Once Upon a Family Pamela L. Adams,2003 The Longest Goodbye: A Family's Hope-Filled Journey Through Alzheimer's Shelly Calcagno,2022-11-15 Are we ever ready to say goodbye She looked out into the yard sprinkled with spring dandelions Yellow flowers she said searching for her words We knew something wasn't right That's when things began to fall apart for our family when our longest goodbye journey began the defining before and after moment And now looking back it's been almost a decade of slow loss and drawn out grief as we slowly let go of our beautiful mom In the middle of it all though we have learned to look for hope and chase down joy discovering that in spite of our pain there are always gifts to be found even on the hardest of days Alzheimer's disease affects almost fifty million people worldwide It touches people across every walk of life So how do millions of people figure out how to love as they let go The Longest Goodbye is a collection of stories and moments not just about the clinical side of memory loss but the emotional heart journey It is a story that shows how joy and grief are often intertwined and wrapped up together in the glorious mess of life The Longest Goodbye encourages readers to remember the ones they love while they are still here and to intentionally celebrate and live through the pain and hard days It's filled with tears hope and bitter sweet moments all held together by the beautiful love of a mother and daughter holding onto a life filled with memories while learning to let go and say goodbye

Encounters Andrew Davison,2025-03-25 What would it look like to approach data with the care and attentiveness that we bring to a poem Andrew Davison proposes a new philosophy of data modeled on the affective and ethical qualities of the encounter between a reader and a literary text and demonstrates its significance for understanding urgent social and political issues In a cross disciplinary engagement with philosophical literary and political theoretical accounts of poetic experience Close Encounters challenges the philosophical underpinnings of dominant approaches to data analysis Instead Davison argues social scientists should treat their data with the same close attention and ethical responsibility that are accorded to literary texts In this view quantitative and qualitative data are not only collected coded or constructed they are entrusted to the care of their recipient Such attunement yields original insight into silenced erased and neglected subaltern dimensions of the data Davison demonstrates how this methodology provides fresh perspective on pressing topics such as immigration border politics torture war Trumpism violent political speech medical care criminal justice algorithmic governance and the COVID 19 pandemic Bringing together a strikingly original theorization of data with a rich array of examples Close Encounters shows why the skills and methods of literary inquiry are essential to ethically sensitive data analysis Choosing Hope Ginny Dennehy,2013-06-11 A chronicle of family love unspeakable loss and the power of healing Ginny Dennehy was living the dream a good marriage two wonderful teenagers a fulfilling career Life in Whistler B C

Sutherland,2006 All Texans or their ancestors started as something else The families that came here molded the state and were molded by it Anne H Sutherland explores just how the experiences of two of the early Anglo land grant families the Robertsons and the Sutherlands shaped Texas events and how they handed down those experiences from one generation to another transforming two Scots Irish families into what in hindsight we have branded Anglo Texans The story of these two pioneering families told through their letters poems diaries and oral histories embodies western expansion and political upheaval Settling in central and southeast Texas these families struggled to build a new Texas and make a life for their children The Texas revolution and the Civil War acted as catalysts for the emergence of their Texan identity A unique blend of family and Texas history Sutherland's Made in Texas A Family Tale positions personal stories as windows of insight onto Texan identity She peels back the layers of family tradition and textbook history to show how her forebears experienced the transforming events of the settlement of Texas and its war for independence As new generations emerged each contributed its own anecdotes and historical context from the time period By placing the families within Texas history Sutherland effectively and innovatively traces identity from the early nineteenth century to today As settlers in the western wilderness the Robertsons the Sutherlands and others like them actively shaped Texas even as they were changed themselves Zion's Hope, 1910 Letters of Madame de Rémusat to Her Husband and Son, from 1804 to 1813 Madame de Rémusat (Claire Elisabeth Jeanne Gravier de Vergennes), 1881 Hogg's Weekly Instructor, 1845 Finding Hope in the Lived Experience of Psychosis Patte Randal, Josephine Stanton, 2022-06-30 This book offers first person accounts of the experience of psychosis from the inside and the outside through the eyes of two doctors one of whom has experienced psychosis and both of whom have worked for decades in the field of psychiatry Underpinned by rigorous academic analysis using an evocative duo ethnographic approach the book explores the cultural and subcultural influences from childhood onwards both traumatic and resilience building that have shaped their lives Both authors reflect on strategies they learned early in life for dealing with challenges each managing to function at a high level while avoiding awareness of their vulnerability They reflect on the potential dangers of using their expertise and position of power in psychiatry simply to diagnose mental illness and prescribe medication The differences and similarities in the authors stories provide a productive tension highlighting the complexities of this paradigm shift that is happening in psychiatry Written in the form of two interacting memoirs this book is of great interest to researchers clinicians and practicing psychologists as well as a general audience with interest in psychosis *Short discourses to be read in families.
