The Politics of the Headscarf in the United States Bozena C. Welborne, Aubrey L. Westfall, Özge Çelik Russell, Sarah A. Tobin, 2018-05-15 The Politics of the Headscarf in the United States investigates the social and political effects of the practice of Muslim American women wearing the headscarf hijab in a non Muslim state The authors find the act of head covering is not politically motivated in the US setting but rather it accentuates and engages Muslim identity in uniquely American ways Transcending contemporary political debates on the issue of Islamic head covering The Politics of the Headscarf in the United States addresses concerns beyond the simple particular phenomenon of wearing the headscarf itself with the authors confronting broader issues of lasting import These issues include the questions of safeguarding individual and collective identity in a diverse democracy exploring the ways in which identities inform and shape political practices and sourcing the meaning of citizenship and belonging in the United States through the voices of Muslim American women themselves The Politics of the Headscarf in the United States superbly melds quantitative data with qualitative assessment and the authors smoothly integrate the results of nearly two thousand survey responses from Muslim American women across forty nine states Seventy two in depth interviews with Muslim women living in the United States bolster the arguments put forward by the authors to provide an incredibly well rounded approach to this fascinating topic Ultimately the authors argue women s experiences with identity and boundary construction through their head covering practices carry important political consequences that may well shed light on the future of the United States as a model of democratic pluralism Women, Leadership, and Mosques Masooda Bano,Hilary Kalmbach,2011-11-25 This volume is the first to bring together analysis of contemporary female religious leadership in ideologically diverse Muslim communities in the Middle East Asia Africa Europe and North America with chapters discussing the emergence consolidation and impact of female Islamic authority

Abdullah Saeed provides a practical guide for interpretation and presents the principal ideas of a contextualist approach which situates the original message of the Qur'an in its wider social, political, cultural, economic, and intellectual context. He advocates a more flexible method of interpretation that gives due recognition to earlier interpretations of the Qur'an while also being aware of changing conditions and the need to approach the Qur'an afresh today.
