Painted Sun Womens West :

The Women's West Susan Armitage, Elizabeth Jameson, 1987 Uses selections from diaries public records letters interviews and fiction to describe the experiences of women in the West including Indians servants waitresses prostitutes and farmers African Spirituality in Black Women's Fiction Elizabeth J. West, 2012-12-07 African Spirituality in Black Women's Fiction traces the beginnings and transformations of African spirituality in African American women's literature and culminates with an examination of its return to center stage in the fiction of black Renaissance writers Nella Larsen and Women Artists of the American West Susan R. Ressler, 2003 Profiles more than 150 women artists of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries from the American West offers fifteen interpretive essays and includes nearly three hundred reproductions of their works Women and Ledger Art Richard Pearce, 2013-06-13 Ledger art has traditionally been created by men to recount the lives of male warriors on the Plains During the past forty years this form has been adopted by Native female artists who are turning previously untold stories of women's lifestyles and achievements into ledger style pictures While there has been a resurgence of interest in ledger art little has been written about these women ledger artists Women and Ledger Art calls attention to the extraordinary achievements of these strong women who have chosen to express themselves through ledger art Author Richard Pearce foregrounds these contributions by focusing on four contemporary women ledger artists Sharron Ahtone Harjo Kiowa Colleen Cutschall Oglala Lakota Linda Haukaas Sicangu Lakota and Dolores Purdy Corcoran Caddo Pearce spent six years in continual communication with the women learning about their work and their lives Women and Ledger Art examines the artists and explains how they expanded Plains Indian history With 46 stunning images of works in various mediums from traditional forms on recovered ledger pages to simulated quillwork and sculpture Women in Ledger Art reflects the new life these women have brought to an important transcultural form of expression Japan Report, 1972 Poetry as Power Liuxi Meng, 2007-01-01 In this thought provoking analysis Liuxi Meng profiles eighteenth century poet Qu Bingyun and her development as an artist By giving special attention to her dynamic interaction with contemporaries Meng provides an extensive and detailed picture of the female writer's life and art in the golden age of Chinese women's literature Western Himalayan Folk Arts Omacanda Hãṇḍã, 2006 Study on the folk arts of Himachal Pradesh Jammu and Kashmir and Uttaranchal The Portable Western Reader Various, 1997-07-01 The American West is as varied in its inhabitants as in its landforms Yet what has come to stand for Western writing is the myth of the wagon train and the lone gunman In the Portable Western Reader William Kittredge has assembled stories poems essays and excerpts that transcend the Western myth and explore the vast range of Western experience With selections from more than seventy authors and an introduction and headnotes by William Kittredge The Portable Western Reader redefines the Western literary landscape Writings by Western Icelandic Women, 1997-01-10 There are two Icelands One is the island in the North Sea occupied since before the arrival of the Vikings The other is Western Iceland the communities throughout North America settled by Icelandic immigrants in the 19th and 20th centuries and still maintaining strong ties to their mother country While the prominent role of women in the development of Western Iceland has long been acknowledged there is little recognition of their contribution to its literary life This collection of short stories and poems spans 75 years of writings It includes translated work by little known authors such as Undina a modest poet as well as works in English by prominent writers such as Laura Goodman Salverson twice a winner of the Governor General s Award From the hopefulness of the early immigration in the 1870s to the conflict of assimilation in the 1950s the pieces reflect a range of experiences common to immigrant women from many cultures Writings by Western Icelandic Women includes many works translated for the first time from their original Icelandic and rescues from obscurity the voices and experiences of women as they struggled in a new country It offers insight into the many obstacles both personal and professional that faced these pioneering writers An introduction by Kirsten Wolf provides a literary and historical context and is complemented by photographs and brief author biographies

Women Adventurers, 1750-1900 Mary F. McVicker, 2015-05-07 The past quarter century has seen a number of biographies and anthologies on women travelers but to date there has been little comprehensive reference work done on the travelers themselves Some of the women were eccentric many were very adventurous some were in search of a different world British women make up the largest portion of the book s focus these particular adventurers being backed in many cases by family money scientific inquiry and the ready availability of the British seafaring tradition Entries include the woman s family background her educational history and a summary of her world travels with in many cases evocative extracts from their writings many are literary gems

Painting the Maple Veronica Jane Strong-Boag, 1998 Painting the Maple explores the critical interplay of race and gender in shaping Canadian culture history politics and healthcare These interdisciplinary essays draw on feminist postcolonial and critical theory in a wide ranging discussion that encompasses both high and popular forms of culture the deliberation of policy and its execution and social movements as well as individual authors and texts The contributors who come from many fields establish connections among discourses of race gender and nation building that have conditioned the formation of Canada for more than one hundred years They analyze ways in which these elements have participated in and contributed to exclusionary practices and policies such as marginalization of women and racialized groups Together their essays paint a picture of a nation that privileges whiteness masculinity and Christianity This book gathers many insights on the construction of Canada hitherto scattered in the literature It will be of interest to feminist scholars and others concerned with issues of race and gender At times provocative Painting the Maple illuminates the challenges that lie ahead for all Canadians who aspire to create a better future in a reimagined nation
