The BBC National Short Story Award 2013 Sarah Hall,Lucy Wood,Lisa Blower,Lavinia Greenlaw,Lionel Shriver,2013-12-09 Featuring Lisa Blower Lavinia Greenlaw Sarah Hall Lionel Shriver and Lucy Wood Edgar Allan Poe once claimed the greatest literary works were those that could be read in one sitting Brevity must be in direct ratio of the intensity of the intended effect he argued once the effect has been established of course The stories shortlisted for the BBC National Short Story Award 2013 all use brevity with striking results whether presenting a complex family history through the snapshots of a time honoured annual holiday or using the form of a letter to demonstrate that a life mourned by a solitary woman is worth no less than one mourned by a nation Each story sparks into life instantly and like a struck match leaves a vivid impression of its characters burning on the retina long after the story has concluded The landscapes they play out in also make their mark from the panic stricken streets of New York on 9 11 to the eerie quiet of a wood on the outskirts of a city the haunted corners of an old Cornish house to the rubble of a bombed out office block in a country at war with itself This year s shortlist was drawn up by a panel of judges that included novelists Deborah Moggach Mohsin Hamid and Peter Hobbs as well as BBC Editor of Readings Di Speirs and the broadcaster Mariella Frostrup who chaired the panel and who also introduces the collection Elite and Everyman Amita Baviskar,Raka Ray,2020-11-29 This book examines the middle classes who they are and what they do and their influence in shaping contemporary cultural politics in India Describing the historical emergence of these classes from the colonial period to contemporary times it shows how the middle classes have changed with older groups shifting out and new entrants taking place thereby transforming the character and meanings of the category The essays in this volume observe multiple sites of social action workplaces and homes schools and streets cinema and sex surveys temples and tourist hotels to delineate the lives of the middle classes and show how middle class definitions and desires articulate hegemonic notions of the normal and the normative The Case of the Naughty Wife Malcolm Noble,2010-11-01 The Timberdick Mysteries are a series of murder stories set in the sleazy back streets of a south
