My Life as I Remember It Billy D. Smith, 2009-10 In writing my book I tried to the best of my memory and with the help of a lot of people to relate and have a true story about the things that we did as children and adults about growing up and living in a small town in Alabama Even though times were hard then I feel very fortunate to have grown up during that time and in that place I believe that my life has been guided and protected by a Higher Being and I thank God for looking after me and guiding my life I also had some great teachers which I am thankful for knowing Most of our teachers loved us and tried to help when they could to prepare for our future All this gave me confidence to go into adult life and knew that I had my future in my hand and could make my life and that I alone am responsible for my actions I believe that growing up in Roanoke gave me the knowledge and background to have a great life for which I am thankful and I hope for many more good years

The Russian's Runaway Bride Elizabeth Lennox, 2015-11-20 She'd left him And on their wedding day no less Stefan Kozlov couldn't believe that the woman he'd married had disappeared only hours after exchanging their vows After months of happy courting interspersed with cold showers as he forced them to wait for their wedding night Livia had left without explanation Stefan was angry and confused but still determined to reunite and consummate their relationship Even if Livia wouldn't have him her mother's medical emergency still made it critical that he find her Livia had thought everything was perfect The perfect man and the perfect life So what had gone wrong Why hadn't she seen the clues Surely there had been something that could have warned her of Stefan's deep dark secret Unfortunately even her knowledge of his true nature couldn't stop her from falling under his spell There had always been a powerful chemistry between the two of them Now she was truly in a bind caught between trying to help and protect her injured mother while living with a husband she now felt she barely knew

The Last Torpedo Flyers Arthur Aldridge, 2013-05-23 Imagine you are an RAF torpedo pilot in World War Two sent on missions so dangerous that you're later likened to the Kamikaze Suicide wasn't a recognised part of the objective for British airmen yet some pilots felt they had accepted certain death just by climbing into their cockpits There were times in 1942 when Arthur Aldridge felt like this At the age of 19 this courageous young man had quit his studies at Oxford to volunteer for the RAF He flew his Bristol Beaufort like there was no tomorrow a realistic assumption after seeing his best friend die in flames at the end of 1941 Aldridge was awarded a DFC Distinguished Flying Cross for his bravery on the same strike on a German cargo ship during which he lost a wing tip by flying too close to the deck He was equally lucky to survive his squadron's chaotic torpedo attack on the giants of Hitler's maritime fleet during the notorious Channel Dash which saw 40 RAF planes shot down As 1942 wore on and the stress became intolerable Aldridge and his Cockney gunner Bill Carroll held their nerve and Arty was awarded a Bar to his DFC for sinking two enemy ships off Malta and rescuing a fellow pilot while wounded as his own Beaufort took four shells Malta was saved by the skin of its teeth Rommel denied vital supplies in North Africa and the course of the war was turned Aldridge was still only 21 years old Now both 91 but firm friends as ever Aldridge and Carroll are two of the last torpedo airmen who deserve their place in history alongside our heroic Spitfire pilots Their story vividly captures the comradeship that existed between men pushed by war to their very limit
