Hobson, Eddie R. Cole, Jim C. Harper, Derrick P. Alridge, 2025-01-10 When Edgar A Love Oscar J Cooper Frank Coleman and Ernest Everett Just founded the historically Black fraternity Omega Psi Phi on November 17 1911 at Howard University they could not have known how great of an impact their organization would have on American life Over the 110 years that followed its members led colleges and universities served in prominent military roles made innumerable contributions to education civic society science and medicine and at least one campaigned for the US presidency This book offers a comprehensive authoritative history of the fraternity emphasizing its vital role through multiple eras of the Black freedom struggle The authors address both the individual work of its membership which has included such figures as Carter G Woodson Bayard Rustin Roy Wilkins James L Farmer Jr Benjamin Elijah Mays James Clyburn Jesse Jackson and Benjamin Crump and the collective efforts of the fraternity's leadership to encourage its general membership to contribute to the struggle in concrete ways over the years The result is a book that uniquely connects the 1910s with the present showing the ongoing power of a Black fraternal organization to channel its members toward social reform Socioeconomic Evaluation of Megaprojects Markku Lehtonen, Pierre-Benoît Joly, Luis Aparicio, 2016-11-22 The governance and evaluation of megaprojects that is large scale complex high stakes infrastructure projects usually commissioned by governments and delivered through partnerships between public and private organisations is receiving increased attention. However, megaproject evaluation has hitherto largely adopted a linear rationalist perspective to explain the frequent failure of such projects to meet the iron triangle of performance criteria: delivering on time, within budget and according to specifications. This approach recommends greater control and accountability to remedy megaproject pathologies. Drawing on empirical examples mainly from the transport sector and radioactive waste disposal, this book offers new perspectives to megaproject evaluation. Comprising contributions from leading experts in project evaluation and appraisal, this collection opens up new avenues by suggesting two ways of improving megaproject evaluation: 1. approaches that go beyond the dominant linear rationalist notion of policy processes and emphasise instead the objective of opening up appraisal processes in order to enhance learning and reflexivity; and 2. approaches that extend evaluative criteria beyond the iron triangle to cover the various socioeconomic impacts and preconditions for project success. This volume will be of great relevance to scholars and practitioners with an interest in megaprojects, energy and climate policy, radioactive waste management, urban design and project planning and management.

Power, Wealth and Global Equity Patrick J. McGowan, Scarlett Cornelissen, Philip Nel, 2007-02. This textbook on power, wealth, global order and international relations is designed for students taking introductory courses in international relations and African studies. Challenging the intellectual domination of the north, this book shows what the world and its patterns of power, wealth and privilege look like from an African perspective of transborder political and economic interaction in today's world. Students are empowered to become active players on the global stage and to contribute to changing these structures and institutions for the better. Up-to-date advice is provided on how to use the Internet and how to pursue careers in international relations. A glossary, list of acronyms, bibliography, index, maps and biographies of important people mentioned in the text are also included.
