On Architecture Collected Reflections On A Century Of Change:

On Architecture Ada Louise Huxtable, 2010-07-15 Known for her well reasoned and passionately held beliefs about architecture Ada Louise Huxtable has captivated readers across the country for decades in the process becoming one of the best known critics in the United States Her brilliance over so many years is unmatched and her range has always been vast from a plea to save a particular architectural treasure to an ongoing discussion about whether modern architecture is dead Her keen eye and vivid writing have reinforced to readers how important architecture is and why it continues to be both controversial and fascinating Since so much of her writing has been in newspapers it has quickly become unavailable to her many fans On Architecture will bring together her best work from the New York Times New York Review of Books her more recent essays in the Wall Street Journal and her various books She is personally selecting and organizing the pieces into sections like Art and Culture and The Art of Architecture and is revising them as needed to bring them up to date Whether you love modern architecture or desire a return to Beaux Arts design this book will give you insight into the mind and heart of a critic who has artfully brought the discussion of architecture architects and our environment to readers for five decades

Reflections on Architecture, Society and Politics Graham Cairns, 2016-10-04 Reflections on Architecture Society and Politics brings together a series of thirteen interview articles by Graham Cairns in collaboration with some of the most prominent polemic thinkers and critical practitioners from the fields of architecture and the social sciences including Noam Chomsky Peggy Deamer Robert A M Stern Daniel Libeskind and Kenneth Frampton Each chapter explores the relationship between architecture and socio political issues through discussion of architectural theories and projects citing specific issues and themes that have led to and will shape the various aspects of the current and future built environment Ranging from Chomsky s examination of the US Mexico border as the architecture of oppression to Robert A M Stern s defence of projects for the Disney corporation and George W Bush this book places politics at the center of issues within contemporary architecture

On Architecture Ada Louise Huxtable, 2008-10-28 A forefront and passionate critic evaluates architecture as a pivotal and controversial component of twentieth century culture in a collection of articles that covers such topics as Le Corbusier s Carpenter Center at Harvard the mid century shifts in style and her selections for best and worst architectural examples 25 000 first printing

Memory and the Built Environment in 20th-Century American Literature Alice Levick, 2021-05-20 From the paving of the Los Angeles River in 1938 and the creation of the G I Bill in 1944 to the construction of the Interstate Highway System during the late 1950s and the brownstoning movement of the 1970s throughout the mid 20th century the United States saw a wave of changes that had an enduring impact on the development of urban spaces Focusing on the relationship between processes of demolition and restoration as they have shaped the modern built environment and the processes by which memory is constructed hidden or remade in the literary text this book explores the ways in which history becomes entangled with the urban space in which it plays out Alice Levick takes stock of this history both in the form of its externalised concretised manifestation and its more symbolic representation as depicted in the mid 20th century work of a selection of American writers Calling upon access to archival material and interviews with New York academics authors local historians and urban planners this book locates Freud's Uncanny in the cracks between the absent and present invisible and visible memory and history as they are presented in city narratives demonstrating both the passage of time and the imposition of 20th century modernism With reference to the works of D J Waldie Joan Didion Hisaye Yamamoto Raymond Chandler Marshall Berman Gil Cuadros Paule Marshall L J Davis and Paula Fox Memory and the Built Environment in 20th Century American Literature unpacks how time becomes visible in Los Angeles Sacramento Lakewood and New York in the decades just before and after the Second World War questioning how these spaces provide access to the past in both narrative and spatial forms and how at times this access is blocked American Arcadia Peter James Holliday, 2016 American Arcadia explores the innumerable ways Californians shaped their visual and social culture using models and ideals from the classical tradition Philip Johnson and His Mischief Christian Bjone, The Images Publishing Group, 2014-04-04 In the world of modern art the idea of appropriation or the conscious manipulation of the recognised world of another artist has long been accepted as a legitimate strategy in criticism of the tradition of art authorship challenging the context of viewing contemporary work and the manipulation of omnipresent media images The world of art itself is fair game to be pillaged or mined in the production of new art but there is almost no recognised equivalent aesthetic in architecture Philip Johnson consistently dealt with the concept of appropriation and used it as a design strategy from the very beginning of his illustrious career A singular taste maker Philip Johnson influenced art architecture and design during the second half of the 20th century Philip Johnson and His Mischief Appropriation in Art and Architecture looks at the concept of appropriation and how Johnson's style was influenced first by his mentor Mies van der Rohe and then by post modern ideas and artists This title serves to review Johnson's body of work and show that far from being a weakness his use of appropriation was a major part of his innovative success The Grove Encyclopedia of American Art Joan M. Marter, 2011 Arranged in alphabetical order these 5 volumes encompass the history of the cultural development of America with over 2300 entries Britannica Book of the Year 2014 Encyclopaedia Britannica, Inc., 2014-03-01 The Britannica Book of the Year 2014 provides a valuable viewpoint of the people and events that shaped the year and serves as a great reference source for the latest news on the ever changing populations governments and economies throughout the world It is an accurate and comprehensive reference that you will reach for again and again

Laughing at Architecture Michela Rosso, 2018-11-29 In a media saturated world humour stands out as a form of social communication that is especially effective in re appropriating and questioning architectural and urban culture Whether illuminating the ambivalences of metropolitan life or exposing the shock of modernisation cartoons caricature and parody have long been potent agents of architectural criticism protest and opposition In a novel contribution to the field of architectural history this book outlines a survey of visual and textual humour as applied to architecture its artefacts and leading professionals Employing a wide variety of visual and literary sources prints the illustrated press advertisements theatrical representations cinema and TV thirteen essays explore an array of historical subjects concerning the critical reception of projects buildings and cities through the means of caricature and parody Subjects range from 1750 to the present and from Europe and the USA to contemporary China From William Hogarth and George Cruikshank to Osbert Lancaster Adolf Loos satire and Saul Steinberg s celebrated cartoons of New York City graphic and descriptive humour is shown to be an enormously fruitful yet largely unexplored terrain of investigation for the architectural and urban historian uncover the evolving theoretical tenets of what constitutes today's architectural profession and the tools that will be required of the future architect This book considers architecture's interdisciplinary nature and addresses its current and evolving perspectives related to social economic environmental technological and globalization trends These challenges are central to the future direction of architecture and as such this Companion will serve as an invaluable reference for undergraduate and postgraduate students existing practitioners and future architects The Four Domains of Mental Illness Rene J.

Muller,2017-12-22 The Four Domains of Mental Illness presents an authentic and valid alternative to the DSM 5 which author Ren J Muller argues has resulted in many patients being incorrectly diagnosed and wrongly medicated Dr Muller points out where the DSM 5 is mistaken and offers a guide to diagnosis based on the psychobiology of psychiatrist Adolf Meyer and the insights of existential philosophy and psychiatry His model identifies the phenomena of the mental illnesses that clinicians most often see which are characterized by identifying their structure or partial structure Using the FDMI approach clinicians can grasp how each mental illness is an aberration of Martin Heidegger's being in the world

Architecture Beyond Criticism Wolfgang F. E. Preiser,Aaron T. Davis,Ashraf M. Salama,Andrea Hardy,2014-11-27 For the first time this book demonstrates that the two paradigms of architectural criticism and performance evaluation can not only co exist but complement each other in the assessment of built works As architecture takes more principled stances worldwide from environmental sustainability to social cultural and economic activism this book examines the roles of perceived and measured quality in architecture By exploring in tandem both subjective traditional architectural criticism and environmental design and performance evaluation and its objective evaluation criteria the book argues that both methodologies and outcomes can achieve a comprehensive assessment of quality in architecture Curated by a global editorial team the book includes Contributions from international architects and critics based in the UK USA Brazil France Qatar Egypt New Zealand China Japan and Germany Global case studies which illustrate both perspectives addressed by the book and comparative analyses of the findings A six part organization which includes introductions and conclusions from the editors to help guide the reader and further illuminate the contributions By presenting a systematic approach to assessing building performance design professionals will learn how to improve building design and performance with major stakeholders in mind especially end users occupants

Frank Lloyd Wright Ada Louise Huxtable,2008-04-29 Pulitzer Prize winning critic Ada Louise Huxtable's biography of America's greatest architect Renowned architecture critic Ada Louise Huxtable's biography Frank Lloyd Wright looks at the architect and the man from his tumultuous personal life to his long career as a master builder Along the way she introduces Wright's masterpieces from the tranquil Fallingwater to Taliesin rebuilt after tragedy and murder not only exploring the mind of the man who drew the blueprints but also delving into the very heart of the medium which he changed forever Rethinking the Meaning of Place Lineu Castello,2016-03-23 The spread of newly invented places such as theme parks shopping malls and revamped historic areas necessitates a redefinition of the concept of place from an architectural perspective In this interdisciplinary work these invented places are categorized according to the different phenomenological experiences they are able to provide The book explores how such cloning spaces use placemaking and placemarketing in attempt to replicate the characteristics found in urban spaces traditionally viewed as successful and how these places can affect society's environmental perception A range of international empirical studies illustrates how such invented places can be perceived as legitimate urban spaces and contribute towards the quality of life in today's cities

A Song to My City Carol Lancaster, Doug Farrar, 2016 This deeply felt memoir is a love letter to Washington DC Lancaster a third generation Washingtonian takes readers on a tour of the capital from its swamp infested beginnings to the present day with an insider's view of the gritty politics environment society culture and larger than life heroes that characterize her beloved hometown

Free as Gods Charles A. Riley, II, 2017-06-06 Among many art music and literature lovers particularly devotees of modernism the expatriate community in France during the Jazz Age represents a remarkable convergence of genius in one place and period one of the most glorious in history Drawn by the presence of such avant garde figures as Joyce and Picasso artists and writers fled the Prohibition in the United States and revolution in Russia to head for the free wheeling scene in Paris where they made contact with rivals collaborators and a sophisticated audience of collectors and patrons The outpouring of boundary pushing novels paintings ballets music and design was so profuse that it belies the brevity of the era 1918-1929 Drawing on unpublished albums drawings paintings and manuscripts Charles A. Riley offers a fresh examination of both canonic and overlooked writers and artists and their works by revealing them in conversation with one another He illuminates social interconnections and artistic collaborations among the most famous Fitzgerald Hemingway Gershwin Diaghilev and Picasso and goes a step further setting their work alongside that of African Americans such as Sidney Bechet Archibald Motley Jr and Langston Hughes and women such as Gertrude Stein and Nancy Cunard Riley's biographical and interpretive celebration of the many masterpieces of this remarkable group shows how the creative community of postwar Paris supported astounding experiments in content and form that still resonate today

Implosion Elizabeth W. Garber, 2025-07-30 What could be cooler than to live in a glass house designed by her architect dad Ever since childhood she's adored everything he loves his XKE Jaguar modern art and his Eames black leather chair and she's been inspired by his passionate intensity as he teaches her about modern architecture When Woodie receives a commission to design a high rise dormitory a tower of glass for the University of Cincinnati Elizabeth her mother and brothers celebrate with him But less than twenty years later Sander Hall the mirror glass dormitory will be dynamited into rubble Implosion: Memoir of an Architect's Daughter delves into the life of visionary architect Woodie Garber and the collision of forces in the turbulent 1970s that caused his family to collapse Soon after the family's move into Woodie's glass house his need to control begins to strain normal bonds and Elizabeth's first love a young black man triggers his until then hidden racism This haunting memoir describes his descent into madness and follows

Elizabeth's inspiring journey to emerge from her abuse, gain understanding and freedom from her father's control and go on to become a loving mother and a healer who helps others.

The Politics of Housing in (Post-)Colonial Africa Kirsten Rüther, Martina Barker-Ciganikova, Daniela Waldburger, Carl-Philipp Bodenstein, 2020-06-08

Housing matters no matter when or where. This volume of collected essays on housing in colonial and postcolonial Africa seeks to elaborate the how and the why. Housing is much more than a living everyday practice. It unfolds in its disparate dimensions of time, space and agency. Context dependent, it acquires diverse, often ambivalent meanings. Housing can be a promise, an unfulfilled dream, a tool of self and class assertion, a negotiation process or a means to achieve other ends. Our focus lies in analyzing housing in its multifacetedness: be it a lens to offer insights into complex processes that shape societies, be it a tool of empire to exercise control over private relations of inhabitants or be it a means to create good, obedient and productive citizens. Contributions to this volume range from the field of history to architecture and urban planning, African Studies, linguistics and literature. The individual case studies home in on specific aspects and dimensions of housing and seek to bring them into dialogue with each other. By doing so, the volume aims to add to the vibrant academic debate on studying urban practices and their significance for current social change.
