The House of the Singing Winds Rachel Berenson Perry, Selma Neubacher Steele, Theodore L. Steele, Wilbur David Peat, 2016 T. C. Steele's appreciation of nature combined with his intelligence and capacity for concentrated study raised his works to an extraordinary level. This story of his life and work in the late 19th and early 20th centuries is an indispensable chapter in the art and cultural history of Indiana, the Midwest, and the nation. This revised edition of the 1966 classic includes 74 full-color Steele paintings from the Indiana State Museum and Historic Sites, the Indiana University Museum of Art, and private collectors from around the state. These paintings, many of which have never been published, demonstrate the importance of Steele to the art world in his time and in ours.

Forsyth studied at the Royal Academy in Munich, then returned home to paint what he knew best: the Indiana landscape. It proved a rewarding subject. His paintings were exhibited nationally and received major awards. With full-color reproductions of Forsyth's most important paintings and previously unpublished photographs of the artist and his work, this book showcases Forsyth's fearless experiments with artistic styles and subjects. Drawing on his personal letters and other sources, Rachel Berenson Perry discusses Forsyth and his art and offers fascinating insights into his personality, his relationships with his students, and his lifelong devotion to teaching and educating the public about the importance of art.
