Reconnecting the Church J. Timothy Kauffman, 2010-07-23 Reconnecting the Church is offered as a practical guide to assist pastors and laypeople in understanding the city engaging and serving the local community in which the church is located The book's purpose is to come along side the local church that wishes to reconnect to its local community and offer practical ways to accomplish that task There are 25 chapters each of which describes briefly an aspect of life in the city At the end of each chapter are practical action reflection projects These projects are designed to give the reader first hand experience of their church's immediate neighborhood They are specific tasks most of which will be done outside the church Each action is described and guidance is given for reflection after each project

The Story of Latino Protestants in the United States Juan Francisco Martinez, 2018-01-30 The first major historical overview of one of America's most vibrant Christian movements This groundbreaking book by Juan Francisco Martinez provides a broad historical overview of Latino Protestantism in the United States from the early nineteenth century to the present Beginning with a description of the diverse Latino Protestant community and a summary of his own historiographical approach Martinez then examines six major periods in the history of American Latino Protestantism paying special attention to key social political and religious issues including immigration policies migration patterns enculturation and assimilation and others that framed its development and diversification during each period He concludes by outlining the challenges currently facing Latino Protestants in the United States and considering what Latino Protestantism might look like in the future Offering vital insights into key leaders eras and trends in Latino Protestantism Mart nez s work will prove an invaluable resource for all who are seeking to understand this rapidly growing US demographic Follow the New Way Melissa May Borja,2023-02-21 When the US government resettled thousands of Hmong in 1975 the work was done by Christian organizations deputized by the state Exploring the resiliency of tradition amid shaky US commitments to pluralism and secularism Melissa May Borja shows how Hmong Americans developed a new way that blended Christianity with their longstanding practices Faithful Generations Russell Jeung,2005 With rich description and insightful interviews Russell Jeung uncovers why and how Chinese and Japanese American Christians are building new pan Asian organizations Detailed surveys of over fifty Chinese and Japanese American congregations in the San Francisco Bay area show how symbolic racial identities structure Asian American congregations Evangelical ministers differ from mainline Christian ministers in their construction of Asian American identity Mobilizing around these distinct identities evangelicals and mainline Christians have developed unique pan Asian styles of worship ministries and church activities Portraits of two churches further illustrate how symbolic racial identities affect congregational life and ministries The book concludes with a look at Asian American led multiethnic churches Religion and Politics in America Michael Cromartie,2005-03-25 As religiously grounded moral arguments have become ever more influential factors in the national debate particularly reinforced by recent presidential elections and the creation of the faith based initiative office in the White House journalists ignorance about theological convictions has often worked to distort the public discourse on important policy issues Pope John Paul II s pronouncements on stem cell research the constitutional controversies regarding faith based initiatives the emerging participation of Muslims in American life issues like these require political journalists in print and broadcast media to cover religious contexts that many admit they are ill equipped to understand Put differently these news events reflect subtle theological nuances and deep faith commitments that shape the activities of religious believers in the public square Inasmuch as a faith tradition is an active or significant participant in the public arena journalists will need to better understand the theological sources and religious convictions that motivate this political activity The current national discourse has brought faith and its relationship to public policy to the forefront of our daily news Since 1999 the Ethics and Public Policy Center through the generosity of the Pew Charitable Trusts has hosted six conferences for national journalists to help raise the level of their reporting by increasing their understanding of religion religious communities and the religious convictions that inform the political activity of devout believers This book contains the presentations and conversations that grew out of those conferences Religious and Theological Abstracts ,2003 Global Voices on Biblical Equality Aída Besançon Spencer,William David

Spencer, Mimi Haddad, 2008-08-18 Global Voices on Biblical Equality is a fresh look at the contextualizing of gender equality throughout the world. Biblical equality is a burgeoning global reform movement led by scholars and leaders not only in North America but also on every continental landmass in the world. What inroads is biblical equality making around the globe? What is its appeal? What still needs reform? How is biblical equality transforming each culture? In this book, female and male writers who are ethnically part of every continent explore the contextual challenges, successes, and adaptations of engaging the biblical text on gender and ministry. The contributors write on Asia and Asian America, India, China, Korean America, Africa, Zimbabwe, and African America, Indigenous America, and Latin America, Native America, Hispanic America, Brazilian America, and Western Europe and Australia and North America. The editors and authors are Aida Besancon Spencer, William David Spencer, Ranked Adjunct, and Mimi Haddad. Other contributors are Ellen Alexander Beulah Wood, Cecilia Yau, Matthew D. Kim, Constantine M. Murefu, Darin Vincent Poullard, Sandra Gatlin, Whitley Awilda Gonzalez Tejera, John Runyon, and Eliana Marques Runyon. Elke Werner, Roland Werner, Kevin Giles, and Roberta Hestenes. South-Pacific Journal of Mission Studies, 2003. Reconstructing Church Todd Grant Yonkman, 2014-08-06. The general decline of American mainline Protestant churches today is well documented. Church redevelopment, imagining and actualizing new life for dying churches, is a productive and vital response to congregational decline, but it can be daunting. Here is a guidebook for church leaders to help them reinvigorate their churches with both practical advice and tested theory. A comprehensive case study of Beneficent Congregational Church, which successfully turned the tide and quadrupled its worship attendance, provides inspiration as well as concrete strategies for church redevelopment. The study indicates that successful and faithful church redevelopment involves a shift from a modern patronage ministry model to a postmodern plural ministry model. Building on current church redevelopment literature by bringing selected Biblical and theological texts into conversation with leadership concepts, systems theory, social sciences, and congregational studies, this book creates a multidisciplinary transformative conversation. The result is both strategic proposals for growing your church and a model for doing practical theology in your own ministry context. Dedicated, trained leadership in cooperation with the power of the Spirit can create the possibility of new life in dying congregations. The Future of the Global Church Patrick Johnstone, 2011-11-01. Where are we headed? In The Future of the Global Church, Patrick Johnstone, author of six editions of the phenomenal prayer guide Operation World, draws on his fifty years' experience to challenge us with his bold vision of the global Christian church. The Future of the Global Church weaves together the strands of history, demographics, and religion to present a breath-taking, full-colour graphical and textual overview of the past, present, and possible future of the Church around the world. Through a thought-provoking glimpse into likely scenarios, humankind may face in the next 40 years, The Future of the Global Church identifies significant trends that are rarely or never addressed by today's media. The Future of the Global Church highlights the impact of evangelical Christianity over the past two centuries as well as the astonishing growth of Evangelicalism over the past half century.

Johnstone focuses clearly on the unfinished task of world evangelization with a special emphasis on the worlds 12 000 people groups especially those that have had least exposure to the Gospel Finally Johnstone hones in on the role of the local church in tackling the unfinished task of world evangelization especially that of reaching the worlds least evangelized peoples with the Gospel Inside this work you will find Data and extrapolations that highlight likely scenarios for evangelical Christian ministry in the coming four decades Interpreted overviews of the worldwide impact of the first 20 centuries of Christianity Comparisons of the impact of Christianity with those of the other world religions Summaries of the past present and probable future contributions of the different streams of Christianity This book examines trends that will have a major impact on the course of world events for a generation to come God is in controlHe holds the future in His handsyet invites us to be His co workers How effective are you and your church or your organization as participants in His plan for the peoples of the world

Pentecostal Preaching and Ministry in Multicultural and Post-Christian Canada Steven M.

Studebaker,2019-11-07 Over the past forty years Canada has become an increasingly secular multicultural and religiously plural society Indeed the church in Canada and Pentecostals in particular face a challenging context for responding to the call to bear witness to Christ in the power of the Holy Spirit Like the disciples on the day of Pentecost however we need the Holy Spirit to come upon us and liberate us from our post Christian pessimism We need the Holy Spirit to enable us to proclaim the gospel to the nations people that are no longer at the ends of the earth but making their home in Canada This book engages this new context and considers and proposes ways that pentecostal Christians and churches can respond to the challenges of the increasingly post Christian multicultural secular and religiously plural context of Canadian society
