Can the notion of goodness retain meaning in the face of real affliction, or is pain itself in conflict with meaning? Themes covered include philosophy's own failure to treat suffering seriously, with special reference to the Jewish tradition; Martin Buber's celebrated interpretations of scriptural suffering; suffering in Kristeva's psychoanalysis; focusing on the Christian theology of the cross; the pain of childbirth in a home setting as a religiously significant choice; God's primal suffering in the kabbalistic tradition; Incarnation as a gracious willingness to suffer.
