In and Out of Church Steven M. Tipton, 2024-09-16 Why are so many Americans leaving church Half no longer belong to a congregation A quarter now say they are unchurched up from one in six a decade ago and one in twelve a generation ago led by more than a third of young adults Where have they gone and what are they doing instead What moves them What should we make of it What can we learn as well from those who have stayed or returned and from congregations that have sparked their continuing commitment or renewed participation After decades of drift and several long years of grievous pandemic that shut church doors and crowded the internet the time has come to weigh these questions more closely and answer them more carefully We need to open a keener moral inquiry into the arc of spiritual change in America We need to probe a thicker cultural account of intergenerational religious influence and inspiration that we practice today in forms of ritual action sacred expression and moral community that reach far beyond the pews In and Out of Church tackles these tasks It's a book voiced by spiritually attuned morally articulate young adults adrift from the churches and temples of their childhood yet immersed in currents of spiritual practice and imagination now shifting the shape and course of American religion In heartfelt dialogue with their baby boom parents these Millennials ponder how and why they got here in terms that open up and deepen the spiritual but not religious story sketched by surveys of religious nones This book brings these numbers to life and makes moral sense of this story of individuals leaving church by setting it within the larger cultural drama of modern multiplex society and quicksilver selfhood in search of authentic fulfillment in caring community It takes the reader inside a mushrooming megachurch in Silicon Valley and three thriving mainline congregations in Atlanta to see how they reach out to unchurched young adults and hold onto their own as they come of age by putting belonging before believing and behaving They lift up spiritual experience above creed and code and they challenge conventions of organized religion in ways that many spiritual and religious churchgoers have now come to embrace Dear Marilyn Barbra Leslie,2003 Detailing Barbra Leslie s search for release from the self contempt she felt after being sexually abused at the age of five and her shocking guilt following a backyard abortion at age 19 this autobiography reveals an artist finally at peace with herself Leslie dicusses how she has become one of few Autralian painters able to earn a living from her art and reflects on her period of rebelliousness as an art student in the late 1950s and early 1960s More than just an autobiography Dear Marilyn is also an Australian family saga conveyed with fearless honesty as the events described are by turns shocking frightening funny and heartwarming The Methodist Woman ,1954 Starting from Staten Island: Memories of Peace and War in the 1930s and 1940s George T. she suggested I write a book about my life Eventually over a period of several years I started writing down these short stories and finally put them together into a book It was then that I realized that many of my life experiences had a profound impact on who I was and how I thought I started out as a quiet shy person who was unsure of herself and her abilities Even though I had grown up attending church every Sunday trying to follow the teachings of the Bible I knew something was missing in my life Eventually I married a United Methodist minister and we raised two children together The challenges we faced during our years in the ministry allowed me to grow in strength and confidence I was continually learning new life lessons as God put me in positions where I could be of help while caring for the needs and problems of others As God led me to take on leadership roles I found I could depend on His guidance and continual support I was energized as He guided me to use my creative and artistic talents Then one day the doctor told me I had a tumor and needed major surgery all at the same time my husband was being put on trial by the church for behavior unbecoming of a minister When you are down and out is when you find out about your faith and Gods power to turn things around Never before had I envisioned the challenges I was yet to face I knew that God was not finished with me and that I had much more to accomplish Praise God
