Nisa The Life And Words Of A Kung Woman:

Nisa Marjorie Shostak,2014-01-21 Married at twelve then separated divorced and widowed Nisa is the mother of four children none of whom survived She is strong capable of foraging on her own in one of the world s most hostile environments not dependent on any man for her daily sustenance and ready to talk to anyone as her equal Wise full of humour at the absurdities of life and courageous in the face of its defeats she is bawdy practical and incurably romantic She is a woman of the Khung people who live by means of humanity s oldest survival strategy gathering and hunting This book is the remarkable story of Nisa s life told in her own words to Marjorie Shostak It is a story full of echoes from a female past that we can never know directly But it is also Nisa s unique story her own voice her own dignity In anyone s culture she is a remarkable woman

Nisa Marjorie Shostak,2015-10-29 Married at twelve then separated divorced and widowed Nisa is the mother of four children none of whom survived She is strong capable of foraging on her own in one of the world s most hostile environments not dependent on any man for her daily sustenance and ready to talk to anyone as her equal Wise full of humour at the absurdities of life and courageous in the face of its defeats she is bawdy practical and incurably romantic She is a woman of the Khung people who live by means of humanity s oldest survival strategy gathering and hunting This book is the remarkable story of Nisa s life told in her own words to Marjorie Shostak It is a story full of echoes from a female past that we can never know directly But it is also Nisa s unique story her own voice her own dignity In anyone s culture she is a remarkable woman

Nisa Marjorie Shostak,1981-10-30 This is the story of the life of Nisa a member of the Kung tribe of hunter gatherers from southern Africa s Kalahari desert Told in her own words earthy emotional vivid to an anthropologist who succeeded with Nisa s collaboration in breaking through the barriers of language and culture the story is a fascinating view of a remarkable woman

Return to Nisa Marjorie Shostak,2009-06-01 The story of two women one a hunter gatherer in Botswana the other an ailing American anthropologist this powerful book returns the reader to territory that Marjorie Shostak wrote of so poignantly in the now classic Nisa The Life and Words of a Kung Woman Here however the ground has perceptibly shifted First published in 1981 Nisa served as a stirring introduction to anthropology s most basic question Can there be true understanding between people of profoundly different cultures Diagnosed with breast cancer and troubled by a sense of work yet unfinished Shostak returned to Botswana in 1989 This book tells simply and directly of her rediscovery of the Kung people she had come to know years before the aging blunt demanding Nisa her stalwart husband Bo understanding Kxoma fragile Hwantla and Royal translator and guide In Shostak s words we clearly see Kung life the dry grasslands the healing dances the threatening military presence And we see Shostak herself passionately curious reporting the discomforts and confusion of fieldwork along with its fascination By turns amused and frustrated she describes the disappointments and chastening lessons that inevitably follow when anthropologists like her younger self romanticize the Kung Throughout we observe a woman of threatened health but enormous vitality as she pursues the promise she once discovered in the Kung people and above all in Nisa At the core of the book is the remarkable relationship between these two women from different worlds They are often caught off guard by the limits of their mutual understanding Still their determination to reach out to each other lingers in the reader s mind long after the story ends providing an eloquent response to questions that Nisa so memorably posed It was not that we had become the best of friends or like close family It was simply that she and I had the most straightforward connection I had ever had with anyone before or since It was as if the Kung culture and my talks with Nisa touched something beyond reason in me Even though I didn t necessarily like everything Nisa said nor everything about her my heart had been captured But how often I wished Nisa had been more noble more selfless and more philosophical Nisa had to be known well to be appreciated for she was complex and difficult She probably would say much the same about me We both wanted things from each other and neither of us got as much as we hoped for That we both got some of what we wanted well that made our friendship extremely valuable from the Epilogue

The Chicago Guide to Collaborative Ethnography Luke E. Lassiter,2005-09-15 Collaboration between ethnographers and subjects has long been a product of the close intimate relationships that define ethnographic research But increasingly collaboration is no longer viewed as merely a consequence of fieldwork instead collaboration now preconditions and shapes research design as well as its dissemination As a result ethnographic subjects are shifting from being informants to being consultants The emergence of collaborative ethnography highlights this relationship between consultant and ethnographer moving it to center stage as a calculated part not only of fieldwork but also of the writing process itself The Chicago Guide to Collaborative Ethnography presents a historical theoretical and practice oriented road map for this shift from incidental collaboration to a more conscious and explicit collaborative strategy Luke Eric Lassiter charts the history of collaborative ethnography from its earliest implementation to its contemporary emergence in fields such as feminism humanistic anthropology and critical ethnography On this historical and theoretical base Lassiter outlines concrete steps for achieving a more deliberate and overt collaborative practice throughout the processes of fieldwork and writing As a participatory action situated in the ethical commitments between ethnographers and consultants and focused on the co construction of texts collaborative ethnography argues Lassiter is among the most powerful ways to press ethnographic fieldwork and writing into the service of an applied and public scholarship A comprehensive and highly accessible handbook for ethnographers of all stripes The Chicago Guide to Collaborative Ethnography will become a fixture in the development of a critical practice of anthropology invaluable to both undergraduates graduate students and faculty alike Musicology and Difference Ruth A.

Courtyards, Markets, City Streets Kathleen Sheldon,2018-03-08 Although women have long been active residents in African cities explorations of their contributions have been marginal This volume brings women into the center of the urban landscape using case studies to illustrate their contributions to family community work and political life The book begins with a rich introduction that discusses how women s work in trade and agriculture has been the foundation of African urbanization The contributors then focus on patterns of migration and urbanization with an emphasis on the personal and social issues that influence the decision to migrate from rural areas women s employment in varied activities from selling crafts to managing small businesses the sometimes unavoidable practice of prostitution when options are limited the emergence of complex new family formations deriving from access to courts and the continued strength of polygyny and women s participation in community and political activities The volume includes material from all regions of sub Saharan Africa and brings together scholars from all the social sciences

Loneliness John T Cacioppo,William Patrick,2009-07-28 A pioneering neuroscientist reveals the reasons for chronic loneliness which he defines an unrecognized syndrome and brings it out of the shadow of its cousin depression 12 illustrations The Female King of Colonial Nigeria Nwando Achebe,2011-02-21 While providing critical perspectives on women gender sex and sexuality and the colonial encounter she considers how it was possible for this woman to take on the office and responsibilities of a traditionally male role The Dynamic Dance Barbara J. KING,Barbara J King,2009-06-30 Mother and infant negotiate over food two high status males jockey for power female kin band together to get their way It happens among humans and it happens among our closest living relatives in the animal kingdom the great apes of Africa In this eye opening book we see precisely how such events unfold in chimpanzees bonobos and gorillas through a spontaneous mutually choreographed dance of actions gestures and vocalizations in which social partners create meaning and come to understand each other Using dynamic systems theory an approach employed to study human communication Barbara King is able to demonstrate the genuine complexity of apes social communication and the extent to which their interactions generate meaning As King describes apes create meaning primarily through their body movements and go well beyond conveying messages about food mating or predators Readers come to know the captive apes she has observed and others across Africa as well and to understand the process of creating social meaning This new perspective not only acquaints us with our closest living relatives but informs us about a possible pathway for the evolution of language in our own species King s theory challenges the popular idea that human language is instinctive with rules and abilities hardwired into our brains Rather The Dynamic Dance suggests language has its roots in the gestural building up of meaning that was present in the ancestor we shared with the great apes and that we continue to practice to this day African Traditional Religion in South Africa David Chidester,Chirevo Kwenda,Robert Petty,Judy Tobler,Darrel Wratten,1997-08-07 In a changing South Africa recovering the meaning and power of African tradition is a matter of crucial importance This work participates in that recovery by providing a comprehensive guide to research on the indigenous religious heritage of this dynamic country Detailed reviews of over 600 books articles and theses are offered along with introductory essays and detailed annotations that define the field of study This work plus two forthcoming volumes Christianity in South Africa An Annotated Bibliography and Islam Hinduism and Judaism in South Africa An Annotated Bibliography will become the standard reference work on South African religions Scholars and students in Religious Studies Social Anthropology History and African Studies will find this set particularly useful This work organizes and annotates all the relevant literature on Khoisan Xhosa Zulu Sotho Tswana Swazi Tsonga and Venda traditions The annotations are concise yet detailed essays written in an engaging and accessible style and supported by an exhaustive index which comprise a full and complex profile of African traditional religion in South Africa The Tangled Wing Melvin Konner,2003-02 A vital updating of a seminal work of science First published to great acclaim twenty years ago The Tangled Wing has become required reading for anyone interested in the biological roots of human behavior Since then revolutions have taken place in genetics molecular biology and neuroscience All of these innovations have been brought into account in this greatly expanded edition of a book originally called an overwhelming achievement by The Times Literary Supplement A masterful synthesis of biology psychology anthropology and philosophy The Tangled Wing reveals human identity and activity to be an intricately woven fabric of innumerable factors Melvin Konner s sensitive and straightforward discussion ranges across topics such as the roots of aggression the basis of attachment and desire the differences between the sexes and the foundations of mental illness

Rebels From the Mud Houses George Kunnath,2017-07-14 This book examines Dalit mobilization and the transformation of rural power relations in the context of intense agrarian violence involving Maoist guerrillas and upper caste militias backed by state forces in Bihar in the 1980s The book investigates why thousands of Dalits took up arms and highlights the specificities of Dalit participation in the Maoist Movement and develops an anthropology of the Maoist Revolution in India Please note Taylor Francis does not sell or distribute the Hardback in India Pakistan Nepal Bhutan Bangladesh and Sri Lanka

Handbook of Autobiography / Autofiction Martina Wagner-Egelhaaf,2019-01-29 Autobiographical writings have been a major cultural genre from antiquity to the present time General questions of the literary as e g the relation between literature and reality truth and fiction the dependency of author narrator and figure or issues of individual and cultural styles etc can be studied preeminently in the autobiographical genre Yet the tradition of life writing has in the course of literary history developed manifold types and forms Especially in the globalized age where the media and other technological cultural factors contribute to a rapid transformation of lifestyles autobiographical writing has maintained even enhanced its popularity and importance By conceiving autobiography in a wide sense that includes memoirs diaries self portraits and autofiction as well as media transformations of the genre this three volume handbook offers a comprehensive survey of theoretical approaches systematic aspects and historical developments in an international and interdisciplinary perspective While autobiography is usually considered to be a European tradition special emphasis is placed on the modes of self representation in non Western cultures and on inter and transcultural perspectives of the genre The individual contributions are closely interconnected by a system of cross references The handbook addresses scholars of cultural and literary studies students as well as non academic readers Encyclopedia of Life Writing Margareta Jolly,2013-12-04 First published in 2001 This is the first substantial reference work in English on the various forms that constitute life writing As this term suggests the Encyclopedia explores not only autobiography and biography proper but also letters diaries memoirs family histories case histories and other ways in which individual lives have been recorded and structured It includes entries on genres and subgenres national and regional traditions from around the world and important auto biographical writers as well as articles on related areas such as oral history anthropology testimonies and the representation of life stories in non verbal art forms The Moral Lives of Animals Dale Peterson,2011-03-15 Wild elephants walking along a trail stop and spontaneously try to protect and assist a weak and dying fellow elephant Laboratory rats finding other rats caged nearby in distressing circumstances proceed to rescue them A chimpanzee in a zoo loses his own life trying to save an unrelated infant who has fallen into a watery moat The examples above and many others argues Dale Peterson show that our fellow creatures have powerful impulses toward cooperation generosity and fairness Yet it is commonly held that we Homo sapiens are the only animals with a moral sense that we are somehow above and apart from our fellow creatures This rigorous and stimulating book challenges that notion and it shows the profound connections the moral continuum that link humans to many other species Peterson shows how much animal behavior follows principles embodied in humanity s ancient moral codes from the Ten Commandments to the New Testament Understanding the moral lives of animals offers new insight into our own
