Miss Pettigrew Lives For A Day:

Miss Pettigrew Lives for a Day Winifred Watson, 2008 A governess is sent by an employment agency to the wrong address where she encounters a glamorous night club singer Miss LaFosse Miss Pettigrew Lives for a Day Simon Beaufoy, David Magee, 2008 Miss Pettigrew Lives for a Day ... Illustrated by Mary Thomson Winifred Watson, 1938 Interwar Women's Comic Fiction Nicola Darwood, Nick Turner, 2020-01-10 This collection of essays examines the work of five intermodernist writers Some were established authors before the First World War and others continued to write after the Second World War but this book focuses particularly on their writing between 1918 and 1939 Elizabeth von Arnim Stella Benson Bradda Field Ivy Compton Burnett Stella Gibbons and Winifred Watson had much in common they all wrote novels full of comic moments which often challenged the cultural politics of the interwar period Drawing on the literary and critical contexts of each novel the essays here discuss the use of comic structures that enabled the authors to critique the dominant patriarchal structures of their time and offer an alternative sometimes subversive view of the world in which their characters reside This book contributes to the growing scholarly interest in interwar fiction focusing principally on novelists who have fallen out of public view It widens our understanding both of the authors and of the continuing highly topical debate about interwar women novelists A Year of Movies Ivan Walters, 2015-11-12 While watching a movie how many viewers notice some of the finer details of the film such as the time of day during a scene or even the date itself For instance does anyone remember what day detention is served by the high schoolers in The Breakfast Club or can guess when aliens first make their presence known in Independence Day And perhaps only history buffs or fanatics of Leonardo DiCaprio can cite the exact date the Titanic sunk In A Year of Movies 365 Films to Watch on the Date They Happened Ivan Walters provides a selection for every day on the calendar in which at least some of the events in the film take place For some films the entire drama occurs on a very specific day For other films such as The Right Stuff the date in question is represented in a key scene or two or even for just a few pivotal seconds Certain films to be sure are obvious candidates for inclusion in this book What other movie would make sense to watch on February 2nd than Groundhog Day Is there a more appropriate film to consider for June 6th than The Longest Day Representing a variety of genres from comedies and dramas to westerns and film noir these films offer fans a unique viewing opportunity While helping viewers decide what to watch on a given day this book will also introduce readers to films they may not have otherwise considered Aimed at film buffs and casual viewers alike A Year of Movies is also an ideal resource for librarians who want to offer creative programming for their patrons The Art of Comforting Val Walker, 2010-10-28 We live in an increasingly virtual world in which it can be tempting to skip making that true human connection with someone in pain Even though our thoughts might be with them we lack the confidence to reach out worrying that we will say or do the wrong thing In this practical step by step guide to what she calls the art of comforting Val Walker draws on numerous interviews with Master Comforters to guide readers in gently and gracefully breaking through the walls that those who are suffering often erect around themselves Interviewees include inspiring individuals such as Alicia Rasin who as a victim s advocate for the city of Richmond Virginia has devoted her life to comforting grieving families devastated by homicide gang violence and other traumatic experiences or Patricia Ellen who as a grief counselor and outreach director at the Center for Grieving Children in Portland Maine appears on site to support and comfort children staff and parents when a school is facing a death violence or other crises All of us will at one time or the other be called upon to offer warmth and support to another human being who is suffering this book will show you how to answer the call with an open heart

Domestic Modernism, the Interwar Novel, and E.H. Young Chiara Briganti,Kathy Mezei,2016-12-05 Domestic Modernism the Interwar Novel and E H Young provides a valuable analytical model for reading a large body of modernist works by women who have suffered not only from a lack of critical attention but from the assumption that experimental modernist techniques are the only expression of the modern In the process of documenting the publication and reception history of E H Young s novels the authors suggest a paradigm for analyzing the situation of women writers during the interwar years Their discussion of Young in the context of both canonical and noncanonical writers challenges the generic label and literary status of the domestic novel as well as facile assumptions about popular and middlebrow fiction canon formation aesthetic value and modernity The authors also make a significant contribution to discussions of the everyday and to the burgeoning field of homeculture as they show that the fictional embodiment and inscription of home by writers such as Young Virginia Woolf Elizabeth Bowen Ivy Compton Burnett Lettice Cooper E M Delafield Stella Gibbons Storm Jameson and E Arnot Robertson epitomize the long standing symbiosis between architecture and literature or more specifically between the house and the novel
