Inhorn, 2009 Extensive social science research particularly by anthropologists has explored women's reproductive lives their use of reproductive technologies and their experiences as mothers and nurturers of children Meanwhile few if any volumes have explored men's reproductive concerns or contributions to women's reproductive health Men are clearly viewed as the second sex in reproduction This volume argues that the marginalization of men is an oversight of considerable proportions and thereby seeks to break the silence surrounding men's thoughts, experiences and feelings about their reproductive lives. It sheds new light on male reproduction from a cross-cultural, global perspective focusing not only upon men in Europe and America but also those in the Middle East, Asia and Latin America. Both heterosexual and homosexual married and unmarried men are featured in this volume which assesses concerns ranging from masculinity and sexuality to childbirth and fatherhood. Thus men are brought back into the equation as reproductive partners, progenitors, fathers, nurturers and decision makers.

She realised that her lifestyle and core values were fundamentally misaligned. In this unmasked memoir, Bianca Caruana, the woman behind the renowned travel blog The Altruistic Traveller, shares the events that unfolded after her courageous decision to steer away from her charted course and lead a life guided by her heart.
