

Key Elements of governance Critical for Oil Governance

- State Capacity – related to a states' power and ability to enforce rules that are consistent and predictable.
- Rule of law – that establishes among other things property rights and limits the states' discretion in manipulating those rules.
- Democratic institutions – that further limit exercise of state discretion by holding governments accountable to their citizens.
- An active citizenry - devoid of fear and manipulation that acts as front line defenders of democracy [modified from Francis Fukuyama]
