titles that will contribute to their educational and emotional growth Gateway to Reading 250 Author Games and Booktalks to Motivate Middle Readers is a powerful tool for luring middle school students away from the distractions of 21st century media and introducing them to junior or tween novels that they won't be able to put down By presenting children with a challenge to engage their minds racing to decode book titles or using their creativity to come up with titles of their own for example students are naturally drawn towards reading these books from well-known children's authors

Caleb's Story Patricia MacLachlan, 2013-06-25 The third book in the series that began with the Newbery Medal-winning Sarah, Plain and Tall by Patricia MacLachlan Anna has done something terrible She has given me a journal to fill It's your job now Anna says as she hands Caleb her journals asking him to continue writing the family story But Sarah Jacob Anna Caleb and their new little sister Cassie have already formed a family and Caleb fears there will be nothing left to write about That is before Cassie discovers a mysterious old man in the barn and everything changes Everyone is excited about the arrival of a new family member except for Jacob who holds a bitter grudge Only the special love of Caleb and the gift he offers can help to mend the pain of the past

of great books to read is essential to students becoming readers both inside the classroom and beyond Based on extensive research this highly readable book explores a range of recommended titles that cover a spectrum of developmental stages from early chapter books to young adult novels The 101 literacy events outlined within include a wealth of practical strategies more than fifty reproducible activities assessment profiles and inventories for easy classroom use Committed to nurturing the love of reading this passionate book invites readers to dig deeper by responding through writing discussion the arts media and more Special attention is given to the world of leisure reading where readers make choices based on their preferences and tastes as they build a lifelong interest in fiction that will enrich their lives      Great Authors of Children's Books Britannica Educational Publishing,2014-01-01 Few stories have the power to stay with us the way the tales we hear in childhood do Great children s book authors have at their disposal countless techniques to channel young imaginations and appeal directly to their audience s tender sensibilities They craft colorful characters whose circumstances and actions resonate with readers in a way that carries through well into adulthood The creators of some of the most whimsical witty thought provoking and powerful children s books of all time including Lewis Carroll Dr Seuss Beatrix Potter Maurice Sendak and Laura Ingalls Wilder among many others are presented in this exciting volume      Good Books Matter Larry Swartz,Debbie Nyman,2008 Based on extensive research on the features that make children s books appealing and appropriate this valuable teacher resource offers guidance on selecting books strategies for specific grade levels suggestions for extension and tips for assessment This teacher friendly book is organized around the major genres traditional literature picture books nonfiction poetry and multicultural texts that will inspire young readers Throughout the book teachers will find suggestions for using literature to implement shared reading reading aloud and response strategies with emergent developing and independent readers This comprehensive book is rooted in the belief that educators must consider and offer a wide range of choice to ensure that students read good books It argues that the choices children make about what they read should be governed by their interests and desire to learn not by a grade or reading level      Skylark Patricia MacLachlan,2013-06-25 The second book in the series that began with the Newbery Medal winning Sarah Plain and Tall by Patricia MacLachlan My mother Sarah doesn t love the prairie She tries but she can t help remembering what she knew first Sarah came to the prairie from Maine to marry Papa But that summer a drought turned the land dry and brown Fires swept across the fields and coyotes came to the well in search of water So Sarah took Anna and Caleb back east where they would be safe Papa stayed behind He would not leave his land Maine was beautiful but Anna missed home and Papa And as the weeks went by she began to wonder what would happen if the rains never came Would she and Caleb and Sarah and Papa ever be a family again      Reading Raps Rita Soltan,2005-12-30 Book clubs are sprouting up all over and so are book club guides but not all book club guides are equal Many focus on a specific type of book club or they take a generic approach of one size fits all and most do not take into account the special needs of librarians and educators working with young readers

This guide has it all and it will help you ensure that your book club meetings are both fun and educational Focusing on children in grades 3-8 and their families the book offers 100 ready-made book club instructions for popular children's and YA titles from newer releases such as Theresa Nelson's Ruby Electric and Blue Balliett's Chasing Vermeer to perennial favorites and award-winning classics such as Johanna Hurwitz's Much Ado about Aldo and Gary Soto's Baseball in April and Other Stories Along with thought-provoking discussion questions you'll find all the background information you need to conduct lively book discussions with a variety of readers plot summary themes and characters description genre reading level author and award information related reads and more The guide describes four types of family-oriented book clubs family mother-daughter father-son and readers rap as well as a book club for kids only The author provides practical instructions for making each type of book club successful For each title she provides a plot summary characterization sketches questions to use for provocative discussion and follow-up bibliographies on similar reads Notes on genres themes and reading levels are also provided The selected titles reflect some of the best most current and most popular children's literature In addition a broad scope of genres and multicultural titles are included Perfect for public library programs and after-school book clubs this is a one-stop resource with practical ready-made plans that can easily be adapted to multiple environments Grades 3-8

Caleb's Story Patricia MacLachlan, 2002-08-06 Anna has done something terrible She has given me her journal to fill In Anna's journal the words walk across the page like bird prints in the mud But it is hard for me It is hard for me to find things to write about It's your job now Anna says as she hands Caleb her journals asking him to continue writing the family story But Sarah Jacob Anna Caleb and their new little sister Cassie have already formed a family and Caleb fears there will be nothing left to write about But that is before Cassie discovers a mysterious old man in the barn and everything changes Everyone is excited about the arrival of a new family member except for Jacob who holds a bitter grudge Only the special love of Caleb and the gift he offers can help to mend the pain of the past Caleb's Story continues the saga begun by the Newbery Medal-winning Sarah Plain and Tall and its sequel Skylark spinning a tale of love forgiveness and the ties that bind a family together Ages 8-10      Sarah, Plain and Tall CD Collection Patricia MacLachlan, 2001-10-09 Sarah Plain and Tall Skylark and Caleb's Story all unabridged and all performed beautifully by Academy Award-winning actress Glenn Close make up this exquisite CD collection I will come by train I will wear a yellow bonnet I am plain and tall Sarah writes Papa And so begins the journey for Sarah Papa Anna and Caleb in Patricia MacLachlan's masterpiece Sarah Plain and Tall In Skylark a drought turns the land dry and brown and Sarah takes Anna and Caleb back to the city as Papa stays behind Will the family ever be reunited Caleb's Story continues the saga of Sarah and her family on the prairie All the beloved characters return for another important episode in their lives this time narrated by Caleb offering a new perspective      What You Know First Patricia MacLachlan, 1998-02-14 A child comes to terms with the fact that she and her family are leaving the prairie As she talks herself into acceptance her Mama helps her let go commenting that the baby will need someone to tell him where he came from So the girl gathers mementoes a bag of earth and a piece of cottonwood tree A novel hides in these few pages As with Sarah Plain and Tall the subtext vibrates So much is told in each perfectly chosen phrase The story is deep and specific but the pain and denial of a child leaving a known and loved place is all too universal Moser s finely wrought engravings enhanced by moody tints record the departure SLJ 1995 Pick of the Lists ABA
