Inquiring Into the Common Core Nancy Fichtman Dana, Jamey Bolton Burns, Rachel Wolkenhauer, 2013-06-25 Common Core implementation begins with asking the right questions While the Common Core couldn't be clearer about what to teach they never quite tackle how to teach That's what makes Inquiring into the Common Core such an essential resource It offers teachers an inquiry based professional development model for achieving greater understanding of the standards themselves then determining best ways to realize desired outcomes Posing questions to stimulate action and higher level insight teachers and students engage in a parallel process in service of the very same Common Core goals The book is their guide providing Tools to systematically study teaching effectiveness while adapting to new standards Classroom ready student inquiry techniques and strategies to apply within Common Core's framework Real life inquiry implementation examples from a high need high poverty school

Resources in Education, 1984 Cedar Bay Cogeneration Facility Construction and Operation, Duval County, 1993 The Challenges of School District Leadership Daniel L. Duke, 2010-07-01 Despite the rising interest in school districts there are relatively few comprehensive resources available for graduate students in educational leadership programs The Challenges of School District Leadership takes the position that the best way to prepare the next generation of school district leaders is to make certain that they are prepared to address the unending challenges that characterize public education today Drawing on the latest research as well as actual examples the book spotlights ten of the perennial challenges facing superintendents and school boards Among the challenges discussed in detail are balancing equity and excellence accommodating demographic change coping with the increasing politicization of district leadership deciding how to organize or reorganize a school system and meeting the demands of educational accountability This text is appropriate for graduate students in educational leadership education policy and the politics of education as well as school district leaders
