Clinical Thinking of Wilfred Bion Joan Symington, Neville Symington, 2002-01-31 Winner of the 2013 Sigourney Award
Psychoanalysis seen through Bion's eyes is a radical departure from all conceptualizations which preceded him. In this major contribution to the series Makers of Modern Psychotherapy, Joan and Neville Symington concentrate on understanding Bion's concepts in relation to clinical practice but their book is also accessible to the educated reader who wishes to understand the main contours of Bion's thinking. Rather than following the chronological development of Bion's ideas, each chapter looks in depth at an important theme in his thinking and describes how this contributes to his revolutionary model of the mind.

Thinking with Whitehead and the American Pragmatists Brian G. Henning, William T. Myers, Joseph D. John, 2015-04-16 Despite there being deep lines of convergence between the philosophies of Alfred North Whitehead C S Peirce William James John Dewey and other classical American philosophers it remains an open question whether Whitehead is a pragmatist and conversation between pragmatists and Whitehead scholars have been limited Indeed it is difficult to find an anthology of classical American philosophy that includes Whitehead s writings These camps began separately and so they remain This volume questions the wisdom of that separation exploring their connections both historical and in application The essays in this volume embody original and creative work by leading scholars that not only furthers the understanding of American philosophy but seeks to advance it by working at the intersection of experience and reality to incite novel and creative thought This exploration is long overdue Specific questions that are addressed are Is Whitehead a pragmatist What contrasts and affinities exist between American pragmatism and Whitehead s thought What new questions strategies and critiques emerge by juxtaposing their distinct perspectives

Thinking About Thinking Joan Wynn Reeves, 2015-06-18 Originally published in 1965 this title is a series of exploratory essays on approaches to thinking The central topic is the relation of processes of an associative kind sometimes irrational in so far as they are not enmeshed with a world of shared experience to those involving some degree of reference to a common world and hence forming the basis of constructive critical and logical thought This theme ran through a good deal of psychological controversy at the time It is a very old theme that had been dealt with many times and in many ways in the course of its history One might have chosen to discuss approaches to it other than those considered in the present volume These however were selected for their bearing on one another and because they formed an interesting part of the background to contemporary psychological theory of the time
