M. Thomas,tavis d. jules,Michele Schweisfurth,Robin Shields,2025-03-27 This handbook provides an overview of research concepts methodologies approaches and methods used regularly in the field of comparative and international education As an interdisciplinary field CIE does not espouse a singular or consistent research method Instead researchers generally utilize or are inspired by approaches from a wide range of disciplines including economics anthropology sociology political science philosophy and more Given this diversity this book helps readers understand the unique ways researchers employ method in comparative and international education The handbook includes contributions from leading researchers based in Australia Japan Norway Spain the UK the USA etc and each chapter includes a practical research example focused on a common topic throughout the book. It includes four sections covering core concepts, methodology, approaches and methods, and analysis, with chapters as diverse as autoethnography, Indigenous approaches, international large scale assessments, and social network analysis among others. The book is a partner volume to the Bloomsbury Handbook of Theory in Comparative and International Education. The Practice of Health Program Evaluation David Grembowski, 2015-09-16. Reflecting the latest developments in the field, The Practice of Health Program Evaluation Second Edition provides readers with effective methods for evaluating health programs, policies, and health care systems, offering expert guidance for collaborating with stakeholders involved in the process. Author David Grembowski explores evaluation as a three act play. Act I shows evaluators how to work with decision makers and other groups to identify the questions they want answered. Act II covers selecting appropriate evaluation designs and methods to answer the questions and reveal insights about the program's impacts, cost effectiveness, and implementation, and Act III discusses making use of the findings. Packed with relevant examples and detailed explanations, the book offers a step by step approach that fully prepares readers to apply research methods in the practice of health program evaluation.

Complementary Research Methods for Educational Leadership and Policy Studies Chad R. Lochmiller, 2018-08-30. This edited volume brings together leading scholars from the fields of educational leadership and policy studies to discuss qualitative, quantitative, and mixed research methods in an accessible and pedagogically well designed volume. Authors discuss ways in which various research methodologies and methods can productively be brought together to expand our current understanding of leadership issues and the contemporary policy context that surrounds them. Chapters provide both practical recommendations for using the methods discussed, as well as suggestions for further reading. Handbook of Education Policy Research Lora Cohen-Vogel, Peter Youngs, Janelle Scott, 2025-08-15. The second edition of the Handbook of Education Policy Research, the largest volume published in AERA's history, addresses a variety of policy and contextual issues in early childhood, K-12, and postsecondary education that have received extensive empirical attention during the past 15 years. With the pandemic and social turmoil as a backdrop, the editors build on the breadth and depth of the first edition while expanding the scope of the project to include subjects, methods, theories, and analyses that have contributed powerfully to the study of education policy and politics in the 2010s and 2020s. The field has become more comprehensive and inclusive, and the authors represent a diversity of racial, ethnic, and gender identities and intellectual and disciplinary orientations. Most chapters come from multiple authors, reflecting the multi-sourced development of research in education policy since the first volume was published. This compilation consists of 70 chapters and nine commentaries that map past, present, and future directions of the field and richly attend to critical issues of interest to students, researchers, policy makers, and practitioners.

Social Experiments in Practice: The What, Why, When,

Where, and How of Experimental Design and Analysis Laura R. Peck, 2017-01-10 This issue considers social experiments in practice and how recent advances improve their value and potential applications Although controversial it is clear they are here to stay and are in fact increasing With their greater abundance experimental evaluations have stretched to address more diverse policy questions no longer simply providing a treatment control contrast but adding multiarm multistage and multidimensional factorial designs and analytic extensions to expose more about what works best for whom Social experiments are also putting programs under the microscope when they are most ready for testing enhancing the policy value of their findings This volume provides new developments in all these areas from scholars instrumental to recent scientific advances In some instances established ideas are given new attention connecting them to new opportunities to learn and inform policy By all means this issue aims to encourage stronger and more informative social experiments in the future This is the 152nd issue in the New Directions for Evaluation series from Jossey Bass It is an official publication of the American Evaluation Association Methodological Advances and Issues in Studying College Impact Nicholas A. Bowman, Serge Herzog, 2014-12-04 Which curricular and cocurricular practices promote student learning and persistence While most research and assessment on college student outcomes offers limited insight into causal effects this volume provides strong evidence of the impact of college on students The first section discusses statistical analyses that offer more accurate estimates of the causal effect of a particular student experience such as receiving a need based scholarship or using academic support services Providing an overview of the analytical framework it also includes real world examples to illustrate implementation for institutional researchers The second section includes original research to enhance the value of student surveys including aspects of questionnaire design and techniques to cope with item nonresponse variation in respondent effort interpretation of student self reported gains and practical insights to improve survey based research This is the 161st volume of this Jossey Bass quarterly report series Timely and comprehensive New Directions for Institutional Research provides planners and administrators in all types of academic institutions with guidelines in such areas as resource coordination information analysis program evaluation and institutional management Evaluating the Effectiveness of Correctional Education Lois M. Davis, Robert Bozick, Jennifer L. Steele, Jessica Saunders, Jeremy N. V. Miles, 2013-08-21 After conducting a comprehensive literature search the authors undertook a meta analysis to examine the association between correctional education and reductions in recidivism improvements in employment after release from prison and other outcomes The study finds that receiving correctional education while incarcerated reduces inmates risk of recidivating and may improve their odds of obtaining employment after release from prison Sustaining Early Childhood Learning Gains Arthur J. Reynolds, Judy A. Temple, 2019-01-10 Leading scholars synthesize knowledge on how gains from early childhood programs and practices are initiated increased and sustained Achieving Inclusive Education in the Caribbean and Beyond Stacey N. J. Blackman, Dennis A. Conrad, Launcelot I. Brown, 2019-05-28 This book offers an international perspective of philosophical conceptual and praxis oriented issues that impinge on achieving education for all students It sheds light on the historical systemic structural organizational and attitudinal barriers that continue to be antithetical to the philosophy and practice of inclusive education within the Caribbean The first section of the book examines how globalized views of inclusion informed by philosophical ideas from the North have influenced and continue to influence the equity in education agenda in the region The second section considers how exclusion and marginalization still occur across selected Caribbean islands It provides both quantitative and qualitative data about the nature and experience of exclusion in selected Caribbean islands the UK and USA The third section tackles the practical realities of transforming education systems in the Caribbean for inclusion In particular it identifies teacher practices as the mainsite of interrogation that needs to be tackled if inclusion is to be successful The fourth and final section examines the contribution of principals and exemplars to the development and advocacy for inclusive education It discusses how educational leadership is understood as well as the role of school principals in making inclusion a reality in schools the challenges experienced and the qualities of education leaders
