Misericordia Spanish Benito Perez Galdos:

Misericordia Benito Pérez Galdós, 1976      The Jew in the Novels of Benito Perez Galdos Sara E. Schyfter, 1978 A study of Galdós Jewish characters and what they tell us about the place of Jews in 19th Spanish society and culture Few Spanish novelists have dealt with the problem of religion and religious commitment more comprehensively than Benito Pérez Galdós His lifelong preoccupation with man in search of transcendence repeatedly led him to evaluate and criticize the religious institutions that stifled rather than helped man in his search In the Jews Galdós saw a people who though victimized by religious intolerance managed to survive persecution and affirm an abiding faith in God He created Jewish characters throughout his long literary career and therefore presents the most comprehensive portrait of Jews as they existed in the culture the religion and fabric of 19th Spanish society      Misericordia Benito Pérez Galdós, 1928      A Companion to Spanish Environmental Cultural Studies Luis I. Pradanos, 2023 An exploration of how writers artists and filmmakers expose the costs and contest the assumptions of the Capitalocene era that guides readers through the rapidly developing field of Spanish environmental cultural studies From the scars left by Franco's dams and mines to the toxic waste dumped in Equatorial Guinea from the cruelty of the modern pork industry to the ravages of mass tourism in the Balearic Islands this book delves into the power relations material practices and social imaginaries underpinning the global economic system to uncover its unaffordable human and non human costs Guiding the reader through the rapidly emerging field of Spanish environmental cultural studies with chapters on such topics as extractivism animal studies food studies ecofeminism decoloniality critical race studies tourism and waste studies an international team of US and European scholars show how Spanish writers artists and filmmakers have illuminated and contested the growth oriented and neo colonialist assumptions of the current Capitalocene era Focussed on Spain the volume also provides models for exploring the socioecological implications of cultural manifestations in other parts of the world CONTRIBUTORS Eugenia Afinogu nova Samuel Amago Daniel Ares López Kata Beilin John Beusterien Miguel Caballero Vázquez Jorge Catal Glen S Close Jeffrey K Coleman Jamie de Moya Cotter Ana Fernández Cebrión Ofelia Ferrer Tatjana Gajic Pedro García Caro Santiago Gorostiza Germán Labrador Martínez Maryanne Leone Shanna Lino Jorge Marjos Manuel Marrero Henríquez María Antonia Martínez Escayol Christine Martínez Cristina Martínez Tejero Micah McKay Pamela Phillips Merc Picornell Luis Pradanos Chile Stehrenberger John H Trevathan Joaquín Valdivielso William Viestenz Maite Zubiaurre      Literature and Money, 2023-12-18 At a time when the dull rationality of the money calculus seems to be making ground in every sphere it is perhaps opportune to reopen the question of literature and its relations with a rationality defined according to the logic of economic exchange what kinds of value flow from such a rationality and what possibilities of resistance are there if we happen not to like the model and its more rebarbative ideological implications Historically attempts to reduce the richness of human exchange to utilitarian or economic paradigms have met with counter cultural expressions of dissent and defiance And yet the search for an authentic community outside the reifications and repressions of economic exchange presents its own ambiguities and pitfalls since the attempt to ground value in other spheres can function ideologically to secure and legitimize the very values it seeks to oppose This is especially true in literature and other expressions of high culture where mobilizations of the aesthetic or the textual as a site of resistance to economic hegemony are frequently recuperated in advance by the dominant discourse The essays collected here tend then to explore in various ways not only the ideological implications of literary or more broadly cultural representations or constructions of economic exchange but also the often complex mediations that such constructions enter into with different kinds of oppositional discourse

Imagined Truths Mary Coffey, Margot Versteeg, 2019-05-19 Imagined Truths provides a twenty first century analysis of stylistic and philosophical manifestations of nineteenth and twentieth century Spanish literary realism Bringing together the work of the foremost specialists in the field of contemporary Spanish letters this collection offers new approaches to literary and cultural criticism and reveals how Spanish realism far from imitative of other European movements engaged in complex and modern concepts of representation and mimesis Imagined Truths acknowledges the critical importance of women writers and contemporary approaches to questions of gender The essays address the impact of economics on our perceptions of reality and our constructions of everyday life and they argue for the importance of emotions in the social construction of individual identity Most importantly the essays acknowledge the post imperial turn in literary studies Addressing a broad range of authors works and topics including the continued relevance of Cervantes s Don Quijote and the way Spanish realism moved beyond narrative to inhabit the spaces of both theatre and film Imagined Truths comprises a series of meditations on new ways of understanding the unique place of realism in Spanish cultural history Offering insights for specialists in a wide range of disciplines literature cultural studies gender studies history philosophy this collection is equally important for readers just becoming acquainted with realist narrative as a central component of Spanish literary history

The Palgrave Handbook of Literature and the City Jeremy Tambling, 2017-02-17 This book is about the impact of literature upon cities world wide and cities upon literature It examines why the city matters so much to contemporary critical theory and why it has inspired so many forms of writing which have attempted to deal with its challenges to think about it and to represent it Gathering together 40 contributors who look at different modes of writing and film making in throughout the world this handbook asks how the modern city has engendered so much theoretical consideration and looks at cities and their literature from China to Peru from New York to Paris from London to Kinshasa It looks at some of the ways in which modern cities whether capitals shanty towns industrial or rust belt have forced themselves on people's ways of thinking and writing

Documents of Modern Literary Realism George Joseph Becker, 2015-12-08 Using selections by American British French German Russian Scandinavian Spanish Portuguese and South American critics and authors Professor Becker illustrates how realism arose as a reaction to romanticism and how the practitioners of realism developed conflicting ideas about the means they should use and the ends toward which they should strive The selections are concerned mainly with prose since according to the author prose fiction has been the major vehicle of realism Originally published in 1963 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905

Halma by Benito Pérez Galdós Robert S. Rudder, 2015-02-05 Galdós's early writings were inspired by the French writer Émile Zola a practitioner of the literary school of Naturalism This interest then turned to a type of spiritual naturalism under the influence of Russian writers including Tolstoy Dostoevsky and Turgenev whom he called his great teacher One of his most important works during this period was the novel Nazarín a kind of retelling of the life of Christ in which the main character a disgraced priest wanders about the countryside with two female companions attempting to follow the teachings of the Bible to the letter He is taken for either a saint or a mad man and at the end is shut up in an institution The publication of Nazarín was followed by its sequel Halma only six months later In this novel the protagonist an aristocratic lady named Halma after suffering great hardships decides to use her inheritance to found an idyllic Christian society harboring the needy and the sick Two of its citizens will be the priest Nazarín and one of his two women followers another will be Halma's never-do-well male cousin Urrea Her family and their friends express admiration for her high ideals but they also believe she may be just as mad as the priest and work to defeat her A fortunate denouement comes only after the unforeseen intervention of the supposedly mad priest Halma also has many points of contact with the motion picture Viridiana by Spain's great director Luis Buñuel In this film a religious novice Viridiana attempts to turn a farm into a shelter for needy beggars During her absence however the beggars wreck the house in a drunken orgy While not sharing Buñuel's artistic vision Galdós nevertheless expresses his own ideas with great imagination
