The SAGE Handbook of Geographical Knowledge John A Agnew, David N Livingstone, 2011-03-04 Broad in scope and edited by two massive names in geography this is a critical exploration of how the field has emerged and fared over the course of its modern institutionalization Empires of Religion H. Carey, 2008-11-13 A sparkling new collection on religion and imperialism covering Ireland and Britain Australia Canada the Cape Colony and New Zealand Botswana and Madagascar Bursting with accounts of lively characters and incidents from around the British world this collection is essential reading for all students of religious and imperial history

The Oxford Handbook of Mission Studies Kirsteen Kim, Knud Jørgensen, Alison Fitchett-Climenhaga, 2022-04-18 The Oxford Handbook of Mission Studies represents more than a century of scholarship related to the theology history and methodology of the propagation of Christian faith and the engagement of Christians with cultures religions and societies worldwide It contains more than 40 articles by experts from different disciplinary and ecclesial perspectives who are from all continents It not only offers a broad overview of key approaches and issues in mission studies but it also highlights current trends and suggests future developments The Handbook builds on renewed interest in mission studies this century generated by recent key statements on mission from ecumenical evangelical Catholic and Orthodox sources and by a spate of academic works on the topic Western church leaders now apply insights from foreign missions such as inculturation liberation interfaith work and power encounter to today's multicultural societies Meanwhile there are new initiatives in mission from the Majority World where most Christians live so that sending is not only from the west to the rest but from everywhere to everywhere Therefore this volume aims to reflect the voices of the receivers of mission as well as its protagonists and to raise awareness of new movements In a time of growing recognition of religions more generally this work examines and theorizes the missional dimensions of the world's largest religion its agendas growth outreach role in public life effect on cultures relevance for development and its approaches to other communities Indigenous Evangelists and Questions of

Authority in the British Empire 1750-1940, 2015-08-25 This is the first full length historical study of indigenous evangelists across a range of societies geographical regions and colonial regimes and the first to focus on the complex issues of authority surrounding the evangelists It answers a need frequently voiced in recent studies of Christian missions Most scholars now acknowledge that the remarkable expansion of Christianity in Africa Asia and the Pacific in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries owed far more to the efforts of indigenous preachers than to the foreign missionaries who loom so large in publications This book addresses that concern making an excellent introduction to the role of indigenous evangelists in the spread of Christianity and the many countervailing pressures with which these individuals had to contend It also includes in the introductory discussions useful statements of the current state of scholarship and theoretical debates in this field The Making of Manhood among Swedish Missionaries in China and Mongolia, c.1890-c.1914 Erik Sidenvall, 2009-05-15 Over the last thirty years issues of gender have been creatively explored within the field of mission studies Whereas the life and work of female missionaries have been fruitfully reflected upon male gender identity has often been understood as an unchanging category This book offers a pioneering account of the relationship between missionary work and masculinity By examining four individual men this study explores how self making occurred within foreign missions but also how conceptions of male gender informed missionary work Changes that occurred in the lives of these men are placed within the broader context of how issues of gender were renegotiated within the contemporary missionary movement Arctic Circles and Imperial Knowledge Annaliese Jacobs Claydon, 2023-12-28 In 1845 an expedition led by Sir John Franklin vanished in the Canadian Arctic The enduring obsession with the Franklin mystery and in particular Inuit information about its fate is partly due to the ways in which information was circulated in these imperial spaces This book examines how the Franklins and other explorer families engaged in science exploration and the exchange of information in the early to mid 19th century It follows the Franklins from the Arctic to Van Diemen's Land charting how they worked with intermediaries imperial humanitarians and scientists and shows how they used these experiences to claim a moral right to information Arctic Circles and Imperial Knowledge shows how the indigenous peoples translators fur traders whalers convicts and sailors who explorer families relied upon for information were both indispensable and inconvenient to the Franklins It reveals a deep entanglement of polar expedition with British imperialism and shows how geographical knowledge intertwined with convict policy humanitarianism genocide and authority In these imperial spaces families such as the Franklins negotiated their tenuous authority over knowledge to engage with the politics of truth and question the credibility and trustworthiness of those they sought to silence Missionary Education Kim Christiaens, Idesbald Goddeeris, Pieter Verstraete, 2021 Missionaries have been subject to academic and societal debate Some scholars highlight their contribution to the spread of modernity and development among local societies whereas others question their motives and emphasise their inseparable connection with colonialism In this volume fifteen authors from both Europe and the Global South address these often polemical positions by focusing on education one of the most prominent fields in which missionaries have been active They elaborate on Protestantism as well as Catholicism work with cases from the 18th to the 21st century and cover different colonial empires in Asia and Africa The volume introduces new angles such as gender the agency of the local population and the perspective of the child Evangelicals Mark A. Noll, David W. Bebbington, George M. Marsden, 2019-11-25 The past present and future of a movement in crisis What exactly do we mean when we say evangelical How should we understand this many sided world religious phenomenon How do recent American politics change that understanding Three scholars have been vital to our understanding of evangelicalism for the last forty years Mark Noll whose Scandal of the Evangelical Mind identified an earlier crisis point for American evangelicals David Bebbington whose Bebbington Quadrilateral remains the standard characterization of evangelicals used worldwide and George Marsden author of the groundbreaking Fundamentalism and American Culture The Shaping of Twentieth Century Evangelicalism Now in Evangelicals they combine key earlier material concerning the history of evangelicalism with their own new contributions about present controversies and also with fresh insights from other scholars The result begins as a survey of how evangelicalism has been evaluated but then leads into a discussion of the movement's perils and promise today Evangelicals provides an illuminating look at who evangelicals are how evangelicalism has changed over time and how evangelicalism continues to develop in sometimes surprising ways

Colonial Justice and Decolonization in the High Court of Tanzania, 1920-1971 Ellen R. Feingold, 2018-02-09 This book is the first study of the development and decolonization of a British colonial high court in Africa It traces the history of the High Court of Tanzania from its establishment in 1920 to the end of its institutional process of decolonization in 1971 This process involved disentangling the High Court from colonial state structures and imperial systems that were built on racial inequality while simultaneously increasing the independence of the judiciary and application of British judicial principles Feingold weaves together the rich history of the Court with a discussion of its judges both as members of the British Colonial Legal Service and as individuals to explore the impacts and intersections of imperial policies national politics and individual initiative Colonial Justice and Decolonization in the High Court of Tanzania is a powerful reminder of the crucial roles played by common law courts in the operation and legitimization of both colonial and post colonial states

Genocide on Settler Frontiers Mohamed Adhikari, 2015-06-01 European colonial conquest included many instances of indigenous peoples being exterminated Cases where invading commercial stock farmers clashed with hunter gatherers were particularly destructive often resulting in a degree of dispossession and slaughter that destroyed the ability of these societies to reproduce themselves The experience of aboriginal peoples in the settler colonies of southern Africa Australia North America and Latin America bears this out The frequency with which encounters of this kind resulted in the annihilation of forager societies raises the question of whether these conflicts were inherently genocidal an issue not yet addressed by scholars in a systematic way

Indian Secularism and Religious Freedom Aruthuckal Varughese John, 2024-11-07 The book intricately examines secularism in India presenting it as a complex tapestry of social struggles which introduces assumptions not shared by traditional Hindu culture These cross pressures influence both societal and legal realms affecting how secularism is implemented The work suggests that these pressures originate from the doctrines that shape India's social fabric and culture It investigates whether secularism inherently assumes specific theological or cultural doctrines thus affecting its cultural manifestation By focusing on the intersection of religious freedom with human rights and legislation concerning the contentious issue of religious conversions the book delves into these complexities The Ghent school attempts to address these tensions by advocating for a Hindu interpretation of religious freedom However acknowledging the truth claims of all religious beliefs offers a better approach to mediating between the constitution and Hindu tradition Additionally it highlights how Christian converts have developed adaptive mechanisms that blend their faith with traditional Hindu culture This synthesis of beliefs and practices or hybrid lifestyles may provide a potential path forward reflecting a response to the experienced cross pressures

Protestant Missions and Local Encounters in the Nineteenth and Twentieth Centuries Hilde Nielssen, Inger Marie Okkenhaug, Karina Hestad-Skeie, 2011-07-27 This book makes visible an important but neglected aspect of Christian missions its transnational character Missionaries considered themselves global actors yet they operated within a variety of nation states The volume demonstrates how processes on a national level are closely linked to larger transnational processes

The Global Pontificate of Pius XII Simon Unger-Alvi, Nina Valbousquet, 2024-08-01 In 2020 the Vatican opened its archives for the pontificate of Pius XII 1939-1958 the pope that led the Catholic Church during WWII the Holocaust and the beginning of the Cold War The Global Pontificate of Pius XII brings together historians who were among the first to consult the previously unseen Vatican materials These long awaited records allow for an expansion of the current historiography beyond the pope's biography Methodologically the volume works to transcend the rigidity of religious history and engage with new approaches in global transnational and postcolonial history to reintroduce questions surrounding religion into modern post-war historiography

Mastering Christianity Travis Glasson, 2012 This book examines how missionaries of the Anglican Church in North America the Caribbean and Africa initially spread a religiously grounded understanding of human diversity that stressed the essential unity of all people but over time developed the idea that slavery and Christianity were entirely compatible and could be mutually beneficial leading the Church to become an institutional opponent of the abolition movement

Encounters in Quest of Christian Womanhood Ulrike Sill, 2010-07-07 Christianity has come to be a religion embraced especially by women and not least in Africa This book provides one of the as yet rare case studies for the early stages of this development how African women on the pre and early colonial Gold Coast Ghana encountered Basel Mission Christianity 1843-1885

Popular interpretations have tended to describe Christianity as either empowering or domesticating African women. Looking at variegated push and pull factors and in its focus on the agency of Ghanaian women, this detailed analysis moves beyond. It situates the quest for Christian womanhood as part of transnational discourses and exchanges as well as local interactions and writes a social history that is at once transnational and transcultural.

The Routledge History of Western Empires

Robert Aldrich, Kirsten McKenzie, 2013-12-04

The Routledge History of Western Empires is an all new volume focusing on the history of Western Empires in a comparative and thematic perspective. Comprising of thirty three original chapters arranged in eight thematic sections, the book explores European overseas expansion from the Age of Discovery to the Age of Decolonisation. Studies by both well known historians and new scholars offer fresh accessible perspectives on a multitude of themes ranging from colonialism in the Arctic to the scramble for the coral sea, from attitudes to the environment in the East Indies to plans for colonial settlement in Australasia. Chapters examine colonial attitudes towards poisonous animals and the history of colonial medicine, evangelisation in Africa and Oceania, colonial recreation in the tropics and the tragedy of the slave trade. The Routledge History of Western Empires ranges over five centuries and crosses continents and oceans, highlighting transnational and cross cultural links in the imperial world and underscoring connections between colonial history and world history. Through lively and engaging case studies, contributors not only weigh in on historiographical debates on themes such as human rights, religion and empire and the taproots of imperialism, but also illustrate the various approaches to the writing of colonial history. A vital contribution to the field.
