Women Film Directors Gwendolyn A. Foster, 1995-11-14 Until now there hasn't been one single volume authoritative reference work on the history of women in film highlighting nearly every woman filmmaker from the dawn of cinema including Alice Guy France 1896 Chantal Akerman Belgium Penny Marshall U S and Sally Potter U K Every effort has been made to include every kind of woman filmmaker commercial and mainstream avant garde and minority and to give a complete cross section of the work of these remarkable women Scholars and students of film popular culture Women's Studies and International Studies as well as film buffs will learn much from this work The Dictionary covers the careers of nearly 200 women filmmakers giving vital statistics where available listings of films directed by these women and selected bibliographies for further reading This is a one volume one stop resource a comprehensive up to date guide that is absolutely essential for any course offering an overview or survey of women's cinema It offers not only all available statistics but critical evaluations of the filmmakers work as well In order to keep the length manageable this volume focuses on women who direct fictional narrative films with occasional forays into the area of the documentary and is limited to film production rather than video production Film Directors Michael Singer, 2002 The Gangster Film Reader Alain Silver, James Ursini, 2007-02 In the 1930s the gangster film in the United States coincided with a very real and very sensational gangsterism at large in American society Little Caesar 1931 The Public Enemy 1931 and Scarface 1932 borrowed liberally from the newspapers and books of the era With the release of just these three motion pictures in barely more than a year's time Hollywood quintessentially defined the genre The characters the situations and the icons from fast cars and tommy guns to fancy fedoras and fancier molls established the audience expectations associated with the gangster film that remain in force to this day As with their Film Noir Reader series using both reprints of seminal articles and new pieces editors Silver and Ursini have assembled a group of essays that presents an exhaustive overview of this still vital genre Reprints of work by such well known film historians as Robin Wood Andrew Sarris Carlos Clarens Paul Schrader and Stuart Kaminsky explore the evolution of the gangster film through the 1970s and The Godfather Parts 2 and 3 comprise two dozen newer articles most of them written expressly for this volume by Ursini and Silver These case studies and thematic analyses from White Heat to the remake of Scarface to The Sopranos complete the anthology World Film Directors: 1945-1985 John Wakeman, 1987 A two volume biographical critical dictionary of major filmmakers from all countries covering the entire history of the medium from 1890 to the present Each director is treated in a separate essay that includes a detailed chronological account of the subject's life and work and a summary of critical opinion Includes filmography and a selective bibliography of books and articles International Dictionary of Films and Filmmakers: Directors Nicholas Thomas, James Vinson, Samantha Cook, 1990 Each entry contains information lists of cast and crew a select bibliography and an essay by a specialist in the field Many include a still shot Landscape and the Environment in Hollywood Film Ellen E. Moore, 2017-11-09 This book systematically explores how popular Hollywood film portrays environmental issues through various genres In so doing it reveals the influence exerted by media consolidation and the drive for profit on Hollywood's portrayal of the natural landscape which ultimately shapes how environmental problems and their solutions are presented to audiences Analysis is framed by a consideration of how cultural studies can make more theoretical and practical room for environmental concern thereby expanding its capacity for critical examination The book begins by introducing the theoretical underpinning of the research as it relates to cultural studies landscape and genre In the chapters that follow each genre is taken in turn starting with popular animated family films and progressing through spy thrillers eco thrillers science fiction Westerns superhero films and drama This book is ideal for students and scholars in a variety of disciplines including film environmental studies communication political economy and cultural studies
