Ministry In The New Marriage Culture:

Ministry in the New Marriage Culture Jeff Iorg, 2015-10-01 Same sex marriage is here So what do pastors and church leaders do now Churches are now faced with ministry dilemmas unknown to any previous generation Hoping the problem goes away isn't a reasonable strategy Christians must answer difficult questions about ministering both to couples in same sex marriages and all the people impacted by those unions Jeff Iorg a seminary president and experienced pastor has assembled some of the leading voices on a range of topics from children's ministry to preaching to legal issues in the new marriage culture Readers will be equipped perhaps for the first time with practical answers to some of these complex questions

Polygamy in the Law of Moses Ryan Stephens, 2024-05-15 Polygamy in the Law of Moses argues that the Mosaic Law provides implicit support for polygamy as a licit practice in the Old Testament period This assertion is contrary to the claims of a number of contemporary influential scholars This book examines six key texts Exodus 21 7 11 Leviticus 18 18 Deuteronomy 17 17 21 15 17 22 23 29 and 25 5 10 Each of these key texts are contested by various scholars regarding their implications for understanding polygamy in the Hebrew Bible Ryan J Stephens provides an examination of each of these key texts as well as a critical interaction with and evaluation of counter claims made by scholars Stephens provides clarity to the discussion of polygamy in the Hebrew Bible in support of the view that polygamy was a licit practice in the Old Testament period

Edification-Journal of the Society of Christian Psychology Todd H. Speidell, 2010-01-20 THE RAY S ANDERSON COLLECTION by WIPF STOCK PUBLISHERS Ray Sherman Anderson 1925 2009 worked the soil and tended the animals of a South Dakota farm planted and pastored a church in Southern California and completed a PhD degree in theology with Thomas F Torrance in New College Edinburgh He began his professional teaching career at Westmont College and then taught and served in various administrative capacities at Fuller Theological Seminary for thirty three years retiring as Professor Emeritus of Theology and Ministry While teaching at Fuller he served as a parish pastor always insisting that theology and ministry go hand in hand The pastoral theologian who began his teaching career in middle age penned twenty seven books Like Karl Barth Prof Anderson articulated a theology of and for the church based on God's own ministry of revelation and reconciliation in the world As professor and pastor he modeled an incarnational evangelical passion for the healing of humanity by Jesus Christ who is both God's self revelation to us and the reconciliation of our broken humanity to the triune God His gift of relating suffering and alienated humans to Christ existing as community Dietrich Bonhoeffer is a recurrent motif throughout his life ministry and works The Ray S Anderson Collection comprises books by Ray Anderson an introductory text to his theology by Christian D Kettler two edited volumes that celebrate his distinguished academic career incarnational ministr The Presence of Christ in Church Society and Family and On Being Christian and Human and a reprint of an Edification volume that focuses on Ray Anderson's contributions to the field of Christian Psychology A word of gratitude is due to The Society of Christian Psychology and its parent organization The American Association for Christian Counselors for their permission to make the E ification issue available in book form Jim Tedrick of Wipf and Stock Publishers deserves a special word of thanks for publishing many of Ray Anderson s books and commissioning this collection of works to continue his legacy Todd H Speidell General Editor

Idealism and Christian Philosophy Steven B. Cowan,James S. Spiegel,2016-02-25 When it comes to contemporary philosophical problems metaphysical idealism or Berkeleian immaterialism is not taken seriously by most philosophers not to mention the typical Christian layperson This state of affairs deserves some attempt at rectification since Idealism has considerable explanatory power as a metaphysical thesis and provides numerous practical and theoretical benefits Such thinkers as George Berkeley and Jonathan Edwards believed that Idealism is especially amenable to a Christian perspective both because it provides a plausible way of conceptualizing the world from a theistic standpoint and because it effectively addresses skeptical challenges to the Christian faith The contributors to this volume explore a variety of ways in which the case can be made for this claim including potential solutions to philosophical problems related to the nature of time the ontology of physical objects the mind body problem and the nature of science

Fully Human in Christ Todd H. Speidell,2016-11-08 Thomas F Torrance s theology included a thoroughgoing albeit implicit ethic of reconciliation It focused on the personalizing and humanizing mediation of Christ in all realms of life including not only a supposed private dimension of human life but also the social historical and political structures of human society and even of the cosmos itself This book builds upon that vision of a Christian ethic radically rooted in God s grace which encompasses sustains and transforms the entire human and created order A trinitarian incarnational social ethic does not begin with our human causes projects and agendas however noble they might be but with witness to the reconciling person and work of Jesus Christ for us

Ministering to Families in Crisis Jennifer S. Ripley,James N. Sells,Diane J. Chandler,2024-10-22 When people encounter a crisis they often turn to ministry leaders who may feel unprepared to guide them In this tool kit for pastors Christian leaders with unique expertise provide evidence based insights and practical suggestions on challenges affecting marriages children and teens equipping ministers to help families find hope

Divorce and Democracy Saumya Saxena,2022-08-25 This book demonstrates that family law arguably the most visible sphere of such contestation emerged as a particularly hospitable arena for conversations between religious and legal regimes to institute the normative framework that could govern the domestic lives of citizens The work illustrates how the codification of religious personal laws permitted the Indian state to enter into an intimate dialogue with citizens largely mediated through religion Thus through this process the state also secured monopoly over determining what constituted religion as well as the right to determine the validity and scope of religious practices This book therefore suggests that religious personal law played a key role in determining the legal place for religion in India s secular democracy The controversy on the issue of personal law has contributed to a unique evolution of both the rule of law and the doctrine of secularism in twentieth century India By tracing the response of legislature the courts and civil society movements to the question of cultural rights and notions of abstract citizenship this book exhibits how the translation of marriage and divorce laws of Hindu Muslim and Christian communities into statutes introduced new questions on the tenuous links between the law and the sacred as well as on the problematic rhetoric of the reformatory potential of law The New New Zealand

William Edward Moneyhun, 2020-01-09 Today's New Zealand is an emerging paradigm for successful cultural relations. Although the nation's Maori indigenous Polynesian and Pakeha colonial European populations of the 19th century were dramatically different and often at odds they are today co-contributors to a vibrant society. For more than a century they have been working out the kind of nation that engenders respect and well-being and their interaction though often riddled with confrontation is finally bearing bicultural fruit. By their model the encounter of diverse cultures does not require the surrender of one to the other rather it entails each expanding its own cultural categories in the light of the other. The time is ripe to explore modern New Zealand's cultural dynamics for what we can learn about getting along. The present anthropological work focuses on religion and related symbols forms of reciprocity the operation of power and the concept of culture in modern New Zealand society Christianity, Colonization, and Gender Relations in North Sumatra Sita T. van Bemmelen, 2017-11-20 In this book Sita van Bemmelen offers an account of changes in Toba Batak society Sumatra Indonesia due to Christianity and Dutch colonial rule 1861-1942 with a focus on customs and customary law related to the life cycle and gender relations. The first part a historical ethnography describes them as they existed at the onset of colonial rule. The second part zooms in on the negotiations between the Toba Batak elite the missionaries of the German Rhenish Mission and colonial administrators about these customs showing the evolving views on desirable modernity of each contestant. The pillars of the Toba patrilineal kinship system were challenged but alterations changed the way it was reproduced and gender relations for ever Only Love Can Make It Easy Bill Coleman, Patty Coleman, 1997 This marriage preparation program has been newly updated to reflect contemporary challenges that couples face in developing a healthy loving relationship

The Bridegroom Messiah Colin Hamer, 2019-02-19 The cross is love's greatest story. Colin Hamer introduces the Bridegroom Messiah and highlights the four reasons why he had to die from the perspective of the Bible's marital imagery. The Bridegroom Messiah died: 1 To transform the elect into a virgin bride by cleansing her with his blood to circumvent the Deuteronomy 24 marriage law 2 So he as high priest could take a virgin bride 3 To pay the mohar 4 To cleanse us from sin so that we could come back into God's presence after the expulsion from Eden. David Instone-Brewer of Tyndale House Cambridge calls Hamer's treatment of marital imagery a significant contribution without precedent in the literature.

Clergy Moms Allison M. Moore, 2008 Walking the tightrope of home and parish life for clergy parents is notoriously difficult in all the mainline Protestant denominations but most books on ordination and vocation ignore the question of family life. The ordination of women the prevalence of two-career marriages the increasing need to care for aging family members and the recognition of non-traditional families have shed new light on clergy family dynamics within the family and the church This book uses accounts of experiences gathered through interviews and surveys of clergy and their family members primarily in the Episcopal Diocese of Newark Its ultimate goal is to develop a holistic theology of vocation that has implications for the church the clergy and all families and nourishes and protects faith and family life Deconstructing Sacramental Theology and Reconstructing Catholic Ritual Joseph Martos,2015-05-12 Catholic sacramental doctrine has lost much of its credibility Baptized people leave the church adolescents stop attending shortly after they are confirmed supposedly indissoluble marriages regularly dissolve few go to confession and many do not believe in transubstantiation Drawing upon his decades long study of the sacraments Martos reveals how teachings that seemed rooted in the scriptures and Catholic life have become unmoored from the contexts in which they arose and why seemingly eternal truths are actually historically relative After carefully constructing Catholic teaching from the church s own documents he deconstructs it by demonstrating how biblical passages were misconstrued by patristic authors and how patristic writings were misunderstood by medieval scholastics The long process of misinterpretation culminated in the dogmatic pronouncements of the Council of Trent which continues to dominate Catholic thinking about the church s religious ceremonies If the sacraments are released from their dogmatic baggage Martos believes that the spiritual realities they symbolize can be celebrated in any human culture without being tied to their traditional rites T&T Clark Handbook of Thomas F. Torrance Paul D. Molnar,Myk Habets,2020-02-20 This handbook explores Thomas F Torrance s importance in modern theology with each contribution bringing Torrance s deep and nuanced insights to a broad range of contemporary theological concerns The contributors to this volume present cutting edge Torrance scholarship for a new generation which will enable readers to see the timely significance of Torrance for today Comprising both contexts and dogmatics these essays not only introduce key themes in Torrance s extensive published writings including his work on the Trinity ecumenism incarnation atonement and eschatology but also provide fresh interpretations fully conversant with theological problems facing the church in the world today Designed as both a guide for students and a reference point for scholars this handbook thoroughly explores the frameworks of key debates related to Torrance s theology while also suggesting fresh interpretative strategies concerning his thought The 2008 Report: Bay Area Chinese Churches Research Project, Phase II Timothy Tseng,James Chuck,2009 The 2008 report of the San Francisco Bay Area Chinese churches project edited by James Chuck and Timothy Tseng Contains updated profiles of Chinese congregations in the Bay Area and essays by Dean Adachi Ken Carlson Johnson Chiu Virstan Choy James Chuck Russell Jeung Ricky Manalo Donald Ng Victor Quan Steve Quen Chloe Sun and Timothy Tseng and Russell Yee Culture and Customs of Norway Margaret Hayford O'Leary,2010-09-16 This thorough introduction to modern day Norway and Norwegian culture shows the impact a small country can have on the world in terms of peace building environmental issues technological innovation and more Culture and Customs of Norway provides an up to date view of Norway showcasing a nation that is part of modern Europe yet zealously maintains its own culture and identity Providing the most current information on a broad range of topics including cinema literature food art performing arts and architecture the book also places modern day Norway in a historical context that makes it possible to understand how Norwegian culture came to be as it is today Readers will discover a nation that is a fascinating juxtaposition of advanced technology especially in such fields as oil production and climate and some of the most spectacular natural beauty in the world They will read about such famous writers artists and composers as Henrik Ibsen Edvard Munch and Edvard Grieg And they will discover how Norway confronts the challenges of modern society without sacrificing its social democratic philosophy of social justice and shared responsibility both at home and globally

The Japan Magazine ,1922 Christian Education Robert E. Clark,Lin Johnson,Allyn K. Sloat,1991-10-22 Whether in the home or in the church or in a Christian school the challenge of contemporary Christian educators is to meet the academic needs of students while remaining unswerving in adherence to biblical principles Christian Education Foundations for the Future introduces you to the basics of a healthy Christian education program then takes you beyond showing you how to develop a fresh innovative Christian education program that will revitalize your church home or school

Something Old, Something New Ray S. Anderson,2007-05-15 No one has contributed more substantially to creative orthodox Christian thinking about human nature pastoral theology and counseling over the past 30 years than Ray Anderson His latest book is most welcomed particularly given its focus on the family a pivotal cultural institution of obvious developmental importance which radical postmodernism has attempted to radically redefine but which always warrants a fresh practical Christian approach and critique Eric L Johnson Southern Baptist Theological Seminary Combining the wisdom accumulated in his years as a seminary professor and scholar pastor and counselor Ray Anderson has given us an outstanding book on marriage and family ministry in contemporary culture Even more than this it is the best statement I know of on a theology of the family including the place of family in the church and wider society Hard issues in family life such as violence and abuse homosexuality care for the elderly and death are addressed with a combination of biblical truth and grace Something Old Something New is must reading for all persons involved in ministry today Jack Balwick Fuller Graduate School of Psychology For a Church often despairing of biblically based resources in ministering to the family in our postmodern culture Ray Anderson s twenty fifth book focuses on recovering a theology of the family His seminal volume written with Dennis Guernsey On Being Family Toward a Social Theology of the Family 1985 virtually created the new genre of the theology of the family In Something Old Something New Marriage and Family Ministry in a Postmodern Culture we find the fruit of Anderson s mature reflections that will give hope and guidance to the Church of the twenty first century He discusses marriage and parenting divorce and remarriage singleness and cohabitation and other issues within the diversity and relativity characterized by our postmodern context His decades of experience as a seminary professor and church pastor enable him to articulate a theology of family ministry that offers concrete help for families churches and pastors based on the healing ministry of Christ in today s society Chris Kettler Friends University and Todd

Speidell Webb School of Knoxville RAY S ANDERSON 1925 2009 was Senior Professor of Theology and Ministry at Fuller Theological Seminary where he has taught for more than thirty years He is the author of more than twenty five books including The Seasons of Hope Marriage and Family Ministry in a Postmodern Culture The Soul of Ministry Ministry on the Fireline and The Shape of Practical Theology Kenya National Assembly Official Record (Hansard) ,1991-10-01 The official records of the proceedings of the Legislative Council of the Colony and Protectorate of Kenya the House of Representatives of the Government of Kenya and the National Assembly of the Republic of Kenya
