Once More Around Ruth Guillard:

Once More Around the Sun Ruth Guillard, John B. Stimson, 2015-12-03 ONCE MORE AROUND THE SUN is the sixth book of poems written by Ruth Fredericks Guillard Each book has a slightly different feel to it in this collection there is a mellowness that comes of being comfortable with later years of life spent with her husband in their log home on a cove of the Damariscotta River in coastal Maine The silence the author finds there is mirrored by the inner silence the reader feels in many of her poems Nature lovers will enjoy the sensitive often humorous descriptions of the birds and animals that live their lives around and sometimes in the Guillard home as if it were part of the scenery St. Nicholas Mary Mapes Dodge, 1921

Singularly Unfeminine Profession, A: One Woman's Journey In Princeton Alumni Weekly .1932-08-12 Physics Mary K Gaillard, 2015-06-10 In 1981 Mary K Gaillard became the first woman on the physics faculty at the University of California at Berkeley Her career as a theoretical physicist spanned the period from the inception in the late 1960s and early 1970s of what is now known as the Standard Model of particle physics and its experimental confirmation culminating with the discovery of the Higgs particle in 2012 A Singularly Unfeminine Profession recounts Gaillard's experiences as a woman in a very male dominated field while tracing the development of the Standard Model as she witnessed it and participated in it The generally nurturing environment of her childhood and college years as well as experiences as an undergraduate in particle physics laboratories and as a graduate student at Columbia University which cemented her passion for particle physics left her unprepared for the difficulties that she confronted as a second year graduate student in Paris and later at CERN another particle physics laboratory near Geneva Switzerland The development of the Standard Model as well as attempts to go beyond it and aspects of early universe physics are described through the lens of Gaillard's own work in a language written for a lay audience Army-Navy-Air Force Register and Defense Times ,1913 Sunday-school Times ,1890 Army and Navy Register ,1921 Billboard, 1943-10-09 In its 114th year Billboard remains the world's premier weekly music publication and a diverse digital events brand content and data licensing platform Billboard publishes the most trusted charts and offers unrivaled reporting about the latest music video gaming media digital and mobile entertainment issues and trends The Captain and His Lady Ellen Randolph Weatherly, 2012 In the year of 1924 George N Randolph a US Army captain stationed at Camp Gaillard in the Panama Canal Zone sat at his desk and began writing his first love letter to Ruth Morrison a woman he had fallen in love with at first sight Being a military man he began expressing himself in a definite precise manner The recipient of his letter was the principal of the English Speaking School of Gatun in the Canal Zone She immediately replied to his letter in her own softer more descriptive manner Thus began their love story In The Captain's Lady the couple's daughter Ellen Randolph Weatherly shares the letters her parents penned to each other complete with all the essential elements necessary in a spellbinding love story. The letters include commentaries involving historical events political elections pioneer history humorous happenings and life during the period of 1924

Compiled exactly as they were written the letters and accompanying photographs not only paint a picture of the times but also narrate the tale of an enduring love story California Eastern Star ,1932 Gaillard's Medical Journal and the American Medical Weekly ,1874 Billboard, 1946-06-01 In its 114th year Billboard remains the world's premier weekly music publication and a diverse digital events brand content and data licensing platform Billboard publishes the most trusted charts and offers unrivaled reporting about the latest music video gaming media digital and mobile entertainment issues and A Gendered Profession James Benedict Brown, Harriet Harriss, Ruth Los Anaeles Saturday Niaht .1927 Morrow, James Soane, 2019-08-16 The issue of gender inequality in architecture has been part of the profession s discourse for many years yet the continuing gender imbalance in architectural education and practice remains a difficult subject This book seeks to change that It provides the first ever attempt to move the debate about gender in architecture beyond the tradition of gender segregated diagnostic or critical discourse on the debate towards something more propositional actionable and transformative To do this A Gendered Profession brings together a comprehensive array of essays from a wide variety of experts in architectural education and practice touching on issues such as LGBT age family status and gender Travel Elisha Hollingsworth Talbot, 1895 The United States Army and Navy Journal and Gazette of the The History of the National Association of Colored Women'S Clubs, Inc. LaVonne Regular and Volunteer Forces ,1921 Leslie, 2012-11-30 The History of the National Association of Colored Womens Clubs Inc Edited by LaVonne Jackson Leslie With a new introduction by the editor In highlighting the history of the oldest black womens organization in the United States The History of the National Association of Colored Womens Clubs Inc written by scholar Dr Charles Wesley provides a comprehensive insight into the historical achievements and activities of the organization from its creation to 1984 The book offers an interesting history of how the organization evolved and functioned nationwide into one of the most respectable black organization It is highly recommended for readers interested in understanding the role of black women in uplifting the black community through community service involvement with programs focusing on childcare education and social services The clubwomen established local state and regional chapters nationwide The History of the National Association of Colored Womens Clubs Inc utilizes the organizations conference reports minutes and National Notespublication as primary sources to depict how the clubs carried out their goals and operated in society to make a difference The voices of the pioneer women in the National Association of Colored Womens Clubs Inc can be envisioned by reading this pivotal work Their achievements are noteworthy in our history They have inspired women in the organization to continue to be involved in carrying out its mission by upholding its motto lifting as we climb This book prepares the foundation for the next edition focusing on the history of the organization to the present Totem Poles and Tea Hughina Harold, 2011-02-01 Hughina Harold paints a powerful picture of a world that no longer exists in this compelling account of her experiences as a young teacher and nurse on the remote Broughton Archipelago on British Columbia's coast in the 1930s Fresh from nursing school in Victoria and eager to start work Harold could not have imagined the challenges that awaited her in the tiny village of Mamalilikulla Leaving the comforts of Victoria behind for a cold leaky floathome that she shared with two elderly missionaries she had to adapt quickly to her new circumstances Travelling in unreliable boats to remote outposts to treat the sick attending births in the most primitive conditions and teaching from standard middle class textbooks children who had never even seen a car this gutsy young woman rose to the challenge The clash of cultures Hughina experienced was extreme but through it she developed a new understanding of the people she had been sent to teach and treat discovering their age old traditions and witnessing things that should not be forgotten Written decades later and based on letters Harold had written home Totem Poles and Tea ensures that her memories will be preserved Billboard, 1951-03-03 In its 114th year Billboard remains the world s premier weekly music publication and a diverse digital events brand content and data licensing platform Billboard publishes the most trusted charts and offers unrivaled reporting about the latest music video gaming media digital and mobile entertainment issues and trends Cabinets, Ministers, and Gender Claire Annesley, Karen Beckwith, Susan Franceschet, 2019 Historically men have been more likely to be appointed to governing cabinets but gendered patterns of appointment vary cross nationally and women s inclusion in cabinets has grown significantly over time This book breaks new theoretical ground by conceiving of cabinet formation as a gendered iterative process governed by rules that empower and constrain presidents and prime ministers in the criteria they use to make appointments Political actors use their agency to interpret and exploit ambiguity in rules to deviate from past practices of appointing mostly men When they do so they create different opportunities for men and women to be selected explaining why some democracies have appointed more women to cabinet than others Importantly this dynamic produces new rules about women s inclusion and as this book explains the emergence of a concrete floor defined as a minimum number of women who must be appointed to a cabinet to ensure its legitimacy Drawing on in depth analyses of seven countries Australia Canada Chile Germany Spain the United Kingdom and the United States and elite interviews media data and autobiographies of cabinet members Cabinets Ministers and Gender offers a cross time cross national study of the gendered process of cabinet formation
