HISTORY: One of the modern era's most violent and scientific super-hero costumes, the Defenders have disbanded and regrouped several times over the years, reorganizing in various guises and under various names. They began as a so-called "secret" informal alliance of heroes and scientists who used official police regulations, headquarters and other members of the law-enforced superhero group only when a crisis required their aid. They were key figures in their time as protectors of the world, often on an ongoing basis as a trio of close friends and allies. Something of a fringe character, these Defenders often attracted the scorn and derision of the superhero community as well as without mainstream adventures. Their fighting style was completely unorthodox. It has been said that any hero who, worked with the early Defenders, could be considered a Defender, though only a few have allies were regarded as such. Defenders is a group's long-term perception.

The Defenders' origins are rooted in a war of clashes with the Unliving Ones, otherworldly demons who have long sought to conquer the universe. Dr. Strange opposed this war — first on his own, later alongside other warrior-monarch Namor, and then a re-learning Strange with the monstrous Hulk. In this last battle, the heroes presided over the defeat of Barbatos Nemus, a powerful force of the Unliving Ones who sacrificed himself to free them from the Unliving Ones' realm. May it be their clutches. Shortly thereafter, his old but temporarily joined forces with other world's powerful outcast, the cosmic general Surtur as the "Titans' Throne," the intent to overthrow San Fable's brutal (and a God) and saved the world from a singular, unending weather "control" device despite the rigid interference of the Avengers. The Undying Ones continued to target humanity in general and the Silver Surfer in particular, employing supernatural agents such as the Golden and Coluimian Warrior Wizards. The Silver Surfer helped restore Coluim's bones, beginning his long-recurring association with the Golden One. Strange had actually tried to recruit him earlier during his previous bonding, but the Surfer had been unavailable at the time. He then finally freed Barbara Norton from the Undying Ones, as he did the god game mad after mystically mating with the demons' subleader leader, the Nameless One. Shortly thereafter, when the Silver was allied with Aurora the Enchantress and the Black Knight (and eventually queen Cassidra), the Enchantress transformed the no longer into the Argentinian woman/woman Valkyrie (later revealed to be the Asgardian goddess Brunnhilde inhabiting a transformed reformed version of Barbara's body). Having no memory of her work and its other purpose beyond adventure, Valkyrie joined the Silver as Cassidra's defunct, adding a new element of stability and calm to the group with her constant participation. She may lead a Strange's Greenwich Village house, which served as the Silver's unofficial headquarters for years.

As being with humor's cousin Namorita to deactivate a revived Megalon and being minor mythic Cyrus Black, the Defenders saved Storm and the Red Ghost with the aid of a new recruit, returning order Howlways. The heroes next embarked on a quest to rescue the Black Knight, whom Amora had capriciously turned to evil. Thanks to the manipulations of the villains Dormammu and Loki, the quest brought the Defenders into conflict with their more official counterparts, the Avengers, but the two heroic groups soon joined forces to defeat the villains and save the world. The Black Knight, meanwhile, was reborn into a new life in the 12th century Crusades, where the Defenders briefly aided his cause. Following the Avengers' Defenders' demise, the Defenders reborn, all of the active Defenders except Storm
