The Monthly Musical Record ,1889      The Musical Times ,1907      Pavane Pour Une Infante Defunte Maurice Ravel,2004-10 Ravel composed the original piano version of this piece in 1899 after resuming his studies at the Paris Conservatory It was published the next year and became an overnight success Despite some self criticism of his youthful work for being poor in form Ravel thought well enough of it to prepare an orchestral version in late 1910 which was given its premiere under the baton of Henry Wood at the Manchester Gentlemen s Concerts on 27 February 1911 This newly engraved critical edition will be appreciated by Ravel fans students and conductors everywhere With the demise of the publisher E F Kalmus the only authorized source for this edition is Serenissima Music where the large score and orchestra parts are now available      Catalogue of the Universal Circulating Musical Library Scheurmann, G., firm, music publishers, London,1855

Beethoven's Dedications Artur Pereira,2020-12-30 The dedication of a piece of music is a feature generally overlooked but it can reveal a great deal about the work the composer the society and the music world in which the composer lived This book explores the musical biographical and sociological aspects of the practice of dedicating new compositions in the late 18th and early 19th centuries and makes a significant contribution towards a better understanding of the impact these tributes had on Beethoven s life and work and their function within the context of the musical cultural and economic environments in which they appeared As the first of its kind this study demonstrates that as a result of their different functions published dedications and handwritten inscriptions are distinct from one another and for that reason they have been classified in different categories This book therefore challenges the idea of what exactly can be termed as a dedication a concept which extends far beyond the dedication of musical works      Catalogue of Augener & Co's.
