The JAB Anthology Johanna Drucker, Brad Freeman, 2023-10-17 This anthology of articles selected from The Journal of Artists Books contains some of the best critical writing on artists books produced in the last quarter of a century Driven by the editorial vision of artist Brad Freeman JAB began as a provocative pamphlet and expanded to become a significant journal documenting artists books from multiple perspectives With its range of participants and approaches JAB provided a unique venue for sustained critical writing in the field and developed a broad subscriber base among institutional and private collectors and readers More than two hundred writers and artists from nearly two dozen countries around the globe were published in its pages The JAB Anthology contains contributions by many renowned figures in the field including Anne Moeglin Delcroix Janet Zweig Monica Carroll Adam Dickerson Alisa Scudamore Mary Jo Pauly April Sheridan Doro Boehme Gerrit Jan de Rook Océane Delleaux Brandon Graham Jérôme Dupeyrat Ward Tietz Paulo Silveira Philip Cabau Leszek Brogowski Lyn Ashby Tim Mosely Debra Parr Pedro Moura Levi Sherman Catarina Figueiredo Cardoso Isabel Baraona and the editors

Multimodal Poetics in Contemporary Fiction Thomas Mantzaris, 2024-10-24 This book explores the growing body of multimodal literary texts books that creatively experiment with the potential of design to represent narrative content Examining five North and Central American novels from the first two decades of the twenty first century this study draws attention to texts that combine verbal text writing with non verbal elements photographic images varied typography maps color etc as integral parts of their narratives Their experimentation both reconfigures the potential for print based and born digital fiction in the future and holds a mirror to past practices of design and typography that were rendered invisible or which received limited attention by authors publishers and readers By placing the five case studies and related texts within a broader history of experimentation in literature this book demonstrates how multimodal novels have changed the conceptualization of narrative content in literary texts and ushered in a new era for fiction

Meaningful Absence Across Arts and Media, 2019-03-27 This volume focusses on a rarely discussed method of meaning production namely via the absence rather than presence of signifiers It does so from an interdisciplinary transmedial perspective which covers systematic media comparative and historical aspects and reveals various forms and functions of missing signifiers across arts and media The meaningful silences blanks lacunae pauses etc treated by the ten contributors are taken from language and literature film comics opera and instrumental music architecture and the visual arts Contributors are Nassim Balestrini Walter Bernhart Olga Fischer Saskia Jaszoltowski Henry Keazor Peter Revers Klaus Rieser Daniel Stein Anselm Wagner Werner Wolf

Global Perspectives on Digital Literature Torsa Ghosal, 2023-06-22 Global Perspectives on Digital Literature A Critical Introduction for the Twenty First Century explores how digital literary forms shape and are shaped by aesthetic and political exchanges happening across languages and nations The book understands global as a mode of comparative thinking and argues for considering various forms of digital literature the popular the avant garde and the participatory as realizing and producing global thought in the twenty first century Attending to issues of both political and aesthetic representation the book includes a diverse group of contributors and a wide ranging corpus of texts composed in a variety of languages and regions including East and South Asia parts of Europe Latin America North America Australia and Western Africa The book s contributors adopt an array of interpretive approaches to make visible new connections and possibilities engendered by cross cultural encounters Among other topics they reflect on the shifting conditions for production and distribution of literature participatory cultures and technological affordances of Web 2 0 the ever changing dynamics of global and local forces and fundamental questions such as What do we mean when we talk about literature today and What is the future of literature

The Roots of Cane John Kevin Young,2024 The Roots of Cane proposes a new way to read one of the most significant works of the New Negro Renaissance Jean Toomer s Cane John Young traces the many pieces of Cane that were dispersed across multiple modernist magazines from 1922 through 1923 Interweaving a periodical studies approach to modernism with book history and critical race theory Young resituates Toomer s uneasy place within Black modernism by asking how original readers would have encountered his work Drawing from the Archives Benoît Crucifix,2023-07-20 This book proposes a new history of the graphic novel by examining how it recirculates older comics in the present Figures of Speech Tim Cassedy,2019-01-03 Tim Cassedy s fascinating study examines the role that language played at the turn of the nineteenth century as a marker of one s identity During this time of revolution U S French and Haitian and globalization language served as a way to categorize people within a world that appeared more diverse than ever Linguistic differences especially among English speakers seemed to validate the emerging national racial local and regional identity categories that took shape in this new world order Focusing on six eccentric characters of the time from the woman known as Princess Caraboo to wordsmith Noah Webster Cassedy shows how each put language at the center of their identities and lived out the possibilities of their era s linguistic ideas The result is a highly entertaining and equally informative look at how perceptions about who spoke what language and how they spoke it determined the shape of communities in the British American colonies and beyond This engagingly written story is sure to appeal to historians of literature culture and communication to linguists and book historians and to general readers interested in how ideas about English developed in the early United States and throughout the English speaking world Playful Letters Erika Mary Boeckeler,2017-11 Alphabetic letters are ubiquitous multivalent and largely ignored Playful Letters reveals their important cultural contributions through Alphabetics a new interpretive model for understanding artistic production that attends to the signifying interplay of the graphemic phonemic lexical and material capacities of letters A key period for examining this interplay is the century and a half after the invention of printing with its unique media ecology of print manuscript sound and image Drawing on Shakespeare anthropomorphic typography figured letters and Cyrillic pedagogy and politics this book explores the ways in which alphabetic thinking and writing inform literature and the visual arts and it develops reading strategies for the letterature that underwrites such cultural production Playful Letters begins with early modern engagements with the alphabet and the human body an intersection where letterature emerges with startling force The linking of letters and typography with bodies produced a new kind of literacy In turn educational habits that shaped letter learning and writing permeated the interrelated practices of typography orthography and poetry These mutually informing processes render visible the persistent crumbling of words into letters and their reconstitution into narrative poetry and image In addition to providing a rich history of literary and artistic alphabetic interrogation in early modern Western Europe and Russia Playful Letters contributes to the continuous story of how people use new technologies and media to reflect on older forms including the alphabet itself
