highlight how particular categories have been deployed to make sense of feeling and their evolution over time Geographical perspectives provide access to the historiographies of regions that are less well covered by English language sources opening up global perspectives and new literatures Key thematic sections are designed to intersect with critical historiographies demonstrating the value of an emotions perspective to a range of areas Topical sections direct attention to the role of emotions in relations of power to intimate lives and histories of place as products of exchanges across groups and as deployed by new technologies and medias The concepts of globalisation and modernity run through the volume acting as foils for comparison and analytical tools The Routledge History of Emotions in the Modern World is the perfect resource for all students and scholars interested in the history of emotions across the world from 1700 Knowing Pain Rob

Boddice,2023-05-09 Pain while known to almost everyone is not universal The evidence of our own pain and our own experience does not provide us with automatic insight into the pains of others past or present No matter how self evident and ubiquitous the sting of a paper cut or the desolation of heartbreak might seem pain is situated and historically specific In a work that is sometimes personal always political Rob Boddice reveals a history of pain that juggles many disciplinary approaches and disparate languages to tackle the thorniest challenges in pain research He explores the shifting meaning making processes that produce painful experiences expanding the world of pain to take seriously the relationship between pain s physicality and social and emotional suffering Ranging from antiquity to the present and taking in pain knowledge and pain experiences from around the world his tale encompasses not only injury but also grief exclusion chronic pain and trauma and reveals how knowledge claims about pain occupy what pain is like Innovative and compassionate in equal measure Knowing Pain puts forward an original pain agenda that is essential reading for those interested in the history of emotions senses and experience for medical researchers and practitioners and for anyone who has known pain Pain Jahangir Alam

Akash,2011-01-25 It is now 39 years that Bangladesh is an independent country But the rule of law honest administration and the culture of democracy are still far cry Common people are searching peace Militancy extra judiciary murders maladministration party attribution terror corruption are closing the path of progress Religious and indigenous minority killings oppressions are hindrances to the amity The murders of Journalists are robbing the opportunity of free reporting All these current problems and crisis are well depicted through the pen of Journalist Akash This young writer is a courageous soldier of peace and democracy This book is a reflection of Bangladesh reality The international community will definitely get a transparent picture of Bangladesh in the book Peace people s government real democracy and the rule of law are all golden deer in Bangladesh The religious fanaticism innumerable superstitions lack of education poverty corruption immorality have now strongly established the criminality everywhere Disunity unfairness oppression torture killing murder terror activities of the communal fundamentalists have crashed the people on the ground Muslims Hindus Buddhists Christians live here People of all religions unitedly have fought for the independence of Bangladesh and shed blood With enormous sacrifices under the leadership of Bangabondhu late Sheikh Mujibur Rahman The nation got one nice secular constitution After only 4 years after the independence of Bangladesh father of the nation Sk Mujibar Rahman was killed brutally with most of his family members Through a planned way the following governments of General Ziaur Rahman and General H M Ershad have amended revised and changed many times the original constitution of Bangladesh and have made it almost a farce Islam was declared as the State Religion Although Bangladesh has people from four religions But such a radical change of the former secular Constitution was a heinous dishonour to the holy constitution Through these measures religious fanaticism and communalism were given a state Formulate Contour In the name of Islam the religious fundamental militancy has become now the greatest problem of Bangladesh It is about now about 38 years after the independence but the war criminals of Al badr Al Shams Rajakars and the murderers who were directly related with the genocide during the struggle for independence have not yet been put into the trial The Political Party Jammata e Islam is regularly igniting the fire of communalism in the name of Islam Communal politics is not banned in the country State terror like killings extra judicial are going on without end All devouring corruption is the greatest obstacle for the fulfillment of the basic rights of the people The afflictions of religious minorities are a day to day affair In the society a privileged class is making mountains with money On the other side majority people not less than 95% are becoming poorer everyday Religious minorities and the indigenous people are deprived of constitutional rights Including the father of the nation hundreds of politicians journalists lawyers judges members and common people have been killed Different state controlled armed cadres have created an extreme fearful and inhuman situation by their killings of innocent people tortures and oppressions Within 38 years of independence the country was under the military rulers for long 17 years People were pushed to the dark wild administration and its persecutions Torture murders and planned genocide crime and the incidences of the militancy are never inquired properly and effectively Of course after the event government announces for inquiry and committees are also formed Whoever is the criminal he would be definitely punished such promises are heard from the top label of the government or from the concerned authorities repeatedly with arrogance But they are

Telling Stories of Pain and Hope Mary Elizabeth Lange, Ruth Teer-Tomaselli, 2024-06-07 The histories of South Africa and Ireland have been tumultuous and traumatic Both countries have experienced political repression sectarian violence and oppression that still impact the spiritual well being of people today Their parallel histories are of colonialism displacement and division and a fight for land and sovereignty Both countries have embarked on a process of healing and reconciliation yet there is an ongoing struggle for reparation and or reversal of previous injustices Recognising that museums of the 21st century have the potential to contribute to catharsis and mutual understanding this book reflects on selected museums in South Africa and Ireland that commemorate the pain of the past and the hope for the future The primary focus of the book is the way in which museum guides curators and managers share their stories and the stories of their ancestors and the stories of other people's ancestors who were caught up in the conflict while interweaving the stories of the authors as
