On The Mystery Discerning Divinity In Process:

On the Mystery Catherine Keller, 2026-02-24 Introducing Christian theology through a fully engaging honest search for truth Catherine Keller invites readers to reframe and rethink classic theological topics God creation Christ justice Spirit through the illuminating lens of process theology and its open ended acknowledgment of mystery

On the Mystery Catherine Keller, 2007-11-08 With immediate impact and deep creativity Catherine Keller offers this brief and unconventional introduction to theological thinking especially as recast by process thought Keller takes up theology itself as a quest for religious authenticity Through a marvelous combination of brilliant writing story reflection and unabashed questioning of old shibboleths Keller redeems theology from its dry and predictable categories to reveal what has always been at the heart of the theological enterprise a personal search for intellectually honest and credible ways of making sense of the loving mystery that encompasses even our confounding times

Patience—A Theological Exploration Paul Dafydd Jones, 2022-11-17 What does it mean to exercise patience What does it mean to endure to wait and to persevere and on other occasions to reject patience in favor of resistance haste and disruptive action And what might it mean to describe God as patient Might patience play a leading role in a Christian account of God's creative work God's relationship to ancient Israel God's governance of history and God's saving activity The first instalment of Patience A Theological Exploration engages these questions in searching imaginative and sometimes surprising ways Following reflections on the biblical witness and the nature of constructive theological inquiry its interpretative chapters engage landmark works by a number of ancient medieval modern and contemporary authors disclosing both the promise and peril of talk about patience Patience stands at the center of this innovative account of God's creative work God's relationship with ancient Israel creaturely sin scripture and God's broader providential and salvific purposes

Hearing Vocation Differently David S. Cunningham, 2019 Many colleges and universities have begun using the language of vocation which originates in Christian theology to help undergraduates think about their futures The contributors to this volume seek to reexamine and rethink this language for the contemporary multi faith context

Theologies of Creation Thomas Jay Oord, 2014-10-02 Humans have long wondered about the origin of the universe And such questions are especially alive today as physicists offer metaphysical theories to account for the emergence of creation Theists have attributed the universe's origin to divine activity and many have said God created something from absolute nothingness The venerable doctrine of creatio ex nihilo especially emphasizes God's initial creating activity Some contributors to this book explore new reasons creatio ex nihilo should continue to be embraced today But other contributors question the viability of creation from nothing and offer alternative initial creation options in its place These new alternatives explore a variety of options in light of recent scientific work new biblical scholarship and both new and old theological traditions

Theology and the Future Trevor Cairney, David Starling, 2014-07-31 Theology was once queen of the sciences the integrating centre of Christendom's conceptual universe In our own time the very idea of systematic theology is frequently called into question derided as an arcane and superstitious pseudo discipline Even within the church it is commonly disregarded in favour of unreflective piety and pragmatism At the same time the southward shift in world Christianity s centre of gravity prompts crucial questions about the future form and content of theology Within this context Theology and the Future offers a case for the continuing viability of theology exploring how it might adapt to changing circumstances and discussing its implications for how we are to imagine and help shape our shared human future Beginning with the question of God this book explores what might be meant by the future of God and what its implications are for Christian theology Chapters follow on the location of theology in global Christianity the church and the academy and on its sources and method The second half of the book explores a wide variety of dimensions of the human future that theology might address and illuminate The essays bring together a mix of specialist theologians and interdisciplinary thinkers to support the assertion that there can be no more critical endeavor to the future than understanding God and all things in relationship to him

The Great Open Dance Jon Paul Sydnor, 2024-04-24 The Great Open Dance offers a progressive Christian theology that endorses contemporary ideals environmental protection economic justice racial reconciliation interreligious peace gender equality and LGBTQ celebration Just as importantly this book provides a theology of progress an interpretation of Christian faith as ever changing and ever advancing into God s imagination Faith demands change because Jesus of Nazareth started a movement not a tradition He preached about a new world the Kingdom of God and invited his followers to work toward the divine vision of universal flourishing This vision includes all and excludes none Since we have not yet achieved the world that Jesus describes we must continue to progress The energizing impulse of this progress is the Trinity Abba Jesus and Sophia three persons united by love into one perfect community God is fundamentally relational and humankind made in the image of God is relational as a result We are inextricably entwined with one another sharing a common purpose and a common destiny In this vision we find abundant life by practicing agape the universal unconditional love that Abba extends Jesus reveals and Sophia inspires Extinction and Religion Jeremy H. Kidwell, Stefan Skrimshire, 2024-01-02 Human caused extinctions have never been so prominent in our political and cultural landscape Extinction and Religion is a collection of wide ranging chapters that explore the implications for religious faith and experience as it relates to a sixth mass extinction in Earth s history Further it seeks to answer the question as to how religious and spiritual practices are shaping responses to the crisis Edited by Jeremy H Kidwell and Stefan Skrimshire this collection aims to set a new postsecular agenda articulating the questions challenges and ways forward for thinking about religion in an age of mass extinction rather than provide responses from world religions in isolation It covers subjects such as the multitude of challenges posed by mass extinction to beliefs about the future of humanity death and the afterlife the integrity of creation and the relationship between human and nonhuman life Wide ranging and incisive Extinction and Religion amply demonstrates the many ways in which the threat of extinction profoundly affects our faith and religious life worlds The Simplicity of God Jonathan M. Platter, 2025-09-18 For most of Christian history God was understood to be simple It was a staple of articles of faith to confess a God without parts or passions But today divine simplicity is seen as either irrelevant or a vestige of classical theism Neither is quite right The Simplicity of God argues that the doctrine is often misunderstood but in the right light it can play a vitalizing role in Christian thought and spiritual practice In this companion Jonathan Platter presents an integrated account of divine simplicity and he goes further to explore the difference it makes for the doctrines of Trinity creation incarnation and eschatology Grounded in Scripture the history of doctrine and contemporary systematic theology The Simplicity of God offers a thorough introduction to the doctrine in an accessible format Wounded Images Kristine M. Whaley, 2024-03-27 This volume works through deconstructing traditional models of the imago Dei in search of a more inclusive understanding of the doctrine one that allows for literature to bring important questions to bear Brief analyses of Karl Barth and Paul Tillich and then growing dissatisfaction with the two in various liberation theologies brings to light the problems of a perfected image of God An exploration of four novels by Jean Rhys between 1928 and 1939 then follows the footsteps of Katie Cannon and others who include literature in their theological work The Rhys novels follow tragic stories of women who are wounded both by others and by their own inability to see themselves as worthy Through the questions these women ask about themselves and God the reconstruction of the imago Dei is set up This reconstruction centers trauma wounds and a non contrastive transcendence that Kathryn Tanner defines Ultimately it is not in how we are perfect but rather through our risks our wounds and even our grief that we connect to God Seeing Christ in Australia Since 1850 Kerrie Handasyde, Sean Winter, 2024-09-03 This book presents cultural representations of Christ embedded in the imagination and the contested myths of Australian life The essays attest to the variety and subtlety of neglected or unspoken representations of Christ in Australia In a land that has often declared itself secular or post Christian this volume looks into the Australian imagination in between the sacred and secular to see Christ in Australia God of Becoming & Relationship Study Guide Rabbi Bradley Shavit Artson, DHL, Nathan A. Roller, 2015-01-08 This fascinating introduction to Process Theology from a Jewish perspective shows that these are false choices Inspiring speaker spiritual leader and philosopher Rabbi Bradley Shavit Artson presents an overview of what Process Theology is and what it can mean for your spiritual life He explains how Process Theology can break you free from the strictures of ancient Greek and medieval European philosophy allowing you to see all creation not as this or that us or them but as related patterns of energy through which we connect to everything Armed with Process insights and tools you can break free from outdated religious dichotomies and affirm that your religiosity your spirit your mind and your ethics all strengthen and refine each other strike all living creatures a God who knows the future absolutely vs an open future that you help to shape through your choices Reconstructing Church Todd Grant Yonkman, 2014-08-06 The general decline of American mainline Protestant churches today is well documented Church redevelopment imagining and actualizing new life for dying churches is a productive and vital response to congregational decline but it can be daunting Here is guidebook for church leaders to help them reinvigorate their churches with both practical advice and tested theory A comprehensive case study of Beneficent Congregational Church which successfully turned the tide and quadrupled its worship attendance provides inspiration as well as concrete strategies for church redevelopment The study indicates that successful and faithful church redevelopment involves a shift from a modern patronage ministry model to a postmodern plural ministry model Building on current church redevelopment literature by bringing selected Biblical and theological texts into conversation with leadership concepts systems theory social sciences and congregational studies this book creates a multidisciplinary transformative conversation The result is both strategic proposals for growing your church and a model for doing practical theology in your own ministry context Dedicated trained leadership in cooperation with the power of the Spirit can create the possibility of new life in dying congregations

A Beautiful Bricolage Silas Krabbe, 2016-08-03 Theopoetics is a plea for a more fully human way of speaking about God in the twenty first century a way that offers new life to dry and dying platitudes Drawing deeply from linguistics theology philosophy and even quantum mechanics theopoetics attempts to reimagine the relationship between human language and speech about God through poetic phrasing and metaphor thereby proposing a new God talk Interacting with selective works from within the discipline Silas Krabbe offers a guide that not only maps the diversity of thought but also charts what is going on in the depths of the field Using the metaphor of a river Krabbe attempts to baptize the reader into theopoetics by leading an immersive exploration sounding its waters hearing resonances and echoes feeling its flow and becoming entangled in the braiding of its streams Plunging ever more deeply into the differences that exist within the discourse of theopoetics Krabbe is able to identify common aims currents and even hints of where this theopoetic river may lead Not only a text about theopoetics A Beautiful Bricolage is a work of theopoetics itself It thereby draws the reader into a mode of inquiry that repudiates those who attempt to grasp it

Catholicity and Emerging Personhood Horan OFM, Daniel P., 2019-09-26 An exploration of the meaning and identity of the human person in light of a renewed theology of creation the ongoing discoveries of evolution and natural sciences and newly appropriated resources in the theological tradition

A World of Becoming William E. Connolly, 2011-01-17 The prominent political theorist William E Connolly outlines a political philosophy for the contemporary world a world whose powers of creative evolution include and exceed the human estate

Spirituality of Creation, Evolution, and Work Roger Haight, Alfred Pach, Amanda Avila Kaminski, 2023-04-04 Two developments that occurred over the course of the nineteenth century had a strong impact on Christian theology The first was a deepening of the implications of historical consciousness and the second was the impact of science on Christian self understanding Marx s sociology of knowledge symbolizes the first Darwin s analysis of evolution symbolizes the second These intellectual developments gave rise to various forms of process philosophy and theology Within this context a dialogue between Christian theology and evolution has yielded dramatically new convictions and practices in Christian spirituality especially relative to ecology For more than three decades Catherine Keller has been reflecting on the intellectual and practical effects that an internalization of the dynamic character of reality should have upon the practice of Christian life Her text illustrates the basic framework of dynamic becoming that science demands whether or not one is formally a process thinker Pierre Teilhard de Chardin was an earlier figure who was more zeroed in on the phenomenon of evolution which he encountered in a distinct way as a Christian scientist trained in geology and paleontology as distinct from biology or genetics Evolution explicitly informs his spirituality These two different Christian writers the one representing the imaginative framework of being as process and becoming the other focused on how evolution affects intentional spiritual life open new perspectives on the spiritual character of people s active lives of work and creativity in the world that science presents to us

Paths to the Personal R. Melvin Keiser, 2024-03-29 In this age of electronic noise political antagonism and general discontent Paths to the Personal delivers to the spiritually hungry a delicious feast of peaceful promise Walter Gulick Professor Emeritus of Philosophy Humanities and Religious Studies Montana State University Billings Paths to the Personal Thinkers on the Way to Postcritical and Theopoetic Depths seeks to define and explore the dimension of the personal underlying all knowing doing being and religion Using a lens combining Michael Polanyi s postcritical and Stanley Hopper s theopoetic thought which carries the author into and beyond their explorative depths of the personal Keiser asks to what degree the personal is present in the thinking of Augustine Tillich H R Niebuhr Fritz Buri Freud Mircea Eliade Merleau Ponty William Poteat Hopper and Polanyi The immersive issues in these pages are how we know how words symbols metaphors myths and religious talk work contributions of philosophy to justice and peace making and the nature of religious thinking and being While not focused on Quaker thought and spirituality the author s Quaker perspective undergirds these inquiries

Theopoetic Folds Roland Faber, Jeremy Fackenthal, 2013-08-01 In complex philosophical ways theology is should and can be a theopoetics of multiplicity The ambivalent term theopoetics is associated with poetry and aesthetic theory theology and literature and repressed literary qualities myths and metaphorical theologies On a more profound basis it questions the establishment of the difference between philosophy and theology and resides in the dangerous realm of relativism The chapters in this book explore how the term theopoetics contributes to cutting edge work in theology philosophy literature and sociology

Dualities Michelle Voss Roberts, 2010-01-01 Philosophy and theology have each struggled with the problem of dualism the conviction that reality comprises material and nonmaterial entities Too often this split places God spirit mind and the masculine in opposition to evil body matter and the feminine These intellectual divisions support social structures that oppress rather than embrace women the poor people of color and others With this volume Voss Roberts expertly shows how comparative theology uproots dualism and fosters new modes of community built on cooperation instead of oppression
