By Rev. Albert Barnes. With preface by Rev. E. Henderson. [With the text and with a map.] ,1852 Notes, Explanatory and Practical, on the Book of Revelation Albert Barnes, 1852 Resources in Education ,1998 Woman, Mother, and Bride Felise Tavo, 2007 Over the past fifty years studies pertaining to the reality of the church in the Apocalypse have for the most part tended to be either selective or sketchy in their treatment of the relevant material of the book Yet in all fairness to the seer of Patmos his portrayal of the church as a reality decidedly complex and at once profound can only be attained in a thoroughgoing study of the principal ecclesial narratives of his work so as to allow for that indispensable synoptic overview of such intentionally correlated material Woman Mother and Bride is such a study It re examines the relevant imagery of the Apocalypse but from the perspective of the seer s ecclesial thought world and on the basis of his overriding pastoral concerns for the seven churches without which his work will continue to puzzle and trouble at every page The ensuing outlook on the church is panoramic in its scope yet compelling in its appeal which further goes to confirm the Apocalypse as one of the most significant theological achievements of early Christianity Woman, Thou Art Healed and Whole T. D. Jakes, 2016-05-17 Experience Freedom from the Pain of Your Past Many women are not enjoying an abundant full and satisfying life because they are still imprisoned to the pain of the past It s time to get free and live free In Woman Thou Art Healed and Whole Bishop TD Jakes shares words of encouragement that will heal your soul and liberate your Woman as Prophet in the Home and the World R. Mary Hayden Lemmons, 2016-09-15 This first ever interdisciplinary study of woman as prophet shows that in these troubling times ordinary women especially Christian women need to function as prophets by proclaiming in word and deed the indispensability of lovingly seeking the welfare of others More specifically social science shows that the person centered love prophesied by women prophets is able to meet interpersonal challenges within the home and world while philosophy and theology establish that women are able to excel as prophets due to the virtuous dispositions inculcated by femininity the choice to be caring a God centered spirituality and a pro life humanitarian personalist feminism that welcomes male collaborators Facilitating the ability of Christian women to prophesy love are Baptismal graces Thomistic virtues and a much needed prophetic Marian ecclesiology based on what John Paul II calls the prophetism of femininity These interdisciplinary findings provide an essential resource for educators and students of humanity the theology of women and evangelization These findings emerge first from an investigation into the cognitive and ontological underpinnings of what John Paul II called the feminine genius A second set of findings emerges from exploring the prophetic dimensions of the feminine genius secular feminism s need to adopt the insights of Christianity and the ability of femininity s prophetism to recast both femininity and feminism as Marian prophecies A third set of findings arises from analyzing the spirituality of women prophets within the Christian tradition by considering the conditions necessary for prophesying explicating requisite Thomistic virtues and delving into the spirituality of Hildegard Catherine of Siena Julian of Norwich and Teresa of Avila A fourth set of findings arises from innovative studies of polarization secularization lust romantic love the conditions whereby mothers with careers can flourish and the ability of nuns to combat racism in a small Midwestern town Overall these interdisciplinary investigations explicate the theology of women and show that women who prophesy love either in the order of grace or nature can help heal lives families and culture The Concept of Woman, v3 Allen, 1997 The culmination of a lifetime s scholarly work this pioneering study by Sister Prudence Allen traces the concept of woman in relation to man in Western thought from ancient times to the present Volume I uncovers four general categories of questions asked by philosophers for two thousand years These are the categories of opposites of generation of wisdom and of virtue Sister Prudence Allen traces several recurring strands of sexual and gender identity within this period Ultimately she shows the paradoxical influence of Aristotle on the question of woman and on a philosophical understanding of sexual complementarity Supplemented throughout with helpful charts diagrams and illustrations this volume will be an important resource for scholars and students in the fields of women's studies philosophy history theology literary studies and political science In Volume 2 Sister Prudence Allen explores claims about sex and gender identity in the works of over fifty philosophers both men and women in the late medieval and early Renaissance periods Touching on the thought of every philosopher who considered sex or gender identity between A D 1250 and 1500 The Concept of Woman provides the analytical categories necessary for situating contemporary discussion of women in relation to men Adding to the accessibility of this fine discussion are informative illustrations helpful summary charts and extracts of original source material some not previously available in English In her third and final volume Allen covers the years 1500-2015 continuing her chronological approach to individual authors and also offering systematic arguments to defend certain philosophical positions over against others perspective established in the first part By drawing close to Teresa's life this book enables readers to drink from a spiritual fount that always yields fresh water
