One World, Many Religions Mary Pope Osborne, 1996 An illustrated introduction to comparative religion discussing Judaism Christianity Islam Hinduism Buddhism Confucianism and Taoism One World Many Issues Lyn Clarke, Bernard Williams, Graham Langtree, 2001 Grade level 7 8 9 10 11 e i s Taking Religion Seriously Across the Curriculum Warren A. Nord, Charles C. Haynes, 1998 The authors chart a middle course in our war over religion and public education one that builds on a developing national consensus among educational and religious leaders While it is not proper for schools to practice religion or proselytize neither is it permissible to make them religion free zones Schools do not take religion seriously as the authors review of textbooks and the new national content standards makes clear In Part One they outline the civic constitutional and educational frameworks that should shape the treatment of religion in the curriculum and classroom In Part Two they explore major issues relating to religion in different domains of the curriculum in elementary education and in middle and high school courses in history civics economics literature and the sciences They also discuss Bible courses and world religions courses and explore the relationship of religion to moral education and sex education Promoting a Global Community Through Multicultural Children's Literature Stan Steiner, 2001-03-15 You will find this book invaluable for teaching students the beauties of diversity and for building understanding of cultures from around the world This book features more than 800 titles both single volume and series selected for their multicultural content and compelling reflections of the social issues of diverse cultures The more than 100 interdisciplinary application strategies for titles range from reading aloud with follow up discussions to social activism Fully indexed by author and title this guide includes Web sites for literature integration contact information a discussion of the benefits of multicultural literature and suggestions for further reading The perfect guide for introducing students to other cultures and customs 50 Great Myths About Religions John Morreall, Tamara Sonn, 2014-04-03 50 Great Myths about Religions is an intriguing informative and often humorous introduction to some of the long standing myths that surround religious belief This engaging book will get its readers thinking about how and why certain myths have arisen and their continuing influence on our personal and collective view of religion Offers a lively informative and thought provoking introduction to some of the common misbeliefs surrounding religions Discusses myths about religious belief in general as well as specific ideas that surround Judaism Christianity Islam atheism and agnosticism Covers a wide range of myths from ancient legends such as the Bible forbidding pork being eaten because it causes illness to modern urban fables such as Barack Obama being a Muslim Unpacks each myth in turn explaining why it arose how it spread and why the beliefs that stem from it are questionable Includes a fascinating discussion about human nature and the main characteristics that predispose us to create and circulate myths to begin with Underpinned by a wide knowledge of academic research it is written by two respected religion scholars and experienced authors

Confucianism as a World Religion Anna Sun, 2013-04-21 Is Confucianism a religion If so why do most Chinese think it isn't From ancient Confucian temples to nineteenth century archives to the testimony of people interviewed by the author throughout China over a period of more than a decade this book traces the birth and growth of the idea of Confucianism as a world religion The book begins at Oxford in the late nineteenth century when Friedrich Max Müller and James Legge classified Confucianism as a world religion in the new discourse of world religions and the emerging discipline of comparative religion Anna Sun shows how that decisive moment continues to influence the understanding of Confucianism in the contemporary world not only in the West but also in China where the politics of Confucianism has become important to the present regime in a time of transition Contested histories of Confucianism are vital signs of social and political change Sun also examines the revival of Confucianism in contemporary China and the social significance of the ritual practice of Confucian temples While the Chinese government turns to Confucianism to justify its political agenda Confucian activists have started a movement to turn Confucianism into a religion Confucianism as a world religion might have begun as a scholarly construction but are we witnessing its transformation into a social and political reality With historical analysis extensive research and thoughtful reflection Confucianism as a World Religion will engage all those interested in religion and global politics at the beginning of the Chinese century Doing History Linda S. Levstik, Keith C. Barton, 2011-01-26 Now in its fourth edition this popular text offers a unique perspective on teaching and learning history in the elementary and middle grades Through case studies of teachers and students in diverse classrooms and from diverse backgrounds it shows children engaging in authentic historical investigations often in the context of an integrated social studies curriculum The central assumption is that children can engage in valid forms of historical inquiry collecting and data analysis examining the perspectives of people in the past considering multiple interpretations and creating evidence based historical accounts In each chapter the authors explain how the teaching demonstrated in the vignettes reflects basic principles of contemporary learning theory thus providing specific examples of successful activities and placing them in a theoretical context that allows teachers to adapt and apply them in a wide variety of settings New in the Fourth Edition Expanded coverage of world history in two new chapters Integration of new technologies to support history instruction Updated classroom examples bibliographies and references

Together as One: Interfaith Relationships Between African Traditional Religion, Islam, and Christianity in Nigeria. Hyacinth Kalu, 2011-06-16 The Nigerian religious landscape is characterized by series of violence leading to bloodshed loss of thousands of life and property worth billions of Naira This unfortunate situation raises much concern in the minds of well meaning Nigerians Hence this book raises such crucial questions as How can Nigeria remain a secular state and still maintain its plurality of religion and at same time survive disintegration because of religious violence conflict and intolerance How can followers of these different religions maintain their religious identity while at the same time co operating with one another in making Nigeria a home for all where all can worship God in freedom and peace This book offers hope in the midst of hopelessness it underscores the fact that though tribe and tongue may differ though religious differences exist Nigeria is still one sovereign nation Consequently the opening title Together as One resonates with the opening statements of the Constitution of the Federal Republic of Nigeria that professes unity harmony and peace as one indivisible and indissoluble sovereign nation under God This book finds the hope of reclaiming and rebuilding this unity and harmony threatened by religious violence in Interfaith Relationships between African Traditional Religion Islam and Christianity

The 21st Century Church Dr. Charles Jackson,2018-03-21 after much prayer and meditation God spoke to me I combed through scriptures reading about the church and more about Jesus and His relationship with his disciples especially focusing on Peter and his bond with the church What was its purpose Why couldn t the thoughts of the church the Body of Christ the pure meaning of its intent be left alone My brothers and sisters after countless days of tumultuous soul searching and restless nights God has revealed to me that the transformation begins with the acceptance of His Son However at times we are alienated and an enemy of Christ destitute by the wicked works of our minds Conversely through his sacrificial death He has reconciled us to present us holy unblameable and unreprieveable to himself When you journey through the pages of this book allow the process to continue Jesus works from the inside out The mind is the center for change As you continue to walk in Christ Let this mind be in you which was also in Christ Jesus Let this book be the compass that guides you back on course so that you too can become the church that Christ intended you to be
