On The Periphery Of Death:

Death Mario Erasmo, 2021-03-25 Personal and yet utterly universal inevitable and yet unknowable death has been a dominant theme in all cultures since earliest times Different societies address death and the act of dying in culturally diverse ways yet remarkably across the span of several millennia we can recognize in the customs of ancient Greece and Rome ceremonies and rituals that have enduring present day resonance For example preparing the corpse of the deceased holding a memorial service the practice of cremation and of burial in resting places are all liminal processes that can trace their origin to ancient practices Such rites described by Cicero and Herodotus among others have defined traditional modern funerals Yet of late there has been a shift away from classical ritual and sombre memorialization as the dead are transformed into spectacles Ad hoc roadside shrines virtual burials online guest books and even jazz memorial processions and firework displays have come to the fore as new modes of marking even celebrating bereavement What is causing this change and how do urbanisation economic factors and the rise of individualism play a part Mario Erasmo creatively explores the nexus between classical and contemporary approaches to dying death and interment From theme funerals in St Louis to Etruscan sarcophagi he offers a rich and insightful discussion of finitude across the ages The Message Beyond Words: The Illusion of Death and the Reality of Living: Talks on the Kathopanishad Osho, 2025-04-10 The Message beyond Words is an invitation to understand what death really is and thus transform the way you live These talks are based on the ancient Kathopanishad which tells the story of a small boy Nachiketa who is sent by his father to face the Lord of Death This Upanishad is traditionally read as someone is dying to inspire the people they love the people who are present to begin their search for a conscious life By exploring the methods described in this book a person frozen in their fear of death can melt flow and really begin to live for the first time Once you really face your fears about death says Osho your life will automatically transform and become conscious joyful and silent Osho defies all categorization As he says I am not much of a religious person I am not a saint I have nothing to do with spirituality All those categories are irrelevant about me You cannot categorize me you cannot pigeonhole me But one thing can be said that my whole effort is to help you release the energy called love intelligence If love intelligence is released you are healed On Peripheral Neuritis James Ross, 1893 The Death of Hamlet Amir Khan, 2025-01-06 This book is an intervention in Hamlet scholarship In Thus Spake Zarathustra 1885 Nietzsche famously posited the death of God taken to mean the dissolution of all horizons within which human beings construct a plausible ontology that gives words significance The idea of God as a transcendental signified to borrow from Derrida underwrites meaning and values Socrates placed knowing as the highest philosophical good over two millennia ago however once we find that God i e any transcendental signified is unknowable the world vanishes In a world bereft of concepts and meaning Nietzsche's philosophical project becomes one of redeeming pure willing as itself constitutive of world Hamlet and the criticism surrounding it is caught within competing horizons we know are circuitous and unending We tiresomely make theoretical rounds between competing sets of interpretations that boil down to either establishing meaning within the play the text transcending its history and revealing universal truths or situating the text within its proper historical timeframe in order to get it to speak In short we are trapped between contextualizing and decontextualizing approaches Yet we know both approaches as competing horizons we commit to at the outset are dead But to abandon both at the outset means that the text Hamlet is itself dead So how to get it to speak
