Messages in a Bottle B. Krigstein, 2013-03-20 Bernard Krigstein began his career as an unremarkable journeyman cartoonist during the 1940s and finished it as a respected fine artist and illustrator but comics historians know him for his explosively creative 1950s during which he applied all the craft intelligence and ambition of a burgeoning serious artist to his comics work with results that remain stunning to this day Krigstein's legend rests mostly on the 30 or so stories he created for the EC Comics but dozens of stories drawn for other lesser publishers such as Rae Herman Hillman and Atlas which would become Marvel showcase his skills and radical reinterpretation of the comics page in particular his groundbreaking slicing and dicing of time lapses through a series of narrow nearly animated panels Greg Sadowski who has previously written and designed a Harvey Award winning biography of Krigstein has assembled the very best of Krigstein's comics work starting with his earliest creative rumblings through his glory days at EC to his final even more brilliantly radical stories for Atlas Comics running through every genre popular at the time be it horror science fiction war western or romance but no super heroes

Master Race Bernard Krigstein, Al Feldstein, Ray Bradbury, 2018-01-10 This comics anthology includes Krigstein's most famous story which broke both aesthetic and narrative boundaries plus material that's never been reprinted since the 1950s In addition to Master Race this volume includes The Flying Machine based on a story by Ray Bradbury Other stories include Slave Ship an unpublished science fiction tale that was only discovered in the decades following EC's demise The Monster From The Fourth Dimension a horror science fiction shocker that has never been reprinted since its original appearance in 1954 and other Krigstein crime horror war and science fiction stories covering the full gamut of EC titles including Tales From the Crypt Crime Suspense Shock Suspense Aces High and Incredible Science Fiction

We Told You So Tom Spurgeon, Michael Dean, 2016-12-14 In 1976 a fledgling magazine held forth the idea that comics could be art In 2016 comics intended for an adult readership are reviewed favorably in the New York Times enjoy panels devoted to them at Book Expo America and sell in bookstores comparable to prose efforts of similar weight and intent We Told You So Comics as Art is an oral history about Fantagraphics Books key role in helping build and shape an art movement around a discredited ignored and fading expression of Americana It includes appearances by Chris Ware Art Spiegelman Harlan Ellison Stan Lee Daniel Clowes Frank Miller and more

Dripping with Fear Steve Ditko, 2015-03-19 Dripping With Fear The Steve Ditko Archives Volume 5 features another 200 plus meticulously restored full color pages from Spider Man co creator Steve Ditko in his early prime at the time working in near anonymity for Charlton Comics in the then popular horror suspense genre Comics like Tales of The Mysterious Traveler and This Magazine Is Haunted saw an explosion in Ditko's ingenuity as he manipulated the traditional comic book page layout with masterful results It was during this time that Ditko and his art school colleague the famed fetish artist Eric Stanton began sharing a studio in Manhattan The introduction by editor Blake Bell examines Ditko's stylistic evolution and delves deep into his association with Stanton Ditko's secret collaborations with Stanton on his female bondage material remain a highly controversial topic and Bell's introduction highlights numerous examples that prove the allegedly shy and private Ditko contributed with wild abandon to these risqué tales of titillation. This fifth volume stands as the best example yet of the Steve Ditko that would soon begin crafting such iconic classics as Spider-Man and Doctor Strange alongside Stan Lee at Marvel Comics.

Artful Breakdowns Georgiana Banita, Lee Konstantinou, 2023-03-02 Contributions by Georgiana Banita, Colin Beineke, Harriet Earle, Ariela Freedman, Liza Futerman, Shawn Gilmore, Sarah Hamblin, Cara Koehler, Lee Konstantinou, Patrick Lawrence, Philip Smith, and Kent Worcester. A carefully curated wide-ranging edited volume tracing Art Spiegelman's exceptional trajectory from underground rebellion to mainstream success. Artful Breakdowns: The Comics of Art Spiegelman reveals his key role in the rise of comics as an art form and of the cartoonist as artist. The collection grapples with Spiegelman's astonishing versatility from his irreverent underground strips to influential avant-garde magazine RAW, the expressionist style of the comics classic Maus, the illustrations to the Jazz Age poem The Wild Party and his response to the September 11 terrorist attacks, to his iconic cover art for the New Yorker, his children's books, and various cross-media collaborations. The twelve chapters cut across Spiegelman's career to document continuities and ruptures that the intense focus on Maus has obscured, yielding an array of original readings. Spiegelman's predilection for collage, improvisation, and the potent protest of silence shows his allegiance to modernist art. His cultural critique and anticapitalist, antimilitary positions shed light on his vocal public persona, while his deft intertextual strategies of mixing media archives from comics to photography and film amplify the poignance of his works. Developing new approaches to Spiegelman's comics, such as the publication history of Maus, the history of immigration and xenophobia, and the cartoonist's elevation of children's comics, the collection leaves no doubt that despite the accolades, his accessible comics have garnered what we have yet to grasp: the full range of Spiegelman's achievements in the realm of comics and beyond.
