healing and mindfulness Intersections with Indigenous cultures Addiction and recovery Transgenerational trauma An Ethos of Transdisciplinarity Sanya Osha, 2025-04-01 Toyin Falola's astounding intellectual production must be one of the mysteries in the intellectual world. It has transcended the confined world of historical research into broader horizons that include the role of the public intellectual. The present study would undertake a rigorous analysis of the origins, continuities, and discontinuities of this transformation. This means we have to recast the debates regarding who is a public intellectual from a multiplicity of discursive situations and historical and cultural contexts. We have to employ methodological parallels from North Atlantic intellectual traditions. How did the role of the public intellectual emerge in the first place in world intellectual history? Addressing this question would enrich this research endeavour immensely. In interrogating comparative discursive formations, we shall re-evaluate the roles, functions, and achievements of continental intellectuals such as Bertrand Russell, Jean Paul Sartre, Andre Malraux, Albert Camus, Michel Foucault, Edward Said, Wole Soyinka, and Pierre Bourdieu. Again, this discursive element will give this study a global appeal and range. Understanding African American Rhetoric Ronald L. Jackson II, Elaine B. Richardson, 2014-05-22 This is an extraordinarily well-balanced collection of essays focused on varied expressions of African American Rhetoric; it also is a critical antidote to a preoccupation with Western Rhetoric as the arbiter of what counts for effective rhetoric. Rather than impose Western terminology on African and African American rhetoric, the essays in this volume seek to illumine rhetoric from within its own cultural expression, thereby creating an understanding grounded in the culture's values. The consequence is a richly detailed and well-researched set of essays. The contribution of African American rhetoric can no longer be rendered invisible through neglect of its tradition. The essays in this volume neither seek to displace Western Rhetoric nor function as an uncritical paen to Afrocentricity and Africology. This volume is both timely and essential, timely in advancing a better understanding of the richly textured history that is expressed through African American discourse and essential as a counterpoint to the hegemonic influence of Greek and Roman rhetoric as the origin of rhetorical theory and practice. Written in the spirit of a critical rhetoric, this collection eschews traditional focus on public address and instead offers a rich array of texts in musical and other forms that address publics. Du Bois's Dialectics Reiland Rabaka, 2009-01-01 With chapters that undertake ideological critiques of education, religion, the politics of reparations, and the problematics of black radical politics in contemporary culture and society, Du Bois's Dialectics employs Du Bois as its critical theoretical point of departure and demonstrates his and African Studies contributions to as well as contemporary critical theory's connections to critical pedagogy, sociology of religion, and reparations theory. Rabaka offers the first critical theoretical treatment of the W. E. B. Du Bois-Booker T. Washington debate, which lucidly highlights Du Bois's transition from a bourgeois black liberal to a black radical and revolutionary democratic socialist. Africana Critical Theory Reiland Rabaka, 2009-01-16 Building on and going far beyond W. E. B. Du Bois and the Problems of the Twenty-First Century and Du Bois's Dialectics, Reiland Rabaka's Africana Critical Theory innovatively identifies and analyzes continental and diasporan African contributions to classical and contemporary critical theory This book represents a climatic critical theoretical clincher that cogently demonstrates how Du Bois's rarely discussed dialectical thought interdisciplinarity intellectual history making radical political activism and world historical multiple liberation movement leadership helped to inaugurate a distinct Africana tradition of critical theory With chapters on W E B Du Bois C L R James Negritude Aime Cesaire and Leopold Senghor Frantz Fanon and Amilcar Cabral Africana Critical Theory endeavors to accessibly offer contemporary critical theorists an intellectual archaeology of the Africana tradition of critical theory and a much needed dialectical deconstruction and reconstruction of black radical politics These six seminal figures' collective thought and texts clearly cuts across several disciplines and therefore closes the chasm between Africana Studies and critical theory constantly demanding that intellectuals not simply think deep thoughts develop new theories and theoretically support radical politics but be and constantly become political activists social organizers and cultural workers that is folk the Italian critical theorist Antonio Gramsci referred to as organic intellectuals In this sense then the series of studies gathered in Africana Critical Theory contribute not only to African Studies African American Studies Caribbean Studies Cultural Studies Gender Studies and Postcolonial Studies but also to contemporary critical theoretical discourse across an amazingly wide range of traditional disciplines and radical political activism outside of and in many instances absolutely against Europe's ivory towers and the absurdities of the American academy
