Ten African American leaders in the church tell their stories of how they embraced Reformed theology and what effect it has had on their lives and ministries The ten men who have contributed to this book are often asked How did you come to embrace Reformed theology With the recent surge in popularity of Reformed theology in the broader evangelical world and the growing interest among African Americans it shouldn't seem curious that more and more African American churchmen are embracing Reformed theology But the question remains and Glory Road provides an answer using personal accounts tracing their conversion to Christianity their introduction to and embrace of Reformed theology and this theology's effect on their lives and ministries Ultimately Glory Road is about the glory of God in providentially bringing men and women to the truths of salvation In addition to the book's editor Anthony J. Carter Glory Road includes contributions from such notable pastors as Thabiti Anyabwile Ken Jones Michael Leach and Eric Redmond Journey Without a Map Donna Caruso, 2008

Even as generations pass the pride of being Italian is in the genes of those who were raised in Italian immigrant families Caruso's Journey Without A Map appropriately begins with pasta cooking instructions and from that point the aroma of tomatoes olives and red wine are never far from the stories she weaves of herself and the impact of her family Whether making connections between her Uncle Nick's nose and her Roman ancestors or detailing the daily rituals of her shepherdess mother on the Italian hillsides Caruso relays the information in broad colourful strokes that are at once both inviting and humorous With her earliest recollections of her family life in New Jersey her father's grocery store her mother's Catholic admonishments the death of Santa Clause the family habits and the ever present smells from the kitchen brings to us her sense of belonging to a rich heritage But Caruso's journal and journey are not all feel good romanticized Italian immigrant experience There are those reflections on her mother's life that are as beautiful and intense as they are revealing the portraits of her extended family members that stand outside the warmth of family love and the tensions that develop when families are separated by geography and dreams And though the wisdom of her father and mother guides her through her growing years it would have to be their remembered love that guides Caruso through her own darkest hours of breast cancer and family break up As generations of North Americans move farther away from their immigrant experience and origins Caruso s Journey Without A Map conveys that in our increasingly homogenized cultural world what may best nourish us in our needs shape us in our identities and be our strength when we are weakest is our family s heritage and love Hands Janet Zandy,2004 In linking forms of cultural expression to labour occupational injuries and deaths this title centres what is usually decentred the complex culture of working class people Forks in the Road Wes Taylor,2022-02-24 My writings began approximately four years ago after receiving a comprehensive genealogy study on my father s side of the family It prompted many questions about where we came from and how and why we ended up at the tip of Texas Realizing that while the information was complete it was lacking in stories In pursuing more information to fill in some of the gaps I realized that my children had no idea of my life s history including my younger years schooling sports military college and my thirty plus year career My daughter had blessed me with an iPad so I began It is my life story from birth through retirement and the data is factual including the side and supplemental descriptions and stories The youngest of seven children born during the Depression in the Rio Grande Valley of Texas on the Mexican border and my life and experiences growing up there on three separate occasions The forks appearing in my life s road began almost immediately upon graduation from high school when I accepted an athletic scholarship only to drop out during my first semester to join the military before the GI Bill benefits were to expire After my military obligation and college periods were complete I accepted my first position as an entry level accountant with the Bureau of Reclamation in 1961 and proceeded up a career ladder for twelve years before reaching the top rung with an offer to transfer to Denver Colorado as regional finance officer in 1973 Five years later I was asked to assume the first finance officer position with the newly created agency under the Department of Energy of the Western Area Power Administration In 1980 I was approached to return to Reclamation as a finance officer in Salt Lake City which was Reclamation s largest and most active region and had assumed the finance functions for the nation s youth programs as well The final career movement would come only three years later when the regional management received approval to combine the finance and budget functions in a reorganization effort and changing my title and expanded responsibilities to regional financial manager Each of these career movements would provide new and different challenges containing many separate forks in my road I enjoyed them all Meaningful Connections in My Long Journey between a Pine Grove of Songki-ri and the Bank of the Siuslaw River Song-nai Rhee,2023-01-10 This is Song nai Rhee s personal memoirs of an eighty seven year long life between a pine grove of Songki riin Korea and the bank of the Siuslaw River on the West Coast covering his early life during World War II his existential crisis during the Korean War his life transformation from Confucian to Christian coming to America and Northwest Christian College his formal education in America resulting in two bachelors four masters and two PhD degrees thirty seven years of professional service at NCC now Bushnell University as a professor of history Bible and archaeology as well as academic vice president dean and as a father grandfather and writer publisher retiring as a farmer fisherman on the bank of the Siuslaw River Most of all this book is about the people beginning with Bill Peterson in a war zone who helped make all this and Rhee s life possible the meaningful connections
