Online Book Childhood Nation Interdisciplinary Engagements Critical:

Nordic Utopias and Dystopias Pia Maria Ahlbäck, Jouni Teittinen, Maria Lassén-Seger, 2022-11-24 The Nordic countries have long been subject to certain idealised even utopian imaginaries particularly with regard to images of pristine nature and the societal ideals of democracy equality and education On the other hand such projections inevitably invite dissent irony and intimations of the utopia s dark underside Things may yet take or may have already taken a dystopic course The present volume offers twelve contributions on utopias and dystopias in Nordic literature and culture Geographically the articles cover the Nordic countries of Denmark Finland Norway and Sweden as well as the autonomous area of Greenland Through the articles varied subjects ranging from avant garde literature and long poems to noir TV series young adult fiction popular historiography and political discourse in literature outside of Norden the volume brings forth a historically rich multi layered picture of social cultural and environmental imagination in the Nordic countries Nordic Utopias and Dystopias is thus of interest not only to specialists in dystopian and utopian research but more broadly to scholars of literature and culture and the political and social sciences especially but not exclusively in the Nordic context Practising Interdisciplinarity Babu P. Remesh, Ratheesh Kumar, 2024-02-09 This book examines the epistemological social and political dimensions of practising interdisciplinary approaches to enhance knowledge pedagogy and methodological aspects of research in the South Asian context The volume sets the context by bringing together a range of ideas questions and reflections on the concept of interdisciplinarity the numerous waves of interdisciplinarity in contemporary history of knowledge which were radically different from each other in their epistemological and political orientations The book revisits the concept of interdisciplinarity and takes into cognizance the importance of the mutual shaping of knowledge and politics in our search for inclusive and sustainable future s The book offers a blend of both conceptual and institutional discourses on interdisciplinarity and the personal experiences of leading practitioners bringing together critical engagements from different vantage points on practising it It will be of interest to researchers scholars and practitioners of social sciences and humanities disciplines as well as interdisciplinary fields such as educational studies development studies women s studies media studies cultural studies urban studies labour studies legal studies public health disability studies global international studies and performing arts It will also be useful for policy planners development practitioners activists and social organizers working in related fields Using Nonfiction for Civic Engagement in Classrooms Vivian Yenika-Agbaw, Ruth McKoy Lowery, Paul H. Ricks, 2018-02-22 This book acknowledges the existence of high quality nonfiction children s literature that may serve as a basis for conversation about civic engagements and our roles as global citizens It touches on our social history and offers ideas for how educators might be able to engage readers in healthy and useful dialogues on what it means to be human and how nonfiction texts attempt to reconstruct this reality in this quest to recognize our collective humanity
